NAYS—1

Forrest,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative the question was determined in the affirmative.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 2692

Mr. KILROY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 2692, Printer's No. 1396, entitled:

An Act relative to the establishment and jurisdiction of magistrates' courts in Philadelphia, and creating a Board of Magistrates; providing for their qualifications; providing for a chief magistrate; prescribing their powers and duties; providing for supervision of such magistrates by the Board of Judges and the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Philadelphia; providing for clerks and stenographers; continuing a central administrative office and establishing the office of Bail Commissioner; imposing upon the City of Philadelphia the cost of continuance and maintenance of magistrates' courts, including payment of all salaries; fixing salaries and restricting magistrates to duties of office; providing for penalties for violation of this Act; and repealing certain prior acts.

was defeated on final passage June 11, 1935, be reconsidered.

Mr. HAGERTY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kilroy vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. KILROY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the negative.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hagerty, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. HAGERTY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the negative.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

MOTION TO MAKE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this motion be made a special order of business at 9.00 o'clock tonight.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call, and I ask for a roll call, because I understand that there was an arrangement and agreement that nothing of a controversial nature was to be taken up until 9.00 o'clock night.

Mr. BALDI. Mr. Speaker, I second the call for a roll call.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I want to state that the reason I made this motion was because I was informed by Mr. Witkin, Chairman of the Republican Steering Committee, that there had been an agreement between him and the Democratic Floor Leader that there would not be anything of a controversial nature at this session that was to be held between four and six o'clock this afternoon. I think the motion should be carried and the matter should be put over until 9.00 o'clock this evening.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SOWERS and Mr. BALDI.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was defeated?

MOTION TO MAKE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the motion to reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 2692, was defeated on final passage be made a special order for tomorrow, Wednesday, June 12, at 12:00 o'clock noon.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. WHITE. Mr. Speaker I second the call for a roll call.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House,—

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. James W. Patterson, Pfaff, George E. Downey, Harmuth, Stank, Welliver, Falkenstein, McDermott, Powers, John E. Brown, Siegel, Hindman, Hartman, Hirsch, Fitch, Alexander, Holstrom, Klinger, Decker, Frank P. Hamilton and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, will state his point of order.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I had the floor, and I was recognized by the Chair, and I think that motion is out of place.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. A motion for the previous question is in order during debate.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parlimentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of parlimentary inquiry.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, is this motion debatable?

The SPEAKER. There is nothing in order but the call for the main question. The question is: Shall the main question be now put? A roll call having been demanded, the roll will be called.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parlimentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin will state his question of parlimentary inquiry.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that the matter which is now before the House is a motion to put the question as to whether or not the motion to reconsider should be considered or whether the main question which is now before the House is the question on Mr. Tahl's motion?

The SPEAKER. The main question is the question on the motion to reconsider.

The Chair will read Rule 68 for the information of the members:

"The previous question shall not be moved by less than twenty members rising for that purpose, and shall be determined without debate; but when the previous question has been called and sustained, it shall not cut off any pending amendment but the vote shall be taken without debate on the amendments in their order, and then on the main question."

The main question before the House in this case is the motion to reconsider. A motion to make the main question a special order is a secondary motion.

The Chair will also read from Jefferson's Manual:

Section 442. "Previous question decided affirmatively forces a vote on amendments, then on the main question." The Chair will further read sections 445 and 454. "Previous Question is, Shall the main question be now put," i. e., at this instant it can admit of no modification."

The House itself will decide whether it wants the main question put or not.

The question is,

Shall the main question be now put?

The motion was not agreed to.

MOTION MADE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, now that this motion has been defeated, I will explain the agreement that was made this afternoon, and that was to pass over all third reading bills that were controversial. This bill in question having been defeated was not considered. However, in order to play fair, I now make the motion to make it a special order of business this evening at nine o'clock.

The motion was agreed to.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair is about to declare a recess until 9:00 P. M. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and declares a recess until 9:00 P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 9:00 P. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, and particularly my Republican colleagues, we had a session this afternoon from four until about six o'clock. I was not present at that session. I feel that I should explain to the Republican members in this House, at least, as to why I was not present. I also feel that I should explain to those members of the Republican party to whom I stated that there would be no controversial matters discussed or taken up at the afternoon session, and that the only matters that would be taken up by the Speaker or by the House would be non-controversial matters and for that reason they need not attend the afternoon session, why I made that statement.

I want to say to the Republican members of this House that the reason I was not here and the reason I made those statements was because I had a definite agreement with the Speaker of this House or, rather in the presence of the Speaker of this House and in the presence of the parlimentarian of this House, Mr. Eddie Moore, with the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, and for your information—and I call upon either of those two gentlemen present if I am in error—the agreement I made was that no controversial matters would be taken up by this House. I left this afternoon and did not return, having faith in the word of the gentleman with whom I made that agreement. I believed that I could leave the House and that if any controversial matters came up, the first man to be on his feet would be the gentleman with whom I made the agreement, to advise this House that no controversial matter ought to be taken up in view of that agreement.

I was amazed and dumbfounded when I understood that there was an effort made to reconsider the vote on a controversial matter, to wit, House Bill No. 2692. I was amazed to find out that despite the protestations of the genleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, that there was such an agreement, that there was no expression from the other side of this House until after extended debate.

I want to pay my respects to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke, because I understand that he was one of the few gentlemen who, having learned of the agreement, endeavored to see to it that it was carried out, and he has my admiration and respect, but I want equally to decry the fact that I cannot, as it has been proved to me, leave this House under any agreement with the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth—

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the gentleman has no right to cast personal reflections. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my personal reference was merely to justify my statement to those of you to whom I gave my word that controversial matters would not be taken up. I gave you my word because I got the word of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, otherwise I would not have given you my word—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is casting reflections upon a member of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has already ruled that the gentleman has no right to cast reflections upon any member of the House. The gentleman will please refrain from doing so.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parlimentary inquiry.

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, is a statement of truth casting a reflection?

The SPEAKER. The rules of the House state that a member cannot cast reflection upon another member. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I shall talk but one more minute. If I am correctly informed the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, rose upon this floor finally today and said that the understanding was that only controversial matters upon third reading bills were involved. I want to say to the membership of this House that that is not so, that there was no agreement limiting the matter to third reading bills. The Speaker of the House, Parliamentarian of the House were there, and they can give verification to the truthfulness of my statement or to its falsity, but the agreement, as I remember it was that no controversial matter would be taken up.

I thought that the tactics that were employed at the beginning of the session had ceased and that we had come to a better understanding of one another. I have been in this House for many a session and I have made agreements on many occasions but this is the first time that I have taken the floor of this House to say that a man had broken faith with me.

I want to assure the members of the Republican party that you, having reposed faith in me, that irrespective of the circumstances—although I am frank to say that the circumstance of my not being here today was purely of my own convenience and not urgent—I shall not leave this House again under any agreement but that I shall be here as your chosen representative on all matters.

I regret very much that we have reached the state in the House of Representatives in the State of Pennsylvania, where two men make an agreement and then not keep it.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I will answer the gentleman from Philadelphia on some matters. On his slurs I will not, because I am used to those by this time.

My understanding was that we were discussing bills on third reading at that time on the calendar. This bill was not up for discussion at that time and when it was disclosed that it was the best thing to do, we did the best thing and made a motion to lay it over as a special order of business until this evening. We did that because it was the fair thing to do. When we were discussing the agreement, I understood that we were talking only about third reading calendar bills and this bill was not gone over and was not considered at all in the discussion at the desk.

COMMUNICATIONS

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communications which were read by the Clerk.

INCOME TAX

A resolution from Berks County Ponoma Grange protesting passage of two per cent gasoline tax, and urging passage of flat income tax.

Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

A resolution from the Berks County Ponoma Grange urging revision of game laws.

Referred to the Committee on Game.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. WOODSIDE. RESOLUTION No. 171.

In the House of Representatives, June 11, 1935.

Whereas, The Committee on Education, which should deal in the main with bills relating to the public schools and educational institutions, is compelled, under the present set up of House committees to also consider the many bills which deal with the licensure of professions and occupations which are licensed through the Department of Public Instruction; and

Whereas, The number of licensed occupations and professions has so increased in the recent years as to make the consideration of these measures a real burden on the Committee on Education, while, at the same time, they lessen the time of the committee available for the study of educational measures; and

Whereas, The Committee on Education is of the opinion that an additional committee should be created to consider legislation relating to the State licensing of professions and occupations; therefore be it

Resolved, That Rule 27 of the House be amended by adding thereto a standing Committee on Professional Licensure.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

House Bill No. 1885, Printer's No. 1035, entitled, "An Act to amend section two hundred twenty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled 'An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth' by exempting from the provisions thereof persons fishing in the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania holding a fishing license issued by the State of New York and persons fishing in the waters of the Pymatuning Lake holding a fishing license issued by the State of Ohio."

House Bill No. 2117, Printer's No. 1193, entitled, "An Act to amend section two hundred and fifty-four of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled 'An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth' by authorizing the Board of Fish Commissioners to close streams or parts thereof for a certain period after stocking the same."

GEORGE H. EARLE.

SPECIAL ORDER ON MOTION

The SPEAKER. The Chair now lays before the House the special order fixed for this time:

Moved by Mr. Kilroy, seconded by Mr. Hagerty, that the vote by which House Bill No. 2692, was defeated on final passage, June 11, 1935, be reconsidered.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WITKIN and Mr. TAHL and were as follows:

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO MAKE HOUSE BILL NO. 2692 A SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 2692 be made a special order of business on final passage tomorrow at eleven thirty o'clock.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the hour of eleven thirty has already been assigned to another bill on special order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct. The time will have to be changed.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO MAKE HOUSE BILL NO. 2692 A SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be made a special order tomorrow at twelve o'clock noon.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that you have before you is very important and it ought at least be studied carefully by every member of this House.

I made this motion to have the bill made a special order so as to give me an opportunity to study the bill carefully tonight. There seem to be three or four defects in the bill, which might affect its validity, and the House ought to have a chance to correct those errors, if they finally believe them to be errors.

I ask this House, as a courtesy to the gentleman from Philadelphia, to allow us to have the night to go over this bill very carefully.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas any nays were required by Mr. WITKIN and Mr. WHITE.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. LaRue — — —

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. There is nothing in order but the seconding of the previous question.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. The Chair has just placed the question before the House, and no one has had the opportunity of debating the question. Is the previous question in order before there is any debate upon the subject?

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. The question before the House was on the final passage of the bill, and the motion for the previous question is in order.

APPEAL FROM DECISION OF CHAIR

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I second the appeal.

The SPEAKER. Two members having appealed from the decision of the Chair, the Chair calls upon the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews to preside.

MR. ANDREWS IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The question before the House is:

Shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the decision of the House?

Mr. WITKINS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House we are faced with a rather extraordinary situation. This bill was acted upon this afternoon. I do not recall the exact vote, but that is not immaterial to this issue. My recollection is that it was defeated by a rather overwhelming vote. We have just had various motions made in connection with this bill. It is a matter of considerable importance and some of us are in favor of it and some of us — — —

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia is not speaking on the question before the House, which is an appeal from the decision of the Chair. He is discussing the merits of the bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will confine himself to the question, which is the appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have not said one word concerning the merits or demerits of this bill and do not attempt so to do.

I do say, however, that several of us have expressions of opinion to give upon this particular bill. We are particularly anxious to give these opinions, because of the fact that a number of members of this House have apparently this afternoon had certain opinions upon this bill. We believe that a discussion of the merits of this bill or the demerits of this bill is important for the information of the House.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I must insist that the gentleman talk upon the subject before the House, which is the appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the gentleman from Philadelphia so far has been within his rights. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I reiterate, because of the interruption, that I believe for certain reasons there has been a change, perhaps a proper change and perhaps an improper change, in the minds of the membership of this House from this afternoon until this evening concerning this bill and we opposed it successfully this afternoon ought at least to have the opportunity, only the opportunity of hearing from those of you who are opposed, or in favor———

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia is not talking on the question before this House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the question before the House is purely a parliamentary point. The gentleman from Philadelphia has appealed from the ruling of the Chair on the basis of a purely parliamentary point, and the Chair would request the gentleman from Philadelphia to discuss the parliamentary point.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I repeat that I believe that in view of the fact that there have been certain changes in the minds of some men since this bill was acted upon this afternoon and is now about to be acted upon again, there ought to be given to the membership of this House the opportunity of expression of opinion

I believe that the Democratic leaders of this House have stated that they have no desire to stifle debate. The Chair ruled, before debate ensued, that the bill was before the House, and no man had the right to utter a word for or against. I think we have the right to be heard and I think that when the Chair rules that a previous question is in order, before anybody has discussed the question that the Chair has usurped powers that are not justifiable. I believe that ruling is a vicious one in American democracy and I believe it is a ruling that is against freedom of expression. I believe it is a ruling against the freedom of speech—

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, on a motion to move the previous question, does the Chair have the right to say whether or not the motion shall be put, or does the Chair have only one course to follow, and that is to put the motion as made.

The SPEAKER. That is the question that is before the House at the present time, the question that the gentleman from Philadelphia is presumably debating. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have appealed from the decision of the Chair, because I think the Chair was wrong and because I am going to ask you to say he was wrong. I am asking you to say he was wrong because I think his decision strikes at the fundamental principles of the constitution of Pennsylvania. I have appealed from the decision of the Chair, because I believe that the Chair has ruled against the fundamental principles of the constitution of Pennsylvania and the constitution of the United States. We in this country are guaranteed at least one thing and that is freedom of speech and the expression of our thoughts. We certainly have the right to express our views in this great legislative hall. We have the right not to be stifled before we begin.

If there had been any debate upon this subject and it had been prolonged for a short time, I concede your right to move the previous question, but where there has been no opportunity, where there has been nothing said, then I say when the Speaker hands down a ruling that the previous question is in order that that ruling is a vicious ruling, it is an unconstitutional ruling and it is a ruling that is a partisan and improper ruling of the Chair.

I also want the right of one thing: I want the right of this minority to express its opinion in fair debate. I recognize the right of the majority to govern. I am satisfied to let you stop us when we have proceeded, so far as your opinion goes, far enough. I do not expect much latitude. I have been here since January and I know that I ought not expect a great latitude, but I do say—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I submit that the gentleman has not stated one reason why he appeals from the decision of the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would ask the gentleman from Philadelphia gradually to approach the question of parliamentary procedure confronting the House.

For the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia the Chair would ask the indulgence of the gentleman from Philadelphia and of the House to read from Jefferson's Manual, Section 455:

"When any question is before the House, any member may move a previous question, 'whether that question (called the main question) shall now be put?' If it passes in the affirmative, that the main question is to be put immediately, and no man may speak anything further to it, either to add or to alter."

That is the proposition that is facing the House on the proposition to which I hope the gentleman from Philadelphia will address his remarks.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the Speaker who now holds the Chair has me somewhat at a disadvantage, because he is occupying the position of presiding officer. I would be glad to debate that issue with him if he will retire from the rostrum and debate it with me. It is because—

The SPEAKER. The Chair was with kindly intent endeavoring to give the gentleman a lead that would gradually introduce him to the merits of the question before the House.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I have always been afraid of strange Greeks bearing gifts.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke, will state his point of order.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, from the tenor of his debate bases his objections on grounds that I cannot perceive, namely, his rights under the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of Pennsylvania. Under Rule four of the ouse on questions of order, "All questions of order involving the determination—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I have risen and I rise again to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would state for the information of both gentlemen that there can only be one point of order before the House at one time. We are now debating a point of order and the only question that can be urged is whether the gentleman from Philadelphia is within his rights in debating it.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I asked the floor on that point. I did not finish my point of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the gentleman has the right to debate the issue before the House, and the point of order that the gentleman from Philadelphia raises must be as to whether the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia are relevant.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is along that channel. I had not finished my point of order when I was interrupted.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke, will proceed.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I raised the point of order, because the gentleman's objection is founded on his rights under the Constitution of the United States and of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Under Rule 4, "Questions of Order." All questions of order involving the determination of constitutional law, shall be submitted to the House at the request of five members."

As I recall, Mr. Speaker, the point of order of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, was submitted to the House at the request of two members.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken.

The question before the House is as to whether or not the Chair was right in a parliamentary ruling. The Chair would request the gentleman from Philadelphia to discuss the parliamentary proprieties of the Chair's ruling. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with respect to the constitutional question, I believe that I have stated it under the point of order from which I am appealing. However, I believe that might follow the question that is before the House and five members will join in it.

May I say, following the argument, that when you move the previous question, there must be something pending before you can move the previous question. Moving the previous questions assumes that there has been a debate and that the membership wants to go back to the original question. In this particular matter there was no previous debate and there was no previous question. There was a present question that was before the House, it being present and immediately here, but the moving to go back to a previous question would be to go back to something that we were not yet discussing. Nobody opened their mouths on this bill. Therefore, there can be no previous question.

I want to say this to you, and that is, that the ruling of the Chair entertaining a motion for a previous question where there was no debate ought not to be sustained. If you vote to uphold the Chair, then those of you who do that vote for the principle that where bills come up before this House, before they are discussed, before they are argued, and from the moment that the Speaker places them before the House, at that very second you can stop debate. You are creating a precedent, and I say to you, that if this House goes on record as being in favor of upholding the Chair in stifling debate before it starts, then you stand for that principle upon every bill that comes before this House from now until the day we adjourn, and we of the minority will have learned what you of the majority want, and I for one assure you that I shall give you what you want on every motion and every bill that comes before this House.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, if a question is before the House, and if a member gets up and moves the previous question, does the Chair have any alternative than to recognize that motion?

The SPEAKER. The Chair ruled in effect that he had no alternative and that is the sum and substance of the matter before the House at the present time.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the point of order is well taken in this matter for this reason—

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker is this question debatable by any person other than the person who appealed from the ruling of the Chair and the Chair itself.

The SPEAKER. Any member of the House is at liberty to express his opinions upon this parliamentary issue.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, do I not have the floor?

The CHAIR recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I had the floor when I was interrupted by the gentleman from Philadelphia. I did not surrender the floor. I was debating the subject matter, and I submit that no one else is entitled to the floor.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that a motion for a previous question is in order at anytime and upon the determination of the motion for the previous question will depend the gentleman has the floor — — —

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. The Speaker, my point of order is that the motion made by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair, for the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, will read rule 64: "No member when speaking shall be interrupted, except by a call to order by the Speaker, or by a member to explain, or by a motion for the previous question; nor shall any member be referred to by name in debate, unless for transgression of the rules of the House, and then by the Speaker only."

There is nothing in order except the motion for the previous question.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, did the Chair rule that my point of order was out of order?

The SPEAKER. The Chair ruled that there was nothing before the House except the motion for the previous question.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I appeal from your decision, that my point of order was out of order.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I second the appeal.

The SPEAKER. The House will be in order and the gentleman from Philadelphia will take his seat.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand now that the presiding officer rules that I do not have the right to take an appeal from a decision of the presiding officer?

The SPEAKER. It was only by indulgence that the Chair recognized the gentleman from Philadelphia, because the only matter that could have been before the House was to ascertain whether the motion for the previous question had been seconded. The Chair erred in recognizing the gentleman from Philadelphia. The House is now in the process of deciding whether the previous question shall now be put and no point of order can prevent the House from so deciding.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker may I ask the Speaker's indulgence to state that the Speaker in ruling upon my point of order read, and the Legislative Journal will so indicate a ruling, but the presiding officer did not make a ruling as to whether my point of order was well taken or not well taken, and it was for that reason, if the Speaker will indulge me that I rose to ascertain that, because had he ruled that my point of order was not well taken, I would have immediately appealed from that decision. The Speaker did recognize me, you have permitted me to ascertain the matter, and I appealed from your decision.

The SPEAKER. There is nothing before the House but the seconding of the motion for the previous question.

The previous question was further seconded by Messrs. Bradley, Harkins — — —

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker——

The SPEAKER. The House will be in order and the gentleman will take his seat until the seconding of the motion for the previous question has been completed and the previous question has been put.

The business before the House is to decide the issue that the gentleman from Philadelphia has raised, and that is what we are now in the process of doing.

The previous question was further seconded by Messrs Kelso, Eroe, Brownfield, Decker, Baine, Shaw, O'Keefe, Murrin, Brumbaugh, Frank P. Hamilton, Alexander, Nagel, Dilley, George E. Downey, Harmuth, Pfaff and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

The SPEAKER. Those voting "aye" vote on the main question which is: Shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the decision of the House? Those voting "no" vote not to sustain the ruling of the Chair.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SOWERS and Mr. WITKIN.

(The roll was called to and including the name of Smith, William G. during which time Mr. Witkin attempted to gain the recognition of the Chair.)

The SPEAKER. If the House desires the Chair will restate the question and give the House the privilege of another roll call.

The question before the House is: Shall the main question be now put? Those voting "aye" vote to bring the main question before the House which is: Shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the decision of the House? Those voting "no" vote not to bring the main question before the House.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, am I correct in my understanding that we are now voting on the previous question raised by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, as to whether the main question shall subsequently be put with respect to the sustaining or the non-sustaining of the Chair?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WITKIN and Mr. SOWERS.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the decision of the House?

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, since we have voted on the question as to whether the previous question shall now be put, there can be no debate at this time.

The SPEAKER. The House will be at ease for a few minutes.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, having been advised and with the understanding that the gentleman from York, Mr. Moul, will, upon the withdrawing of my appeal from the decision of the Chair withdraw his motion for the previous question, I now withdraw the appeal from the decision of the Chair with the understanding that the gentleman from York, Mr. Moul, will withdraw his motion for the previous question and permit a reasonable limited debate upon the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, withdraw his second?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I will. I will do it under the same conditions.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentlemen from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin and Mr. Tahl. The appeal having been withdrawn the Speaker will resume the chair.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to thank the members for the much needed rest and recreation which they have given to the Speaker.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the gentleman from Philadelphia has recognized that the Chair was not in error I withdraw my motion for the previous question.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, before I say a word about the bill, I withdraw, if you will permit me so to state, the appeal from the decision of the Chair, not because I recognized I was in error or because the Chair was right but under an agreement whereby the question could be debated and I want that noted in the record. I now yield to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, who will discuss the merits of the bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill now before you is the same bill that was before you this morning and after debate, defeated.

The bill appears to me to be one very hastily drawn and contains many mistakes. Among which the most important seems to be a delegation of legislative authority to a so-called board of magistrates or Board of Judges of the county of Philadelphia.

If you will refer to the bill, you will notice that the bill, on page thirty-one, repeals as to the county of Philadelphia the fee bill relating to magistrates and justices of the peace.

Now, the fixing of fees is a matter for the Legislature and not for a Board of Magistrates, and the delegation of legislative power to the Board of Magistrates would come within the recent decision on the NRA, that no legislative power can be delegated to someone else, and especially the right to fix fees and costs.

I call your attention to page twelve of the bill. Page twelve of the bill makes an effort to set up a central station day court and a central station night court, and provides for three magistrates to sit in that court.

Then on page thirteen, twenty courts are set up and the bill provides the magistrates assigned to those twenty courts shall be the only ones in whom criminal jurisdiction shall be vested and only during those hours, and the bill is minus on what the hours are. There is no provision in the bill fixing the hours of the twenty courts that are to be established, so that the citizens of Philadelphia, even if this bill was enacted into law, as respecting those twenty courts might from seven A. M., till four P. M. be without the power to enter bail. There is no provision in the bill that these twenty courts shall be open from seven A. M. till for P. M.

Exclusive jurisdiction is given to twenty magistrates and those twenty courts. There is no requirement in the bill that a magistrate must be in attendance at those courts during those hours. There is a provision in the bill that no person can enter bail except by going before the magistrates in those twenty courts. I submit to you that that is an important error in this bill, and the rights of the citizens of Philadelphia ought to be maintained, and unless the bill is corrected to cover this error, it is certainly jeopardizing the liberty of the citizens even in the most trivial kind of offense. Even if the police department should arrest a person for walking along the highway and spitting on the sidewalk, that person could be taken to the station house and there detained and until four P. M. he would not have an opportunity to enter bail.

The magistrate in each one of those twenty courts ought to be required to be on duty during certain specific hours. The bill instead of saying, on page 13, and 14, "those hours" should specify the hours particularly.

On page 14 of the bill we have a provision known as the twenty-seventh section of the bill, that warrants may issue and the warrants shall be returnable to the station house, one of the twenty courts, but we have no provision in the bill that the magistrate shall be at the station house to give the hearings. We do not repeal the magistrates code acts of 1927. That act requires that the magistrate shall stay at his office. It seems to me that it would be a gross error to arrest people, have them taken to the station house where there is no magistrate, and we have legally put the magistrate at his office. Why take them to the station house where they couldn't have a hearing? Why shouldn't they be taken to the magistrate's office for an immediate hearing?

On page 15, section 29, I note a very novel provision with respect to copies of the charge. This Legislature some sessions ago sought to correct the evil of police captains transferring business from station house to station house. It was a habit of the police authorities to arrest a person, take them to station house No. 1, and then when their friends went to meet up with them, the police would take them out the back door and then take them to No. 2 station house, and they kept on moving them around and you would have no opportunity of getting a copy of the charge or entering bail. That section No. 29 would in all probability re-establish the old system which this Legislature by an act of Assembly which is repealed by this bill, sought to cure, and did by that act cured.

Then you have the provision on page 13, section 31, that in certain cases a defendant cannot be discharged until the district attorney is sent for and arrives and reviews the evidence. You have made provisions in this bill for twenty station houses and you have made provision for a central station. If this bill is to operate, the district attorney must have twenty assistants in order to cover all the station houses. If the district attorney does not have twenty-one assistants to send out, then any innocent man charged with crime would have to remain in a cell until a district attorney arrived and it might take twenty-four forty-eight or seventy-two hours for the district attorney to come to that particular station house. You could not cover twenty-one magistrates' courts with the present staff of assistants that he has. Now, is it fair that a person innocently charged with crime, the magistrate is satisfied that the man is innocent, the police have made it a case of mistaken identity, the prisoner is cleared, but the magistrate cannot discharge him—is it fair that the prisoner must wait until a district attorney arrives and the district attorney may not arrive for as long as three or four days, because one or two assistants cannot cover all of the twenty-one courts. For example, you as a stranger, come to Philadelphia. You are charged with some offense. Somebody goes to the rogues gallery, takes out a picture, and says it is you. You are taken in and charged with a felony. You are brought before the magistrate the next morning. You establish to the magistrate that you were in Centre county on the day of the crime and not in Philadelphia, all the evidence points to it, yet he cannot discharge you. He must wait until the district attorney comes and God knows when he might come. You must remain in a little dingy cell in a little dingy station house, perhaps in company with a lot of drunks. Do you think a law like that is fair?

If you will look at page 16, section 32, you will find that there is practically no system established in this bill for releasing a prisoner charged with a crime between the time he is arrested and the time that suits the convenience of the magistrate to hear the case. Americans have always enjoyed the right to enter bail immediately after their arrest. If you send a warrant from one of the upstate counties down to Philadelphia, the constable is in duty bound under our present law to take the prisoner and permit him to enter bail immediately, but if this section 32 becomes law, it is doubtful whether that practice will continue.

You have a funny and peculiar system established on page 17, Section 34. In that section you really neglect to provide the right to a magistrate to fix bail. Assume that under that section the magistrate fixes bail. Assume the magistrate fixes the bail, the prisoner cannot be released. Assume that a court sits in Manayunk. City hall is twelve miles away. The bail is entered in Manayunk. The magistrate is satisfied with the suffiency of the bail, but the prisoner cannot be released until some one leaves Manayunk, goes to the City Hall, has the discharge O. K.'d and then carries it back to Manayunk.

We have on page 18, Section 37, a provision that the Board of Magistrates of Philadelphia—the Board of Magistrates that have been condemned in the public press—will have the power to appoint investigators. God knows how many and God knows at what salary. The power to appoint clerks— how many and at what salary? The power to appoint stenographers— how many and at what salary? In addition to that you have the sweeping expression "and such other assistants as they may think proper." I submit to you that that section is very loosely drawn. It might mean one hundred thousand dollars expense to Philadelphia, or it might mean five hundred thousand dollars expense to Philadelphia.

I ask you, members of the House, to vote down this bill; to vote as you voted before.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it had not been my intention to again debate this question, because I felt that the question was properly and sufficiently debated during the afternoon.

Therefore, it is not my intention to answer the various criticisms raised by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, categorically, but I do wish to say this, that this bill was approved by some of the best legal minds in Pennsylvania. They have taken all of these criticisms into consideration and they have drafted a bill which they think is the best workable plan that can be had at this time.

The question of the bail commissioner and the entrance of bail which was raised by the gentleman from Philadelphia is well stated and the sections from 33 to 41, which sections provide that the board of magistrates is required to designate one or more of the magistrates to act as bail commissioner, one of whom shall be on duty at all hours.

The question was raised as to when a citizen may be held, because he will not be able to present bail. The act specifically provides that one member of the board of judges who has been designated as bail commissioner shall sit at all hours to take bail.

Another question has been raised as to whether or not the central station is an adjunct or an addition to the twenty stations. It is my interpretation of the act that the central station will be one of the twenty which will be set out by the board of magistrates. There has also been stated the fact that the delegation of power to set fees had been given to the board of judges. I submit that that is a proper delegation of power. I also state that the appointments which Mr. Sowers, the gentleman from Philadelphia, has stated would be abused by the board of magistrates, will be properly supervised under this act by the board of judges, and if we, as members of the House, cannot have faith in our board of judges of Common Pleas of Philadelphia, we may as well stop passing laws right here and now.

On the whole, members of the House, this bill as drawn is as complete as it can possibly be. It is a measure which the citizenry of Philadelphia must have. Therefore, I ask the members of this House to vote for this bill.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OMINSKY. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia explain to this House what duties will be left for the magistrate in Philadelphia to perform if this bill becomes a law.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I feel that this question was raised at the prior debate, and I thought I had properly answered it at that time. As I stated then, the things for the magistrates to do will be to act in a judicial capacity, to sit in an impartial manner and to decide the cases which come before each and every magistrate in accordance with the law.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain what he means by "judicial capacity?" Will the gentleman explain it in plain language not as a lawyer.

Mr. OMINSKY. A judicial capacity, Mr. Speaker, as I understand it is the way a judge should act on the bench while he is acting as a judge.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, he can't act at all under this bill. All that is left for him under this bill is to draw his salary. Why does the gentleman from Philadelphia think it is necessary for the Governor of Pennsylvania to appoint the chief magistrate of the city of Philadelphia, when it would be the only county in Pennsylvania that would have such a law, and which will make the people from the rest of the counties come in at the next session and say, "It has been tried in the city of Philadelphia. Now why can't we have it in Pittsburgh and the other counties."

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I thought that I had explained this bill thoroughly in my last argument. However, for the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I wish to say that since our government is based on the check and balance system, we feel that the appointment by the Governor of the chief magistrate will be a check and balance on the board of magistrates and the board of judges. I feel that this is a proper innovation and I hope that other cities in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania may inaugurate the same thing.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am sorry that I again have to raise my voice in opposition to this bill. As many members of this House well know, during the summer months quite a number of people from your counties pass through the city of Philadelphia. As has been stated, there were in the neighborhood of 11,000 automobile violations in the city of Philadelphia, in some cases possibly by many of your friends, and all they had to do was to call one of our members and ask to be taken before a magistrate. Possibly in some cases the party could have been released by a phone call. He may have gotten into an argument with some policeman—blah, blah, blah, and then he was taken into the magistrate's office, and then he would be allowed to go to Atlantic City or wherever he was going. Under this bill, I give you notice, that if a friend of yours is driving through the city of Philadelphia and is not familiar with the traffic laws of the city and should violate the laws, they will take him to the central police station, and have his picture taken for the Rogues Gallery, and then he will have to find the chief magistrate whom His Excellency, the Governor is going to appoint. I would ask in all fairness for those men that they be able to travel through the city of Philadelphia without being arrested, because they are good law abiding citizens, and that we continue the system that has worked so wonderfully for the past 25 years. Help us to help your people that travel through the city of Philadelphia.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Section 511 All payments made by the board of school directors of any school district from the school funds shall be made by proper school orders drawn on the treasurer No work shall be hired to be done no materials purchased and no contracts made by any board of school directors which will cause the sums appropriated to specific purpurposes in the budget to be exceeded No school order shall be authorized by the board or signed by the president or secretary of any board of school directors unless there are sufficient funds in the treasury of the district to pay the same and no school order shall be made payable at any time in the future or draw interest A separate school order shall be drawn for each account or payment Provided That the monthly payroll of teachers janitors or other employes may be included on one or more orders which may be made payable to the order of such person or persons and distributed in such manner as the board of school directors in any school district may determine

Section 2 That section five hundred and sixty-three of said act as amended by section one of the act approved the fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one Pamphlet Laws ninety-one) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 563 The board of school directors of each school district of the second third or fourth class shall annually at [or before the time of levying the annual school taxes] least thirty days prior to the adoption of the annual budget prepare a proposed budget of the amount of funds that will be required by the school district in its several departments for the following fiscal year Such proposed budget shall be prepared on a uniform form prepared and furnished as hereinafter provided and [shall be] shall be apportioned to the several classes of expenditures of the district as the board of school directors thereof may determine Final action shall not be taken on any proposed budget in which the estimated expenditures exceed two thousand dollars ($2000) until after ten days' public notice Provided however That nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any school district whose total estimated expenditures do not exceed two thousand dollars ($2000) from holding a public hearing The proposed budget shall be printed or otherwise made available for public inspection to all persons who may interest themselves at least twenty days prior to the date set for the adoption of the budget The board of school directors after making such revisions and changes therein as appear advisable shall adopt the budget and the necessary appropriation measures required to put it into effect Within fifteen days after the adoption of the budget the board of school directors shall file a copy of the same in the office of the Department of Internal Affairs

The board of school directors shall have power to authorize the transfer within the same fund of any unencumbered balance or any portion thereof from one spending agency to another but such action shall be taken only during the last nine months of the fiscal year and [thereafter] except as hereinbefore otherwise provided no moneys apportioned from any class of expenditures shall be used for purposes other than designated for said class in said budget [until after affirmative action by the board of directors at a legal meeting] The total amount of such budget shall not exceed the amount of funds including the proposed annual tax levy and State appropriation available for school purposes in that district

The uniform budget forms required by this act shall be prepared by a committee consisting of five representatives of the Pennsylvania State School Directors' Association one representative of the Department of Public Instruction and the Secretary of Internal Affairs or his agent who shall be a person trained in the field of municipal finance

Such representatives of the Pennsylvania State School Directors' Association shall be appointed by the president of said organization within sixty days after the passage of this act As far as possible such representatives shall be chosen to represent school districts in the various population groups The president of said organization shall supply to the Secretary of Internal Affairs the names and addresses of such representatives immediately upon their appointment The representative of the Department of Public Instruction shall be appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction

Said representatives of the school districts shall serve without compensation but they shall be reimbursed by the Commonwealth for all necessary expenses incurred in attending meetings of the committee The committee shall meet at the call of the Secretary of Internal Affairs or his agent who shall serve as chairman of the committee

In preparing the uniform budget forms the committee shall give careful consideration to the fiscal needs and procedures of school districts of the various population groups producing separate forms if necessary to meet the needs of districts of varying sizes

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Internal Affairs or his agent to see to it that the forms required by this act are prepared in cooperation with said committee In the event that said committee should for any reason fail to furnish such cooperation the Secretary of Internal Affairs or his agent shall complete the preparation of the forms After their preparation he shall issue said forms and distribute them annually as needed to the school directors

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, particularly the Republican members of the House, with respect to this particular bill, to which many of the Republican members of the House were opposed, may I say to you that the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Weidemann, has offered certain amendments which have been adopted, and I, therefore, ask you to support this bill, as I believe it now meets all the objections raised by the Republican membership of this House.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1159 (Senate Bill No. 86), as follows:

An Act to amend section one as reenacted sections two and three as amended sections four and five and section six as amended of the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (Pamphlet Laws one hundred nineteen) entitled "An act for the promotion of medical science by the distribution and use of unclaimed human bodies for scientific purposes through a board created for that purpose and to prevent unauthorized uses and traffic in human bodies" by changing the personnel and increasing the powers and duties of the Anatomical Board of the State of Pennsylvania providing further for the distribution and use of unclaimed human bodies fixing the time for the claiming and distribution of bodies and the duties of carriers of bodies requiring those receiving bodies to give bond and providing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (Pamphlet Laws one hundred nineteen) entitled "An act for the promotion of medical science by the distribution and use of unclaimed human bodies for scientific purposes through a board created for that purpose and to prevent unauthorized uses and traffic in human bodies" as reenacted by section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty-nine) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 The professors associate professors and assistant professors in the departments of anatomy the professors of surgery and of pathology [the demonstrators of anatomy and the demonstrators of surgery] of the medical and dental schools and the medical and dental colleges of this Commonwealth which are now or may hereafter become incorporated [together with one representative from each of the unincorporated schools of anatomy or practical surgery within this Commonwealth in which there are or from time to time at the time of the appointment of such representatives shall be not less than five scholars] and the Secretary of Health shall be and hereby are constituted a board for the distribution and delivery of dead human bodies hereinafter described to and among such institutions and persons as under the provisions of this act are entitled thereto [The professor of anatomy in the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia shall call a meeting of said board for organization at a time and place to be fixed by him within thirty days after the passage of this act]

The said board shall have full power to establish rules and regulations for its government and to appoint and remove proper officers and shall keep full and complete minutes of its transactions and records shall also be kept under its direction of all bodies received and distributed by said board and of the persons to whom the same may be distributed which minutes and records shall be open at all times to the inspection of each member of said board and of any district attorney of any county within this Commonwealth The said board shall have full power to enter into contracts make purchases and perform such other acts as are necessary for the proper performance of its duties

The name of said board of distribution shall be Anatomical Board of the State of Pennsylvania

Section 2 That section two of said act as amended by the act approved the twentieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred sixty-seven) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 2 All public officers agents and servants and all officers agents and servants of any and every county city township borough district and other municipality and of any and every almshouse prison morgue hospital or other municipality or other public institution and all other persons having charge or control over dead human bodies required to be buried at the public expense are hereby required to [immediately notify] notify immediately the said board of distribution or such person or persons as may from time to time be designated by said board or its duly authorized officer or agent whenever any such body or bodies come to his or their possession charge or control and shall without fee or reward deliver within thirty-six hours such body or bodies and permit and suffer the said board and its agents [and the physicians and surgeons from time to time designated by them who may comply with the provisions of this act] to take and remove all such bodies to be used within the State for the advancement of medical science

Such notice shall be given to the board of distribution in all cases but no such body shall be delivered if any relative by blood or marriage shall claim the body for burial at the expense of such relative within thirty-six hours after death but the body shall be surrendered to said claimant for interment nor shall any such body be delivered if any friend or any representative of a fraternal society of which deceased was a member or a representative of any charitable organization shall claim the said body for burial within [twenty-four] thirty-six hours after death said burial to be at the expense of such friend fraternal society or charitable organization nor shall the body be delivered if said person was an honorably discharged soldier sailor or marine of the United States or of the militia of the State of Pennsylvania in which case said body shall be buried in accordance with the provisions of existing laws

In case of the death of any person whose body is required to be buried at the public expense and the duly authorized officer or agent of the board deems such body unfit for anatomical purposes he shall notify in writing the poor directors overseers or in counties in which there are no poor directors or overseers then the county commissioners of the county where such person died who shall direct some person to take charge of the body of such deceased indigent person and cause it to be buried and draw warrants upon the treasurer of their county for the payment of such expenses which expenses shall not be less than thirty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars on each body buried in accordance with the provisions of this act Such warrants shall be made payable to the persons so authorized and directed who shall have buried the bodies for which [no] said warrants are to be drawn No warrants for the payment of the expenses of the burial of any person whose body is required to be buried at the public expense shall be drawn or paid except upon the certificate of the duly authorized officer or agent of the board to the effect that such body is unfit for anatomical purposes or that the body is that of a soldier sailor or marine of the United States or militia of the State of Pennsylvania required to be buried at the public expense and that the provisions of this act have been complied with

Wherever through the failure of any person to deliver the body of a deceased indigent as required by this act such body shall become unfit for anatomical purposes and is so certified by the duly authoried officer or agent of said board of distribution such body shall be buried in accordance with the provisions of this act and the person so failing to deliver such body shall pay to the county treasurer the expense so incurred and upon the refusal or failure of such person on demand to pay such expenses the poor directors or overseers or in counties in which there are no poor directors or overseers then the county commissioners shall bring suit to recover the same to be recovered as debts of like amount are by law collectible

Section 3 That section three of said act as amended by the act approved the twentieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred sixty-seven) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 The said board or their duly authorized agent may take and receive such bodies so delivered as aforesaid and shall upon receiving them distribute and deliver them proportionally and equitably to and among the medical optometrical and dental schools and medical optometrical and dental colleges of the Commonwealth [physicians and surgeons aforesaid in manner following Those bodies needed for lectures and demonstrations by the said schools and colleges incorporated and unincorporated shall be first supplied the remaining bodies shall then be distributed proportionately and equitably preference being given to said schools and colleges the number assigned to each to be based upon the number of students in each dissecting or operative surgery class which number shall be reported to the board at such times as it may direct Instead of receiving and delivering said bodies themselves or through their agents or servants the board of distribution may from time to time either directly or by their authorized officer or agent designate physicians and surgeons who shall receive them and the number which each shall receive] If additional bodies are available beyond the needs of the medical optometrical and dental schools and colleges of the Commonwealth such bodies may be distributed upon request to physicians and surgeons and to other schools and colleges giving courses in science in which the use of cadaveric material would be advantageous or may be loaned for demonstration or examination purposes to the State Examining Boards and to recognized associations of licensed undertakers The cost of such bodies including preparation special handling and a proportionate share of the overhead cost of the board shall be collected by said board from such physicians surgeons schools colleges State Examining Boards and associations of licensed undertakers to whom or to which bodies are distributed or loaned

Section 4 That section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 4 The said board may employ a carrier or carriers for the conveyance of said bodies which bodies shall be well enclosed within a suitable encasement and carefully deposited free from public observation Said carrier shall [obtain receipts by] give a receipt containing the name of the person or if the person be unknown [by] a description of each body [delivered] received by him and shall deposit [said] a duplicate receipt with the secretary of the said board

Section 5 That section five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 5 No university school college physician [or] surgeon or association shall be allowed or permitted to receive any such body or bodies until a bond approved as to form by the Attorney General shall have been given to the [Commonwealth] board by such physician or surgeon or by or in behalf of such university school [or] college [to be approved by the prothonotary of the court of common pleas in and for the county in which such physician or surgeon shall reside or in which such school or college may be situated and to be filed in the office of said prothonotary] or association which bond shall be in the penal sum of one thousand dollars conditioned that all such bodies which the said physician or surgeon or the said university school [or] college or association shall receive thereafter shall be used only for the promotion of medical science within this State and whosoever shall sell or buy such body or bodies or part or parts of such body or bodies or in any way traffic in the same or shall transmit or convey or cause to procure to be transmitted or conveyed said body or bodies or part or parts of such body or bodies to any place outside of this State shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars or be imprisoned for a term not exceeding one year but this section shall not be construed as prohibiting the members of the board from transporting human speciments outside of the State for their temporary use at scientific meetings or exhibits

Section 6 That section six of said act as amended by said act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty-nine) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 6 Neither the Commonwealth nor any county or municipality nor any almshouse prison morgue hospital or other public institution nor any officer agent or servant thereof nor any person or persons having possession of an unclaimed dead human body shall be at any expense by reason of the delivery or distribution of any such body but all the expenses thereof and of said board of distribution except as provided in section three of this act shall be paid equitably by [those] universities schools and colleges regularly receiving the bodies under such rules and regulations as the board may from time to time provide [On the first day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one and quarterly thereafter it shall be the duty of the board to ascertain its full operating cost during the preceding three months and to bill each school college physician or surgeon for such sum per cadaver furnished as will equal such cost except that the sum per cadaver shall never exceed twenty dollars] All moneys received or collected by the board under this act shall be used by the board for the payment of all expenses incurred in the performance of its duties under this act

Section 7 That sections five hundred seven and five hundred nine and clause (d) of section two thousand four hundred two and clauses (d) and (e) of section two thousand four hundred three of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-seven) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" and the amendments thereto are hereby specifically repealed in so far as said sections and said clauses relate to the Anatomical Board

Section 8 The provisions of this act shall become effective upon the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1342, Printer's No. 999, on page 43 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. HARKINS.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1342, entitled:

An Act requiring every person registering a motor vehicle in the Commonwealth to furnish proof of financial responsibility with respect to liability for personal injury or death arising from the ownership, operation or use of such motor vehicle on the ways of the Commonwealth by the registrant or by any other person with his express or implied consent, providing the nature of public liability policy which may be used as such proof; providing for the regulation of the risk classifications underwriting rules, premiums, rates and schedule or merit rating plans of insurance companies issuing such policies; providing penalties, and repealing all inconsistent acts and parts of acts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain the bill.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of this bill is to require every person making application for a license plate for an automobile to furnish to the Secretary of Revenue a certificate that he carries on the automobile for which he makes application an insurance policy covering the owner in public liability cases, in the amount of from one to two thousand dollars; that is, one thousand dollars for an injury involving one person and two thousand dollars in case there is more than one person injured. As an alternative, a person instead of securing insurance can deposit securities or cash in the amount of twenty-five hundred dollars with the Secretary of Revenue.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, in the event that the person who is applying for tags for an automobile should be one of that class who is ordinarily rejected by insurance companies, such as students or persons who are the owners of restaurants that sell liquors and beer and they do not have sufficient money or other security to show that they are financially responsible, how will they obtain license plates?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I cannot answer the gentleman's question because I do not know of any class of person who because of their occupation or business are refused insurance by insurance companies.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I stated two classes: students going to school and restaurant keepers who sell what might be intoxicating liquors, and who are rejected by a number of good insurance companies, and it is pretty hard for them to get insurance on an automobile. In case they were rejected by insurance companies for that reason and they do not have sufficient moneys to deposit with the Secretary of Revenue, or whoever it is necessary to deposit it with, how would they be able to obtain license plates, even if they were good law-abiding citizens?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, I inquired of an insurance company representative who was here in the House the other day if insurance companies refused insurance to owners of tap rooms and he told me that he never heard of it. Now, so far as the student class is concerned, I never heard of their being refused. If we assume that insurance companies refuse those two classes of persons, I might say that such persons being unable to obtain insurance and unable to deposit securities or cash they could not secure a license plate for their car.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. I am sorry that this bill has been called up so late in the evening, but it is an important piece of legislation and I hope that you will bear with me for a few minutes while I try to outline what is involved.

I wish to call to the attention of the House that this Bill No. 1342, Printer's No. 999, on page 13, repeals the act approved the 15th day of May, 1933, and became effective on January 1, 1934, just one year and five months ago, entitled "An act relating to the financial responsibility of operators and owners of motor vehicles and to make uniform the law with reference thereto requiring operators and owners of automobiles under certain circumstances to furnish proof of financial responsibility as herein defined providing for the suspension of operators' licenses and motor vehicle registration certificates in certain cases regulating insurance policies which may be accepted as proof of financial responsibility imposing duties upon the Secretary of Revenue the State Treasurer and prothonotaries and prescribing penalties."

The purpose of this act was to drive the irresponsible operator of motor vehicles from the highway by compelling him, in case of default in the payment of judgments secured against him, to file financial responsibility with the Department of Revenue. The act provides "for damage on account of personal injury or for damage of property in excess of $200 resulting from the operation subsequent to the effective date of this act, by him, his agent or any other person with his express or implied consent, of a motor vehicle owned by him or the operation by him or his agent of a motor vehicle not owned by him, his operator's license and all of his registration certificates shall be forthwith suspended by the secretary upon receiving a certified copy of such financial judgment from the court in which the same is rendered and shall remain suspended and shall not be renewed nor shall any other motor vehicle be thereafter registered in his name, while such judgment remains unsatisfied and subsisting and until he has furnished proof of financial responsibility for further accidents.

That is the provision of the act now providing for the operation of motor vehicles in this Commonwealth and the reimbursement of those to whom damage is done after a judgment has been entered.

It seems to me that it would be unfair to the motorists of the state as well as to the Department of Revenue, which deparment has charge of the enforcement of the act, to repeal the law unless it has been definitely determined that it is unworkable and that it is not in the interests of the promotion of safety on our highways and that does not appear to be the case.

I wish to state however, that there have been one or two objections to the present act, at least a weakness especially in one of its provisions. As stated, in order that this act may be applicable for damage incurred, the amount must be in excess of $200. It is generally conceded that this amount is too high because of the fact that the majority of accidents occurring are for damages less than $200 and all of those guilty in such cases escape the provisions of the present financial responsibility act. To overcome this objection I introduced a bill early in the session, No. 940, which amends Section 11, reducing the amounts of damages occasioned and unpaid judgments for which operators' licenses shall be refused, from $200 to $50. This bill has been in the hands of the Judiciary General Committee since February 19. I wish to request the Judiciary General Committee to report this bill out of committee so that it may be considered on the floor of the House. With this change in the present law I feel that it should be continued for at least another two years so that its merits may be definitely determined.

Now, members of the House, returning to the provisions of Act No. 1342, now under consideration, which provides that every person registering a motor vehicle in the State of Pennsylvania must furnish proof of financial responsibility with respect to liability for personal injury or death arising from the ownership, operation or use of such motor vehicle on the highway of the Commonwealth, in other words this act is known as the compulsory liability insurance law. This is not a new question brought before the House. At every session for a number of years this same legislation has been considered and every time failed of passage.

There is but one state in which this law has been enforced and that is the State of Massachusetts. Many other states have carefully studied and analyzed the workings of this law and after such investigation no other state has enacted a similar compulsory liability law.

In my opinion it does not follow merely because the evil of uncompensated highway accidents exists, that such drastic legislation as that proposed in this act, is desirable. We believe that no adequate data exists to justify such proposed legislation in this state and that the data available elsewhere argues against the adoption of such legislation here. As stated above the only compulsory insurance law in effect in America, that of Massachusetts, has proven a failure which no other state thus far has been willing to imitate. The Massachusetts law, effective January 1, 1927, has been investigated by commissions of numerous other states and all of them have reported against the adoption of such legislation in their own states.

Some of the objections to a compulsory automobile insurance law may be considered as follows:

1. Under such a law insurance rates would be greatly increased. This has been experienced in Massachusetts where the rates fixed by state authorities have increased from thirty to one hundred per cent since the adoption of the law, although they are still inadequate to permit the insurance companies to operate at a profit. Between 1927 and 1933 the losses incurred by insurance companies in Massachusetts were nearly $13,000,000 in excess of the provisions for losses contained in the rates established. Six companies (five mutual and one stock), have been forced in receivership by their disastrous experience under this law. At least five others have withdrawn from the state for the same reason. It will be noted that one out of every nine companies engaged in writing automobile insurance in Massachusetts, since the compulsory law became effective, has failed or withdrawn.

Let me quote from a recent report as follows: It has been suggested "that the proposed Pennsylvania compulsory insurance law could correct the inadequacy of rates by permitting the companies to fix their own rates through their own group rating bureaus. Rates, in the long run, must be based on experience. A compulsory insurance law, here, as in Massachusetts, will mean an increased claims consciousness on the part of potential plaintiffs, generosity on the part of juries with minds no longer sobered by the thought that the verdict may reach into an individual rather than a corporate pocket, and a mass of fake litigation, all of which factors will result here, as in Massachusetts, in increased verdicts, increased loss ratios and very promptly in increased rates. The increased rates will cause public resentment here, as in Massachusetts, and the next logical step, politically, will be the fixing of rates by the state, followed possibly by the state going into the automobile insurance business. In the latter contingency the rates would probably be still higher, unless it is believed that government owned enterprises would be operated more efficiently.

Compulsory insurance encourages fraud, collusion and exaggerated claims. Such a law creates a golden opportunity for such practices. After seven years' experience in Massachusetts, notwithstanding heroic efforts by the judiciary and public officials, the disbarment of lawyers and revocation of mediical certificates, the evil continues. In 1933 there were 62,462 personal injury and death claims filed in Massachusetts despite the fact that the number reported killed and injured was 49,018. A significant fact, in that state, is that while the number of pedestrians injured remained almost constant each year since 1927, the number of occupants of automobiles allegedly injured increased from 14,629 in 1927 to 35,187 in 1934, although the number of motor vehicles registered in that state increased only 11.7 per cent during that period. In the words of Governor Fuller: "The situation that prevails is a complicated one, because of the fact that compulsory insurance has lent itself to all kinds of bribery, chicanery and misrepresentation. Large numbers of people have made fraudulent claims under the law and have been aided and abetted in this contemptible practice by doctors and lawyers alike."

Compulsory insurance provides laxity in the enforcement of traffic laws and safety regulations. Public officials in Massachusetts have publicly complained that even in the best regulated communities the injured party is unwilling to aid in criminal prosecutions for reckless driving when assured of financial settlement. This condition is not peculiar to Massachusetts but is more active there because everyone knows that everyone else is supposed to carry insurance.

Compulsory insurance would not tend to decrease accidents. Again the Massachusetts experience is significant. In 1926, the year before the Massachusetts law took effect, there were 838,111 automobile registrations in that state, 681 traffic deaths, 25,351 injuries, and 27,436 collisions, according to official records. In 1934 there were 946,240 registrations, 921 deaths, 53,055 injuries and 43,575 collisions. Registrations have increased since 1926 11.7 per cent; fatalities have increased 32.47 per cent; injuries reported to the registrar's office have increased 109.24 per cent and collisions have increased 58.83 per cent.

Members of the House, I believe that this present act which has been on the statute books for a year and five months, should be continued for another two years.

The report from the Department of Revenue states that fifteen thousand motorists have either had their licenses revoked or have given proofs of financial responsibility to the Department.

After all, all we would have to do would be two things: first, to take the reckless operators of automobiles off the highways, and the second, is to insure to the injured person or automobile proper reimbursement. If you will reduce the minimum amount of the present act from two hundred dollars to fifty dollars, you will take care of over ninety percent of the accidents on the highway.

Members of the House, I ask you to vote against this bill and to continue the present financial responsibility act.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I have been requested by many members who are interested in this bill to have it placed on the postponed calendar. Therefore, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it, whereupon, a division was called for, sixty-two members having voted in the affirmative and forty-nine in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2206, Printer's No. 1041, on page 41 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. RUTH

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 2206, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand three hundred and one of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" as amended establishing a compulsory tax levy for fire protection

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REISING. Mr. SPEAKER, in view of the fact that one of the most pressing problems that we have at this time in Pennsylvania is relief from real estate taxes and in view of the further fact that this bill would impose further taxes, while not in large amounts, yet it does impose additional taxes on real estate, I would ask, since it so important that we prevent additional taxes on real estate at this time, and in order that we may continue to operate smoothly the other functions of government, that you vote down this bill. There are many other methods of raising the money and carrying on than those proposed by this bill.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to remind the House that there is a bill on the statute books that permits through a referendum the levying of taxes from one to three mills for fire protection purposes within boroughs. I believe that that law is adequate. In addition to what Mr. Reising has said, I believe also that it is an inopportune to pass such an act at this time.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1935 No. 75

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, June 12, 1935

The Senate met at 12:00 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O Thou, the God of nations, we thank Thee for our nation and for the honorable position she occupies among the kingdoms of earth. Never has her head been bowed in shame or defeat. By Thy grace it never shall.

The beautiful emblem whose birth we this week celebrate, has led many an American hero to victory and has never been trailed in the dust of dishonor. We would make our prayer for our flag today in these words:

The red, it is the blood of them who did our battles fight;
The white stands for our purity, for justice and for right;
The blue bespeaks for every son of Freedom's blood-bought soil
A rest beyond yon azure sky from battle and from toil.
O God, preserve our nation's flag, vouchsafe to it Thy care,
And to defend the Patriots' cause, Thy mighty arm make bare.

Hear this our prayer for Thy name's sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BUCKMAN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

House Bill No. 2653, entitled:

An Act granting permission to the Borough of Camp Hall, Pennsylvania, and the Borough of New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, to use, jointly with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the force main and outfall sewer constructed for the Cumberland Valley State Institution for Mental Defectives, in Lower Allen Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, and authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to enter into contracts for such joint use.

House Bill No. 1914, entitled:

An Act to amend clause seven of section one of the act approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 1043) entitled "School Employes Retirement Law" as amended by extending the time for employes of the Department of Public Instruction to withdraw from the Retirement System and to be reimbursed for moneys which they have paid in.

House Bill No. 1973, entitled:

An Act to further amend section twelve of the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 1043), entitled "State Employes Retirement Law," by extending the benefits of said act to certain employes who have heretofore separated from school service.

House Bill No. 812, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Military Affairs for the acquisition by purchase or condemnation of lands, the payment of labor, and the purchase of supplies, materials and equipment, to enlarge and improve the Military Reservation at Indiantown Gap, and imposing certain duties upon the State Military Reservation Commission and the Department of Property and Supplies.

House Bill No. 2325, entitled:

An Act providing for the assignment of the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County to preside in the courts of common pleas and quarter sessions of such county.

House Bill No. 1621, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two and five of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine (P. L. 66), entitled "An act defining and regulating escheats in cases where property is without a lawful owner, and providing for more convenient proceedings relative to the same," as amended, by extending the same to funds and money, estates or effects in the custody, or under the control, of certain United States courts; fixing jurisdiction; and providing proceedings relative thereto.

House Bill No. 1821, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four hundred and twenty-one, four hundred and twenty-two, and four hundred and twenty-three as amended, section four hundred and twenty-four, section four hundred and twenty-six as amended, section four hundred and twenty-eight, section four hundred thirty-two as amended, and section four hundred and thirty-nine of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "General County Law," by clarifying the term "Deceased service men," specifying the form and contents of applications for county contributions; stipulating the material for markers; permitting contributions for lettering alone, permitting the removal of worn flags, requiring the appointment of grave registrars and providing a penalty.

Senate Bill No. 344, entitled:

An Act to amend the title, and sections one and two of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 1019), entitled "An act relating to seated lands purchased by county commissioners at county treasurer's sales of seated lands for collection of taxes; authorizing the county commissioners to sell the same at private sale under the circumstances," by extending the provisions thereof to unseated lands.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, at a conference in the Governor's office yesterday between the members of the Committee on Finance and himself, he made certain remarks which appeared to me to be a reflection on the members of the Senate. I desire to read from a morning newspaper of Philadelphia:

"As a strong advocate of the tax on chain stores, Governor Earle, after stating that in his opinion these establishments could carry the burden, suddenly expressed surprise that some members, previously understood to favor the impost, are now against it."

I quote, further: "I suggest, gentlemen," said the Governor, "that you investigate ugly rumors that have been going around the Capitol with reference to this bill. It seems strange to me that some members who were for the bill some time ago are now among its outstanding opponents.

"Why this about-face? These ugly rumors may be entirely without foundation, but for the sake of your own reputations I suggest that you investigate them."

RESOLUTION REQUESTING INFORMATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McCLURE offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, June 12, 1935.

Whereas, During a visit paid by the Members of the Finance Committee of the Senate of Pennsylvania to Governor George H. Earle at his office in the State Capitol,

Tuesday, June 11th, the Governor in a discussion of tax bills suggested an investigation into what he termed "ugly rumors" concerning the attitude of Senators upon pending legislation known as the bill to tax chain stores, and

Whereas, The remarks of Governor George H. Earle have been given great prominence in the newspapers of Pennsylvania today and constitute a reflection upon members of this body, making it imperative that the facts upon which any such statement as made by Governor George H. Earle should be made known to the Senate, now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania hereby respectfully requests Governor Earle to submit to the Senate in writing any information he may possess as a foundation for the remarks made by him at his conference with Members of the Finance Committee of the Senate of Pennsylvania on Tuesday, June 11.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended, and that the Senate do now proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I object. The reason for my objection is, I should like to offer an amendment to the resolution.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, since the resolution has been presented, I should like to offer an amendment providing for an investigation.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, desire to offer his amendment?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I do not have it prepared. That is why I object to the immediate consideration of this resolution—so I may have an opportunity to offer the amendment.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, desire that the resolution be referred to a committee, or that it lie on the table?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the resolution lie on the table for the present.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE FACILITIES FOR TREATMENT OF TUBERCULAR PATIENTS IN STATE SANITORIA, PURSUANT TO SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 13

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, as chairman of a special committee appointed, under Senate Resolution No. 13, to investigate the necessity of providing additional facilities for the care and treatment of tubercular patients eligible to admission in the State sanitoria, I desire to make my report at this time. Copies have been prepared and will be placed upon the desks of the Senators.

The PRESIDENT. Inasmuch as copies of the report are to be placed on the desks of the Senators, the Chair sees no necessity of having it read. It will be received and made a matter of record in the Journal.

Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, June 10, 1935.

To the President and Members of the Pennsylvania State Senate.

Gentlemen:

According to Senate Resolution No. 13, a special committee was appointed to investigate the necessity of providing additional facilities for the care and treatment of tubercular patients, eligible to admission to the state sanatoria of this Commonwealth, and whether any property of the Commonwealth now in use for other purposes or unused, could be employed more advantageously in the care and treatment of tubercular patients.

This committee after careful investigation and thoughtful consideration, submit the following report:

The General Assembly, Special Session of 1933, passed the necessary legislation for the creation of a State Tuberculosis Sanatorium No. 4, to cost $800,000.00. It required that the institution be located in forestry reserve land owned by the Commonwealth. A site was chosen in Jefferson County and approved by the Governor. Plans and specifications were prepared and submitted to the Public Works Administration, Washington, D. C. These plans were approved and the project given a Federal Docket number. As the Commonwealth was unable to acquire the amount requested the project was abandoned. However, the application before the Public Works Administration was not withdrawn and is still pending.

During the present session of the General Assembly, House Bill No. 271, introduced by Mr. Baine, January 22, 1935, was presented which requests the authorization of the eretion and construction of a new sanatorium. The Act carries a request for $800,000.00 and is similar to the Act presented in the Special Session of 1933.

The waiting list, a part of this report, shows very clearly the constant demand for admission to the three (3) Sanatoria and when one realizes that it takes eight (8) months after an application has been received before a hospital patient is admitted, the need for additional beds is evident, by the following:

WAITING LIST FOR ADMISSION TO SANATORIA
PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

	1930	1931	1932	1933	1934	1935
January	581	950	1227	1151	715	913
February	669	1040	1310	1175	835	999
March	750	1190	1385	1142	804	994
April	825	1320	1451	1322	702	1013
May	1050	1300	1435	1533	970	867
June	1305	1452	1446	1580	866
July	1275	1470	1585	1580	1032
August	1345	1420	1610	1284	984
September	1105	1564	1507	1099	1173
October	1085	1526	1365	1062	1205
November	1050	1435	1312	*894	1044
December	900	1313	1243	829	985

* You will note the reduction in the waiting list as of November, 1933. The Legislature of 1929 and 1931 appropriated sufficient amount of money for the construction of four (4) hospital units at Mont Alto, two (2) at Hamburg and one (1) at Cresson, which were responsible for the marked decrease as shown. However, since June, 1934 there appears to be a tendency unward. Patients are now being admitted whose applications were received in July, 1934.

In view of the above we are submitting two separate studies as to the construction of a new sanatorium or the enlargement of the present Sanatoria.

The waiting list as of May 1, 1935, shows that a total of eight hundred and sixty-seven (867) persons are waiting for admission to the Sanatoria. A study of the list convinces us that additional beds for approximately six hundred (600) persons should be provided.

The two plans considered are as follows:

1. The construction of a new sanatorium for 600 beds. (Estimated cost $4,037,000.00).
2. The enlargement of the present three (3) Sanatoria by 636 additional beds. (Estimated cost $3.156,500.00).

The study contains a few methods for reaching the desired results, however, numerous combinations can be devised other than shown.

The study also shows the difference between the cost of construction, as to whether the work be constructed under the supervision of the Commonwealth or the Public Works Administration. The figures are only estimates to be used as a comparison. The actual cost of the projects will vary in conformity to cost of both labor and materials at the time of construction.

Your committee keeping in mind that part of the study pertaining to the enlargement to the three (3) Sanatoria, contemplates no abandonment of existing units. In each scheme it means additional buildings. It is not intended to convey the thought that should these enlargements be made no further funds would be required for future construction.

Mont Alto Sanatorium was built between 1907 and 1910. It consists of wooden buildings, none of which are fireproof, in fact, they are now considered a dangerous fire hazard, especially the Children's Building. In a comprehensive scheme it is planned to gradually replace these wooden units with modern fireproof structures.

The existing wooden cottages at both Mont Alto and Cresson are not suitable for the treatment of tuberculosis in accordance with modern practice. They have reached the point, where it is both expensive and difficult to keep in repair and maintain. It is hoped that at some future time no patient will be housed and treated in any wooden building.

It has been suggested that there might be the possibility of securing extra bed capacity at both Cresson and Hamburg by raising the roofs of the existing ward buildings to make them three (3) stories high. This is not feasible for the following reasons:

1. The existing ward buildings are not fireproof.
2. To add an additional story and roof would increase the fire hazard to a marked degree.
3. The above is substantiated by the Building Inspection Section of the Department of Labor and Industry.
4. Serious engineering problems would have to be met, due to narrowness of the buildings, wind stresses, structural stability, extension to utilities lines, etc.
5. The necessity of closing second story wards during construction (approximately one [1] year or more) would temporarily decrease the present bed capacity with a corresponding increase in the waiting list during the same period.

The building of a new Sanatorium costing over $4,000,000.00 cannot be considered at this time owing to economic conditions, but some arrangement must be made to meet, in some degree, the crying need of the tubercular sufferers of Pennsylvania. Therefore, we submit the following propositions with our recommendation.

Additional savings if interest and overhead charges are not paid to United States Government for P. W. A. Funds	175,500.00
*Total Savings	$1,056,000.00

Note that 150 help are required for a new Sanatorium, and that 104 help are required for additions to present Sanatoria.

*It is also of interest to note that the present personnel such as Medical Director and his Administrative, Maintenance and Operating employees at the three (3) Sanatoria would not have to be increased to any great extent should the Sanatoria be enlarged as outlined.

Your committee, after carefully considering the tax burdened conditions of our people, recommends that an addition to the Hamburg Sanatorium only, to cost approximately $1,405,000.00, and housing 320 patients, be erected as soon as funds are available.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. COYNE, from the Committee on Municipal Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1436 (House Bill No. 1980), entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-two) entitled "An act providing for the registration of ownership to real estate in cities of the second class for the use of said cities to facilitate the assessment levy and collection of taxes and municipal claims in such cities authorizing the preservation and use of records heretofore employed in such cities for such purposes."

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from Committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SALUS, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1425, entitled:

An Act giving owners the right to elect to pay delinquent taxes on seated lands for one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and prior years in instalments; abating penalties and interest on taxes for such years upon the payment of such instalments, together with the taxes for current years and in certain instances of accrued costs; extending the period for redemption of lands sold to counties where it has not already expired; providing for sales of lands already advertised for sale for delinquency in payment of taxes; providing for sales of land as to which the owner has not performed; the requirements of the act after an election, and for the sale of lands as to which no election has been made by the owner, and repealing inconsistent laws.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. MALLERY read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1620, entitled:

An Act empowering the Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor and the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania Industrial School, to grant a right of way or easement to the Penn Central Light and Power Company across lands of the Pennsylvania Industrial School on certain conditions.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. GRAFF read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1621, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine (P. L. 229) entitled "An act relative to the liens of the Commonwealth against unpatented lands; providing for their adjustment and for the granting of patents," by exempting the Commonwealth, and any department board or commission thereof from the payment of certain patent fees.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. GELDER read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1622, entitled:

An Act to amend the title of, and the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 301) entitled "An act providing for the acquisition, construction improvement operation and maintenance of bridges over rivers and navigable waters within the Commonwealth; authorizing the issuance of bridge revenue bonds, free from taxation and payable solely from bridge earnings, to pay the cost of such bridges and improvements thereof; providing for the collection of bridge tolls for the payment of such bonds, and for the cost of maintenance, operation and repair of the bridges; constituting such bonds legal investments in certain instances; prescribing conditions upon which such bridges shall become free bridges; conferring powers and imposing duties on the State Bridge Commission; providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act; and providing for condemnation," by extending the provisions thereof to tunnels for highway purposes.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. FREY read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1623, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Act No. 52) entitled "An act authorizing the abatement of certain tax penalties and interest on county, city (except city of the first class), borough, town, township school district (except school district of the first class) and poor district taxes," by providing for the abatement of taxes on real estate by sheriff's sale, by specifically stating delinquent date of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five taxes, and by stating the effect of nonpayment of any quinquennial installment of delinquent taxes.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

HOUSE NON-CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1972

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced informed the Senate that the House has non-curred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1972, entitled:

An Act fixing the salary of the district attorney in counties of the seventh class.

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1972

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon the amendments made by the Senate to the foregoing bill.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1590

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1590, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twelfth day of March one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (App. Acts, Act No. 5-A) entitled "An act transferring money from the Fire Insurance Tax Fund to the General Fund and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money" by extending the time for return of the transferred money.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, it is the desire of some Senators here to give this bill, as well as the other bills extending the time for return of the transferred money to the General Fund, more study before we act on them. With regard to Senate Bill No. 1422, a companion bill, I am going to ask the Senate to recess so this bill, as well as the others of like nature, can be given further consideration before they finally come to a vote. I respectfully request the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, to withdraw his motion for the present.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, the request of the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, for more time in which to consider these bills prompts me to ask this question: How much more chance will we have to consider these bills than we have had already, unless we take considerably more time to do it?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, these bills will not take long, and I have been requested by some of the Senators in the Chamber to ask for a recess so they can consider these bills.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I never object to anyone's being given time to consider bills; but we have been late in starting—this session was to have been begun at twelve o'clock noon, and it was practically one o'clock before we convened. There is a good deal of business before us, and I think we should have as few recesses as possible in view of the length of the Calendar. Therefore, I press my motion to proceed to the consideration of this bill.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I hope the members of the Senate will reject the motion.

A division being called for, twenty-five Senators voted in the affirmative, and twenty-four in the negative; whereupon the motion was decided in the affirmative.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1590, on third reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I second the motion

The motion was agreed to.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1587

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1587, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the nineteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (P. L. 8) entitled "An act transferring money from the State School Fund to the General Fund requiring the State Council of Education to liquidate the investments in the State School Fund and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money" by extending the time for the repayment of the amounts transferred.

This is the bill dealing with the money from the State School Fund.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I object to this motion for the same reason I stated in objecting to the previous motion. I believe that the members of the Senate should be given time to consider these bills.

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now recess for thirty minutes.

POINT OF ORDER

The PRESIDENT. There is a motion pending. The previous motion will have to be put.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, twenty Senators voted in the affirmative, and twenty-seven in the negative; whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

RECESS

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now recess for thirty minutes.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of the recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 712, as follows:

An Act to amend section thirteen of the act approved the eleventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred eighty-five) entitled "An act to provide for the better protection of life and health of the citizens of this Commonwealth by requiring and regulating the examination licensure and registration of persons and registration of corporations engaging in the care preparation and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons and providing penalties" by prohibiting the issuance of licenses to the registration of and the conducting of business by corporations not previously licensed and registered and preserving the right of certain other corporations.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Represenatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section thirteen of the act approved the eleventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred eighty-five) entitled "An act to provide for the better protection of life and health of the citizens of this Commonwealth by requiring and regulating the examination licensure and registration of persons and registration of corporations engaging in the care preparation and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons and providing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 13 (a) The provisions of this act shall not be construed as preventing the conducting of the business or profession of undertaking by a corporation heretofore licensed [or by a corporation all of the officers of which are duly licensed undertakers actively engaged in the conduct of the business of said corporation] if such corporation is registered by and conforms with such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe with relation thereto and no branch licenses shall hereafter be granted any corporation

(b) The board shall not hereafter issue licenses to nor register any corporation nor shall any corporation be permitted to conduct the business or profession of undertaking which has not already been licensed and registered Provided however that the provisions of this act shall not be construed to affect the rights existing prior to the effective date hereof of any corporation heretofore incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth or incorporated under the laws of any other State and heretofore authorized to conduct business within this Commonwealth

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend title of bill, page 1, line 13, by striking out after the word "registered" the words "and preserving the rights of certain"; amend title of bill, page 1, line 14, by striking out the words "other corporations"; amend Section 1, page 3, line 1, by striking out after the bracket, the following: "Provided however that the provisions of"; amend Section 1, page 3, by striking out all the words in lines 2 to 7 inclusive.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Shapiro,

A majority off all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House off Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1035, as follows:

An Act to amend the Act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws six hundred eighty-two) entitled "An Act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" so that a new section to be known as section four hundred and ten B (410B) is added providing uniform policy provisions for pure endowment contracts and contracts of annuities issued by stock and mutual life insurance companies

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws six hundred eighty-two) entitled "An Act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" is hereby amended to include a new section to be known as four hundred and ten B (410B) to read as follows

Section 410B Uniform provisions for contracts of annuities and pure endowment contracts On and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six no annuity or pure endowment contract shall be issued or delivered in this Commonwealth by any stock or mutual life insurance company except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener unless and until a copy of the form thereof has been filed with the Insurance Commissioner and formally approved by him Except in the case of a reversionary annuity otherwise called a survivorship annuity or an annuity contracted by an employer in behalf of his employes no annuity or pure endowment contract shall be so issued or delivered in this Commonwealth unless it contains in substance the following provisions

(a) A provision that there shall be a period of grace either of thirty days or of one month within which any stipulated payment to the company falling due after the first year may be made subject at the option of the company to an interest charge thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per centum per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before such payment during which period of grace the contract shall continue in full force but in case a claim arises under the contract on account of death during the said period of grace before the overdue payment to the company or the deferred payments of the current year if any are made the amount of such payments with interest on any overdue payments may be deducted from any amount payable under the contract in settlement

(b) If statements other than those relating to age and identity are required as a condition of issuing the contract a provision that the contract shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the person or each of the persons as to whom such statements are required for a period of two years from its date of issue except where stipulated payments to the company have not been made and except for violation of the conditions of the contract relating to military or naval service in time of war and at the option of the company provisions relative to benefits in the event of total and permanent disability and provisions which grant insurance specifically against death by accident may also be excepted

(c) A provision that such contract shall constitute the entire contract between the parties but if the company desires to make the application a part of the contract it may do so provided a copy of such application shall be indorsed upon or attached to such contract when issued and in such case such contract shall contain a provision that it together with the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties

(d) A provision that if the age of the person or persons upon whose life or lives the contract is based or of any of them has been misstated the amount payable under the contract shall be such as the stipulated payments to the company would have purchased at the correct age or ages Any overpayment or overpayments by the company on account of misstatement of age shall with interest thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per centum per annum to be charged against the current or next succeeding payment or payments to be made by the company under the contract

(e) If the contract is participating a provision that the divisible surplus shall be apportioned annually and dividends shall be payable in cash or shall be applicable to any stipulated payment or payments to the company under the contract

(f) A provision that if the contract after having been in force for three full years shall by its terms lapse or become forfeited because any stipulated payment to the company shall not have been made the reserve on such contract computed according to the standard adopted by said company in accordance with section three hundred and one of this Act shall after deducting one-fifth of the said entire reserve and any indebtedness to the company under the contract be applied as a net single payment according to said standard for the purchase of a paid up annuity or pure endowment contract which may be non-participating and which shall be payable by the company under the same terms and conditions except as to amount of the original contract A company may provide in lieu of said paid up values for a paid up annuity or pure endowment contract in an amount bearing the same proportion to the original annuity or pure endowment contract as the number of stipulated payments which shall have been made to the company shall bear to the total number of stipulated payments required to be made to the company under the contract and if there be any indebtedness to the company under the contract the amount of such paid up annuity or pure endowment shall be reduced by an amount bearing the same proportion to such paid up annuity or pure endowment as such indebtedness bears to the reserve on such paid up annuity or pure endowment computed according to the standard adopted by said company in accordance with section three hundred and one of an Act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 789) as amended

(g) A provision that the contract may be reinstated at any time within one year from the date of default in making stipulated payments to the company provided that all overdue stipulated payments and any indebtedness to the company on the contract shall be made or paid with interest thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per centum per annum payable annually In cases where applicable a company may also include a requirement of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company

No contract for a reversionary annuity shall be so issued or delivered unless it contains in substance the following provision

(1) Provisions (a) (b) (c) and (e) of this section except that under provision (a) the company may at its option provide for an equitable reduction of the amount of the annuity payments in settlement or an overdue or deferred payments in lieu of providing for a deduction of such payments from any amount payable upon a settlement under the contract

(2) A provision that if the age of any of the persons upon whose lives the contract is based has been misstated the amount payable under the contract shall be such as the stipulated payments to the company would have purchased at the correct ages

(3) A provision that the contract may be reinstated at any time within three years from the date of default in making stipulated payments to the company upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company provided that all overdue payments and any indebtedness to the company on the contract shall be made or paid with interest thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per centum per annum payable annually

Any of the foregoing provisions or portions thereof not applicable to non-participating contracts nor to contracts for which a single stipulated payment to the company is made shall to the extent not be incorporated therein and any such contract may be issued or delivered in this Commonwealth which in the opinion of the Insurance Commissioner contains provisions on any one or more of the several foregoing requirements more favorable to the holder of the contract than hereinbefore required

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent a life insurance corporation which issues life insurance on a participating basis from issuing annuities reversionary annuities or pure endowments on a non-participating basis

Any such contract or any application endorsement or rider form used in connection therewith issued in violation of this section shall nevertheless be held valid but shall be construed as provided in this section and when any provision in such contract application endorsement or rider is in conflict with any provision of this section or with any other statutory provision the rights duties and obligations of the company of the holder of the contract and of the beneficiary or annuity thereunder shall be governed by the provisions of this section The provisions of this section shall not apply to contracts of reinsurance nor to contracts for deferred annuities or reversionary annuities included in life insurance policies

For the purpose of this section application forms rider forms and endorsement forms for use in connection with any such contract excepting riders or endorsements relating to the manner of distribution of benefits or to the reservation of rights and benefits under any such contract and used at the request of the individual holders of such contracts shall be deemed to be parts of such contracts and shall require the approval of the Insurance Commissioner No rider and no endorsement except as stated above shall be attached to or printed or stamped upon any such contract issued or delivered in this Commonwealth until the form of such rider or endorsement has been filed with the Insurance Commissioner and formally approved by him

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 848, as follows:

An Act to provide for Sexual Sterilization of Mental Defectives providing circumstances under which sterilization of certain types of individuals may be performed without civil or criminal liability on the physician or surgeon performing such operation and providing penalties

Whereas The State now has in custody and is supporting at great expense many mentally deficient persons who when discharged are likely by the propagation of their kind to increase the social and economic burden and who if imcapable of propagating might be discharged or paroled and thereby lessen the economic burdens of the State and

Whereas The welfare of society and the health and personal liberty of the individual may be promoted in certain cases by the sterilization of mental defectives under careful safeguards and by competent and conscientious authority and

Whereas Such sterilization may be effected in males by vasectomy and in females by salpingectomy both of which operations may be performed without serious pain or substantial danger to the life of the patient or without the removal of any tissue or organ and

Whereas Human experience has demonstrated that heredity plays an important part in the transmission of idiocy imbecility and mental deficiency now therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That it is hereby declared to be the policy of this Commonwealth to promote the public welfare by preventing procreation of idiots imbeciles and feeble-minded persons in cases where the individual welfare of such idiots imbeciles and feeble-minded persons likely to procreate may be improved by selective sexual sterilization

Section 2 (a) Whenever the superintendent of a State or licensed institution for the mentally defective and two disinterested legally qualified physicians shall be of the opinion that it is for the best interest of an inmate of such institution and of society that such inmate shall be sexually sterilized such superintendent is hereby authorized to cause an operation for sterilization to be performed and to issue an authorization therefore in writing signed by such superintendent and the two disinterested physicians Provided that before any such operation is performed at least thirty days' written notice together with a copy of such written authorization shall be given by personal service upon the person alleged to be an imbecile or feeble-minded if above the age of ten years and upon the husband wife father mother child of full age sister brother or guardian or committee of such alleged mental defective

Section 3 All authorization shall be made in duplicate The one copy of institutional patients shall be filed with the superintendent of such institution and the other copy shall be filed in the Department of Welfare of this Commonwealth No such records shall be open to public inspection

Section 4 Any person upon whom an operation for sterilization has been authorized on his or her husband wife father mother child of full age brother sister or guardian or committee may within thirty days after such authorization appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas of the county where the State or licensed institution wherein the patient is detained is located or to the court of common pleas of the county from which the patient was committed or where he is a resident The petition for such appeal shall state briefly the nature of the objections and the grounds for the appeal After hearing upon such appeal the court may sustain modify or set aside the authorization

Section 5 Supreme Court Appeal Any order of sexual sterilization granted after due appeal may within three months after date be appealed to Supreme Court by any party of record in appeal in court of common pleas Such petition shall state briefly the nature of all previous proceedings and shall set forth the order or decision complained of and the grounds upon which the same is claimed to be unlawful or unreasonable upon which the petitioner shall reply in the Supreme Court The pendency of such appeal shall stay proceedings under order until the decision of the Supreme Court is made

Section 6 No superintendent of any institution physician or surgeon or other person performing any operation for sterilization or assisting or in any wise participating therein in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be liable in any civil action for damages or in any criminal prosecution or in any wise howsoever because thereof

Section 7 Any person or any physician violating any of the provisions of this act or performing any operation for the sterilization of a person except in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or suffer imprisonment for not less than one year or more than two years or both and upon conviction of a second or subsequent offense shall be subject to the fine above provided and shall be imprisoned for not less than one year or more than two years

Section 8 The compensation of the consulting physicians and surgeons in the case of public charges shall be entrusted to the management of the several institutions and shall be paid out of the funds appropriated for the maintenance of such institutions

Section 9 All laws inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

Section 10 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, before a motion is made to recommit this bill I would like to say that over twenty States have similar legislation, and that this applies only to mental defectives in institutions; it does not apply to criminals. It is in line with modern legislation, and votes against this bill are due either to ignorance or prejudice.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The amendments will be read for the information of the Senate.

The amendments were read as follows: amend page 3, line 9, by inserting after the word "defective" the following: "and further provided that no such operation shall be performed on any person unless it is thoroughly established in a court of competent jurisdiction that all of such person's direct ancestors, irrespective of their remoteness, were born within the territorial limits of the United States."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

And the question recuring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO RECONSIDER SENATE BILL NO. 848

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 848, passed second reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill is on third reading, in the first place.

The PRESIDENT. The bill did not pass third reading.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, to state the purpose of having the vote on second reading reconsidered, on this bill.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is it to offer the same amendment which has just been refused unanimous consent?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the amendment just offered is simply an effort to ridicule a bill which, in my opinion, is a very important and serious matter. This bill was before this Senate for consideration, and was referred back from committee for the purpose of giving the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, and other Senators, an opportunity to discuss it in committee; and after objections were made by one or two members of the committee this bill was reported out again.

This bill is of too serious a nature to permit ridicule or levity to defeat it. We are paying thousands of dollars for taking care of people in institutions who should not be in institutions but should be walking the streets. These gentlemen have the opportunity now to save a great deal of money to the people of Pennsylvania, and I hope the Senate will vote down this motion to reconsider the vote.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I object to the explanation of the bill made by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, for the simple reason that yesterday morning, around 7:30 or 8 o'clock, there was a hearing on this bill and I was not asked to the hearing, and I want to be at the next hearing if there is one.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, eighteen Senators voted in the affirmative, and twenty in the negative; whereupon the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health for further study. This is a vicious bill. Just now I do not wish to go into a discussion on it, but I think this bill should go back to committee. It means a great deal to the people of Pennsylvania; and if the Senate will permit it to go back I think it will be a wise move. I move that it go back to the Committee on Public Health for further study.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not like to go into a general debate about this bill—

The PRESIDENT. The Chair calls attention to the fact that no general debate is permissible; it is just a question as to whether it is proper to recommit.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to know—and I am sure the rest of the members of the Senate would like to know—what is vicious about this bill.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, this bill is one that pertains to a condition that exists in our State at the present time. We have in our institutions many people that are what we call feeble-minded, and the intention of this bill is to sterilize those people and turn them out to the public. The sponsors of this bill claim they will make good citizens, but it is not so. I contend that this bill, if it passes—and those people are subjected to that operation, and they are turned out into our country—you are going to put the horse back of the cart; those people are in institutions for some reason, for some cause, and that cause was brought about not so much by inheritance but by disease and conditions that have arisen due to their fathers back to the third and fourth generation; and I say, if you prepare these people, these women—women that are over-developed along that line—those women will go into the country—and what will happen? They will, in a little while, fill our brothels, fill the road houses, and so forth and we know that disease to the human race will be spread all over our country. And in a little while what is going to happen? It does not make much difference to them, but it means this: Many innocent people will receive that disease, and their children and their grandchildren will have to suffer from the effect of this. That is the reaason I say it will cost this Commonwealth far less to keep those few there in those institutions than it will to sterilize them and turn them out, and, as I say, put the cart back of the horse. Let us follow the prevention that the medical profession has set up today—preventive and not curative; and let us prevent it by keeping those people there, and not allowing them to go about over this country to carry and spread that disease all over the State and permit humanity to suffer.

Mr. SHAUIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, further.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not want to make a speech, but to ask a question. Does the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, know that at the hearing held on this matter the physicians gave their approval to this bill, and the chiefs of the institutions made the statement that just because there are three generations of innocents in one institution, that is the purpose of this bill—to prevent three generations of innocents from going to such institutions in the future. Is the Senator from Clarion aware of that?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I say that the cause of those three generations going to those institutions is brought on by disease that has been transmitted. That is what I say, and I thing it would be far more wise to keep those people locked up where they are rather than to throw our country open to such a condition as this.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McCREESH and Mr. KAHLE and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—29

Baumer,	Kahle,	Prince,	Rodgers,
Cavalcante,	Lanius,	Pytko,	Salus,

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1518, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-third day of April one thousand nine hundred and nine (P. L. 159) entitled "An act prohibiting the buying having or receiving of stolen property in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and providing for the punishment thereof" by extending said act to cases where the defendant had reasonable cause to know such property was stolen or feloniously taken go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, explain to the Senate just what situation or set of facts he has in mind that this bill will cure. It is Senate Bill No. 1518.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I do not have any set of facts in mind. I introduced the bill by request. However, a defendant at the present time in possession of stolen goods cannot be convicted of having the goods unless it is proven that he knew the goods were stolen. This bill modifies that, that he had reasonable cause to know they were stolen, and that may go to the jury.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, and members of the Senate: I am very much afraid of the thought that the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, has as to the defect in the criminal code. If this were correct, it would, in many cases, cause many men who are innocent to go to jail. Under this code, any person who had any goods, chattels, moneys or securities in his possession, even though he may have paid a bona fide consideration for the same, the court might properly, if it were shown that goods and chattels—the court may very properly leave that question of fact as to whether the party was found in possession of the goods or chattels, and had reasonable cause to know that the goods and chattels or securities were stolen, and surely I do not think that the Senator from Monroe intended that to occur, unless there is some language which would clarify this amendment. I think the amendment should be voted down, because I think the burden is placed upon the man or person, the defendant who has in his or her possession goods, merchandise or securities that they may have paid good consideration for. The burden is placed upon the defendant to show that he had not reasonable cause to believe that the articles in turn were stolen.

I am not talking from the viewpoint of the defendant's attorney, but on the other hand, I do not think the District Attorneys' Association would want a bill of this type passed, because it places an unfair burden upon a man who may happen to have in his possession goods and chattels, moneys or securities that he paid an honest and valuable consideration for. Hence, I would ask that the bill go over in order, be recommitted, or defeated on the floor of the Senate.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, would the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, object to this bill if it were amended so that in addition to the defendant having reason to believe that the property might have been stolen, that if the defendant refused to return the property upon demand or proof of ownership, which I think would protect the question raised by the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier. If so, I would like to have this bill go over in order, in order that such amendment might be prepared.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it has been requested that the bill go over in order, and I have no objection to that. After all, the bill is primarily to correct the law with respect to the stealing of automobiles, because we find in the courts it is very hard to convict thieves of stealing automobiles, and this is really the purpose of the bill, to catch that class of criminals. It is satisfactory to me to have this bill go over in order.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I ask that the bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1532, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to enable city, county, poor, ward, school, borough and township tax collectors, their executors and administrators, if they are deceased, or either surety or sureties, to collect taxes for the payment of which they have become personally liable, without having collected the same, by the expiration of the authority of their respective bonds, or by the expiration of the authority of their respective warrants, or by the expiration of their terms of office, and to extend the time for the collection of the same for a period of two years from the passage of this act be recommitted to the Committee on County Government.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Northumberland, Mr. Miller, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, yesterday when the motion was made to dismiss the Committee on Judiciary Special from consideration of Senate Bills Nos. 218 and 219, I was unavoidably detained at Mr. Fertig's office. I was not present here, and I wish to state at this time that this is the first vote that I ever missed on a labor measure. If I would have been present, I would have voted "aye" in both cases to dismiss this Committee.

BILL INTRODUCED

Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. THOMPSON (Centre).

Mr. PRESIDENT, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CAVALCANTE read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1624, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," by limiting the amount of tax that may be levied by any school district, except in certain cases; and requiring the Commonwealth to pay the full amount of all minimum salaries and increments of all members of the teaching and supervisory staffs in all school districts.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, in the various committees of the Senate there are slumbering many bills, those bills that should have the consideration of the entire body, and in order that these bills, which are measures in which many people of the State are interested, I purpose to present a motion which I will now read: Mr. President, I now move that the Committee on Judiciary General be now discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 595 (House No. 1215), so that the same may be returned to the Senate floor for first reading and constitutional consideration by the members of this body. The bill that I have in mind at this particular time is the Eberharter Wage Collection Bill.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. RICE and Mr. ROBERTS and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—23

Baumer,	Law,	Reed,	Sones,
Cavalcante,	McCreesh,	(Washington)	Thompson,
Frey,	McGinnis,	Rice,	(Centre)
Harris,	Miller,	Roberts,	Thompson,
Huffman,	Pytko,	Rodgers,	(Westmoreland)
Kahle,	Rankin,	Rupp,	Trainer,
Lanius,		Shapiro,

Buckman,	Harvey,	Owlett,	Sordoni,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Pierson,	Staudenmeier,
Clark,	Howell,	Prince,	Woodward,
Coyne,			Ziesenheim,

So the question was determined in the negative.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOODWARD from the Committee on State Government reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1620, entitled:

An Act empowering the Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor and the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania Industrial School to grant a right of way or easement to the Penn Central Light and Power Company across lands of the Pennsylvania Industrial School on certain conditions.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, several months ago there came to this Senate from the House of Representatives a bill intended to establish a better relationship between employers and employees in this Commonwealth. The bill was aimed at correcting the abuses that had been prevalent in making disputes for many years, and that bill has since it came over to this Senate been snugly reposing in the Judiciary General Committee. Because that bill has been here for a long time without any action on it, Mr. President, I now move that the Committee on Judiciary General be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 1156 (House Bill No. 1227), so that the same may be returned to this Senate floor for the first reading and constitutional consideration by the members of this body. This bill is the "anti-injunction" bill.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, always.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, if it is not true that this bill is not exactly the same as the Federal "anti-injuction" bill?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, yes; in fact it is practically almost word for word.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, as Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I always do by my good friends.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, whether or not he or any of his colleagues ever asked the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General to take up consideration of this bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I may speak for myself. I cannot speak for my colleagues. I did not, sir, —thinking that on a bill in committee for over two months, as you know, something ought to be done with it.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether this bill has ever been called up by any of the members of this Committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, to my knowledge it has never been called to my attention.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to ask if the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, if he will hold a meeting of the Judiciary General Committee to consider this bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I am always willing to hold a meeting to consider any bill on any question from any Senator on this floor.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to ask if the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will hold a meeting today or tomorrow on this bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would not like to say that; I will surely hold it on Monday. We have a great many bills in committee. This is a House bill, and, Mr. President, that would be ample time.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, say that he will hold a meeting not later than Monday?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, not later than Monday.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I do not ask this question for the purpose so that it may be intended as a club or anything, and I will withdraw my motion at this time if the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee will have his hearing Monday on the bill and agree to report it out.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, under the circumstances I am not willing to so agree. I mean that a motion has been made without consultation with the Chairman. The motion is now pending before the Senate, and I see no reason why the Senate should not dispose of it.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Chairman of that Committee whether he knows what bills are in his committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I surely know the bills that are in my committee. I do not propose to know what is in every bill, but when they are brought to my attention, consideration is given to them as promptly as possible under the circumstances existing at this Session of the Legislature.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether he has a Calendar of the bills referred to his committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I certainly have.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, since my colleagues are interested in this bill and they would like to see the bill get a fair show, I think I can readily endorse the integrity of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, in his answer to my colleague from Philadelphia that he will hold a meeting. I, therefore, withdraw my motion at this time, if the seconder will agree to it.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I agree.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is withdrawn.

Section 2 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I move that action on this bill be postponed.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I object to this motion for the simple reason that this is a bill that has been agreed upon unanimously by the bankers of the State of Pennsylvania. The Banking Committee reported it out, the Banking Commissioner of the State agrees that it is important that it be passed. I ask the Senate to vote down this motion, and then when the bill is under consideration I shall make some explanation of the bill. This bill should be passed at this time, as it is very important; it is more important possibly than some of the people, I think, realize.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am afraid there is a misunderstanding about this bill. This bill does permit branch banking. It permits banking only with the consent of the Board which has been created by a bill already passed with the consent of the Banking Board and set up in the new bill. Under these circumstances, I do not think action on this bill should be postponed.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, my purpose in making this motion is at the request of bankers. They are not satisfied with this bill, so all the bankers in the State of Pennsylvania are not satisfied with the bill. It limits the loan of banks to ten per cent., banks that have always loaned as high as twenty-five or thirty per cent. If permitted, they would like to have those loans up to twenty-five per cent. instead of ten per cent.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I beg to differ with the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne. This is not the bill on the limitation of loans, this is the "branch bank" bill. Mr. President, I am sorry, but this is not the bill that the Senator refers to.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, it also puts a limit on branch banking. We have a condition in the City of Pittsburgh where, if it were not for the branch banks in some of the communities, they would have trouble in those communities where they are located.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, in the Session of 1933, the same interests that the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, speaks of now defeated the branch bank bills, and in the Session of 1934, these same people came to us and requested that we make some provisions for them, which we did. This bill gives other people besides the banks in the first and second-class cities and first-class townships contiguous to first-class cities some authority. I am sorry to say that I do not think the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, understands the provisions of the bill, and I am asking that this motion be voted down and then vote to pass the bill.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I highly disagree with some of the remarks of my colleague, Mr. Sordoni. In my opinion this is one of the worst bills introduced in the Senate this Session of the Senate. This is like the camel which gets his head in the flap of a tent and does not end until he gets himself into the tent and the occupant of the tent has to get out. We have been able to defeat branch bank bills in this Senate, it has been said, for two Sessions, and I want to read a telegram I have here, passed by the Pennsylvania Bankers Convention:

"Pennsylvania Bankers Convention in closing minutes with only half delegates present half heartedly approved legislative committees report on branch banking, with promises that it fully protected unit banks. Great resentment against this bill."

I want to very heartily support the motion of my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne. I hope that the bill will be sent back to Committee, so that the bankers of Pennsylvania will have an opportunity to be heard.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, after the meeting on Monday or Tuesday, when these people appear, if the Senators feel like calling the bill up and passing it, I have no objection, but I think they ought to be given a hearing on this bill. That is my objection to action now. I am no banker and I do not care what you do with it.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I understood the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, who is Chairman of the Committee on Banking, to say that this bill should be passed today. I would like him to say to me and the Senate what harm would come in deferring final action on this bill until next Monday night.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I said that it is very important that this bill be passed as promptly as possible. I did not say that it was important to pass it today. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, did not ask the Committee to postpone action on this bill when it was taken out of Committee. He was present when action was taken and voted with the Committee to report it out.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, no, I was not.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I now ask the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, whether or not, in his opinion, any harm would come to the banking interests of Pennsylvania if final action were delayed on this bill until next Monday night.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I ask for a few minutes until I may ask Mr. Harr, the Secretary of Banking, who was present at our meeting.

The PRESIDENT. The request of the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, is granted.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President. I talked over the question of delaying final action on this bill until Monday with Dr. Harr, Secretary of Banking, and, realizing the importance of this measure and appreciating the fact that possibly some people do not understand it, and feeling sure that those who do not understand it, by proper discussion and questioning and reading the bill, then finally understanding that it is proper legislation.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I ask that it go over in its order, and we will at this time ask for a public hearing to be held next Monday afternoon, at five o'clock.

Section 604 Complaints Investigations Upon complaint made in writing by any responsible person to the Board it shall be the duty of the Board through its agents to investigate any alleged source of pollution of the waters of the Commonwealth and to institute appropriate proceedings under the provisions of this act to discontinue any such pollution if the offense complained of constitutes a violation of the provisions of this act

Section 605 Appeals Any order decision rule or regulation made by the Board shall be subject to appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County by any person or municipality but in such appeal the decision rule or regulation of the Board shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness thereof and the burden to establish the incorrectness thereof shall be upon the appellant Said court may affirm or modify any such order decision rule or regulation if it be established by the appellant that the discharge of sewage or industrial waste or the erection maintenance or operation of any treatment works is not nor likely to become inimical or injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or to the use of the water for industrial purposes and if the court so finds it may set aside such order decision rule or regulation of the Board Any order (other than an order to discontinue the discharge of industrial waste) decision rule or regulation appealed from shall not be superseded by the appeal but shall be in force until the order of the court is made as above provided The setting aside of any order or decision of the Board by the court upon any such appeal shall not prevent or preclude said Board from again instituting subsequent proceedings against the same person or municipality when in its opinion the public health is endangered or animal or aquatic life destroyed or water rendered unfit for industrial purposes subject to appeal as above provided

Section 606 Proceedings Where Waters Polluted from Many Sources Nothing contained in the laws of the Commonwealth shall estop the Board from proceeding under the provisions of this act against any particular municipality or person discharging sewage or industrial waste or other noxious or deleterious substance into the waters of the Commonwealth even though said waters are at the time polluted from other sources

Section 607 Public Records Evidence All papers records and documents of the Board and applications for permits pending before the Board shall be public records open to inspection during business hours and copies of all such public records and the rules and regulations of the Board certified by the Secretary of Health shall be received in evidence in all courts and elsewhere

Section 608 Existing Rules Regulations and Orders All rules and regulations heretofore adopted by the Board and all orders made and actions taken by the Board or the Secretary of Health under the provision of law repealed by this act shall continue in force with the same effect as if such law had not been repealed subject however to modification change or annulment as may be deemed necessary by the Board in order to comply with the provisions of this act

ARTICLE VII

SCOPE AND PURPOSE

Section 701 Existing Rights and Remedies Preserved The collection of any penalty under the provisions of this act shall not be construed as estopping the Commonwealth or any district attorney or legal representative of a municipality from proceeding in courts of law or equity to abate pollution forbidden under this act or abate nuisances under existing law It is hereby declared to be the purpose of this act to provide additional and cumulative remedies to abate the pollution of the waters of this Commonwealth and nothing in this act contained shall in any way abridge or alter rights of action or remedies now or hereafter existing in equity or under the common law or statutory law criminal or civil nor shall any provision in this act or the granting of any permit under this act or any act done by virtue of this act be construed as estopping the Commonwealth persons or municipalities in the exercise of their rights under the common law or decisional law or in equity from proceedings in courts of law or equity to suppress nuisances or to abate any pollution now or hereafter existing or enforce common law or statutory rights

ARTICLE VIII

REPEALER

Section 801 Repeal The following acts and parts of acts of Assembly are hereby repealed

Sections four five six seven eight nine ten and eleven of an act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws two hundred sixty) entitled "An act to preserve the purity of the waters of the State for the protection of the public health"

The act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred ninety-three) entitled "An act to preserve the purity of the sources of public water supplies hereafter approved authorizing the Advisory Board of the Department of Health to make orders and regulations therefor and the Commissioner of Health to enforce the same providing penalties for violation thereof and for abatement of nuisances by injunction"

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President and members of the Senate: This is a very important piece of legislation. I have a terrific headache, my eyes are bad, and I ask your indulgence for a few moments to please be as quiet as possible.

In reference to Senate Bill No. 273, which has been introduced in the Senate by my good friend, the Hon. Benjamin H. Thompson, of Westmoreland County, I am going to ask at the conclusion of my remarks that this bill be returned to committee for further study and amendments.

My reason for so doing is, in its present form, this bill should be called, instead of the Stream Pollution Bill, the Industrial Dissolution Bill, for if this bill were to be enacted into law, and put into operation as such, Pennsylvania will no longer enjoy the industrial power it has had until now, but will become a paradise of pure water in which are dissolved factories mingling with atoms of dissolved oxygen of which our fish and fishermen are so fond.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate, Pennsylvania has many miles of stream, but for every mile of stream we have, Canada has more than 100 miles, but on the banks of Canada's streams there are no factories, simply virgin timber land and unused prairies—and very few towns and cities. It is a physical, as well as a financial impossibility for industrial Pennsylvania to live under the provisions of this bill, as it is now written, and if you want to throw thousands of additional men out of employment and millions of dollars of capital into bankruptcy, in order to make a few fishermen happy, then vote against my motion, but if you are the men that I think you are, namely; interested in giving our industries a chance to continue to serve humanity and keep men employed, and families happy and contented, then you will vote with me to return this bill to committee for further study and amusement.

Section 310, page 15, line 20, states, "That the provisions of this article shall not apply to water discharged from coal mines in active operation at the time of the adoption of this act."

Gentlemen, consider for a moment how confusing this provision is. How simple it would be, if there was a strike, or suspension of operation for any reason in any anthracite or bituminous coal mine in the State of Pennsylvania to immediately thereafter enforce the provisions of this Act, which would make it impossible for any mine to re-open, and would throw hundreds of thousands of people out of employment and the dissipation of billions, not thousands or millions, but billions of dollars of capital into bankruptcy, and also under the interpretation of this section, no new mines could ever be opened in Pennsylvania.

Leaving industrial Pennsylvania for a minute and going to the question of our municipalities. In Section 202, page 4, line 10, you will find the following:

"Any municipality discharging sewage from any sewer owned and maintained by the municipality and any person discharging sewage into or in such manner as to cause pollution of the waters of this Commonwealth without regard to the fact that such discharge began prior or subsequent to the twenty-second day of April, one thousand nine hundred and five, or whether such continued discharge has been by virtue of, or without a permit, issued by the Secretary of Health, the Commissioner of Health, or the Sanitary Water Board in accordance with the provisions of the Act approved the twenty-second day of April, one thousand nine hundred and five, shall discontinue the discharge of sewage into or in such manner as to cause pollution of the waters of this Commonwealth upon the ORDER OF THE BOARD.

My experience with laws has taught me to be more concerned with the authorities upon whom depend the enforcement of the law, rather than with the laws themselves. Common sense and good judgment in enforcement can and has been used in the betterment of the industries, and communities involved, poor judgment, misplaced enthusiasm, or an officious attitude on the part of some authorities, have, in many instances, created great injustices, and in this particular instance, would cause practically every community in the State of Pennsylvania to put in sewage disposal plants anytime the Board may deem it necessary, which in turn, would bankrupt many communities.

If this bill is passed, it would be an efficient lieutenant to deplete the State of Pennsylvania or much of its vital revenue, and life's sustaining property, and would put a further burden upon real estate in the form of taxation that would be impossible to bear. Pennsylvania would become a brother in misery to Massachusetts, a vivid example of industrial suppression, and a nephew to Arizona, which is larger in size than Pennsylvania, with absolutely no development taking place, as evidenced by the fact that it has less than 100,000 inhabitants.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate, this bill, in its present form, is vicious to the extreme. I realize that all here are interested in fishermen, and that the Isaac Walton League is exceedingly influential on the question of votes, and I, personally, respect their power, and in many instances their enthusiasm in connection with stream pollution, but I realize further that many members of the Isaac Walton League, and other sport organizations, who do not understand the provisions of this bill as it refers to industry and our municipalities, and would be apt to vote against our returning to the Senate unless the provisions of this bill were explained to them, but upon proper explanation, I am sure they would feel, as I do, that the matter is too important to permit this bill to go through in its present form.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate, twenty years from now many of us will be dead, and forgotten, but the provisions of this bill, if enacted into law, will be the beginning of the downfall of Pennsylvania's industries, and will do more to destroy the wealth of this State than any other one thing that can be done. Whether or not, you or I, in the conscientious discharge of our duties, are permitted to return to the Senate, is of no importance, but it is important that we so conduct ourselves in our voting, and in our attitude on important questions that we pay attention to the welfare of Pennsylvania, and not vote for any political advantage.

Gentlemen, I ask in all sincerity that you return this bill to committee for amendment and further study, because I feel that it is the most vicious piece of legislation before us and will do more harm than you may realize without careful study of the provisions therein.

BILLS RECOMMITTED

Therefore, I move that this bill be recommitted for further study and amendment.

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the motion,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, has stated that he would like to have this bill recommitted for the purpose of study and amendment. I would like to ask the Senator if he has ever proposed any amendments to this bill.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, no, I have not. I was led to believe that it was never going to be referred to the floor of this Senate to put us on the spot on the question of antagonizing some of the fishermen, but I say in all sincerity that if it were the last act that I ever did as a Senator, I would vigerously oppose this bill, because we are interested, and have to be interested, in the industries of our State, rather than in the question of catching a few fish. If the Fish Commissioner of this State would adequately take care of and stock the pure streams where there are no industries discharging pollution of any description, or any sewage, if they would adequately stock these streams, we would have more fishermen in this State by thousands than we have at the present time, and I ask the members of this Senate to vote this back into committee.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if the purpose then is not for amendment; but to kill it, as I understand it.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I might say that it should be sent back to committee for further study and amendment. It is not my intention to put the bill back to kill it. I wish it were killed, yes, I have no hesitancy in saying it, because I never have and I never shall be interested in the question of votes versus proper legislation. I ask the members of this Senate to put this back into committee for careful study and amendment, if a proper amendment can be put forth.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). I would like to further interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). I would like to ask the Senator from Luzerne if he would care to pass the bill on second reading and then have it go over in its order for amendment.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I have made a motion and the motion has been seconded. I would like to have a vote on the motion.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I say that this bill is primarily a health bill, and it has the support of the Pennsylvania Medical Association. They sent their representatives here to a hearing and advocated the passage of this bill. I myself am not a fisherman—I have not fished since I was a boy, but I do live along the Allegheny River, and we have to drink water from the Allegheny River; we have to drink water after it has been contaminated by refuse from towns located on the river above us far as Tioga County, where my colleague, Senator Owlett, comes from. The idea that this is a fishermen's bill is rediculous. For the information of the Senator from Luzerne, this bill does not affect sewage from municipalities the bill restates the Act of 1905, which takes care of that. It would not in any affect the municipalities of the Commonwealth. It does add a recall on industrial waste which we have never had before, and it does put a little bit of teeth in the enforcement of that part of the law.

Mr. President, for many years there have been presented to the Senate bills proposing to stop, in a degree, the pollution of the streams of the Commonwealth. Just as regularly as these bills have been presented they have been killed in committees.

These bills have not been sponsored by theorists or radicals with the idea of changing a well established political or economic status. They have been supported by the real men and women of the State who have a higher regard for the health and happiness of the people than for some selfish purpose or end.

The present bill is an attempt to put together in a comprehensive law the prohibition of stream pollution of all kinds, and to give to the proper authorities power to enforce it.

We have been prodigal of our natural resources. We have destroyed our forests, mined our coal and burned our oil and natural gas with magnificient waste and carelessness.

We have permitted our God-given water supply to become contaminated and made almost useless for its natural purposes. By our selfishness and careless indifference the waters of the State have become mere drainage ditches—filled with the filth of industrial and human waste. The rivers of the State are designated—with a good deal of truth—as open sewers. It is so much more easy and inexpensive to dump waste matter into the rivers and streams than to spend a little money to dispose of it otherwise.

I ask that this bill be kept on the floor of this Senate and that a vote be taken, and also that the Senate vote down this motion.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmereland). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, the sponsor of this bill has said that it is purely a health measure. I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, why the bill is in the Committee on Forest and Waters and not in the Commitee on Public Health, if it is purely a health measure.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Hunsicker, will have to ask the Lieutenant-Governor that. I have nothing to do with putting the bills into committees.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair referred this bill to the Committee on Forests and Waters because it dealt with the waters of the Commonwealth.

Mr. SORDONI. I did not know that when I made my request to have it recommitted, but I meant to have it recommitted to the Committee on Health and Sanitation.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, that shows the very intent of this motion—to kill the bill—and I ask that the Senate keep this bill on the floor so that we may vote on it. I think this is a bill that should have the vote of all the members of the Senate.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President I will.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, if the subject of health has been discussed in Committee, so far as this bill is concerned.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, it certainly has. In a public hearing of the Committee, we had Dr. Max Trumpter, of Philadelphia, and Dr. Palmer, of the Pennsylvania Medical Association, testify before the Committee.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, if this doctor represented the State Medical Association of Pennsylvania, or the County Medical Society of Philadelphia County, and whether the physicians were speaking as their representatives.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I understand Dr. Palmer was here directly as a represetative of the State Medical Association. He so informed us, and I have reason to believe that this is absolutely correct. Dr. Max Trumpter, for the information of the Senator from Philadelphia, whom he knows, I am sure, also testified before the Committee.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I would just like to draw the attention of the Senators in their deliberations as to whether or not a particular doctor would be competent to pass upon the industrial qualifications of this bill. I say this bill is the most vicious piece of legislation before this Senate. I am forced to agree with my good friend Senator Thompson. We have a banking bill which I referred to as one of the most important, but in my estimation this is the most important and the most vicious and will do more harm to the people of Pennsylvania in the elimination of industries than any one piece of legislation that can come before us.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of information.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I want to know whether the motion is that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health or to the Committee on Forests and Waters.

The PRESIDENT. The motion, as understood by the Chair, is that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Forest and Waters for the purpose of further study and amendment. That was the original motion.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I understand there was an amendment that it be sent to some other committee. That is the reason I asked the question.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, the sponsor of this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I call attention to the difficulty we would have in the anthracite coal regions. If you will refer to page 15, section 310, you will find that was amended to take care of my request. My points is that this shall not apply to waters which are from coal mines in active operation at the time of the adoption of this Act. That would preclude the opening of any new mines and make this bill applicable to the opening of any new mines.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). It would not, provided they are not on clean streams, streams that have not already been polluted.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, in other words, if this opening would be upon a stream that had not any discharged waters coming from coal mines, that mine could not use it. We have a condition in Schuylkill County—I would like to know if this bill would apply to waters discharged by a mammoth breaker, the St. Nicholas breaker, which is not a mine—it is just a cleaning breaker—and in Northumberland County, a mammoth breaker of the Reading Coal and Iron Company. Both of these breakers discharge water which contains some sulphuric contents. Would this bill prohibit the operation of those mammoth collieries?

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). The word "establishment" as it is defined on page 2 of the bill includes mines, and, of course, whether these plants do pollute the streams would be under the decision of the Sanitary Water Board, as it does now. I think you will find it does include it, and, of course, whether these plants do pollute the streams, under the decision of the Sanitary Water Board. It has that power.

The PRESIDENT. The question is on the motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Forests and Waters.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland), and Mr. GRAFF, and were as follows:

YEAS—29

Aron,	Ealy,	McGinnis,	Rupp,
Batchelor,	Harvey,	Owlett,	Salus,
Baumer,	Homsher,	Pierson,	Sones,
Bean,	Howell,	Reed,	Sordoni,
Buckman,	Huffman,	(Dauphin)	Staudenmeier,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

RECESS

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until half-past eight o'clock this evening.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEE

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER from the Committee on State Government reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1621, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred twenty-nine), entitled "An act relative to the liens of the Commonwealth against unpatented lands; providing for their adjustment, and for the granting of patents," by exempting the Commonwealth, and any department, board, or commission thereof from the payment of certain patent fees.

Also from the Committee on State Government reported as committed, amended, Senate Bill No. 790 (House Bill No. 750), entitled:

An Act to amend the title and sections one, two, three, six, nine, ten, eleven and twelve of the act approved the twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 984), entitled "An act providing for the condemnation by the Commonwealth of lands suitable and desirable for forest purposes or game preserve purposes or the perpetuation and protection of fish; and defining the powers and duties of the Department of Forestry, the Board of Game Commissioners, and the Department of Fisheries, respectively, in relation thereto," extending said act to the condemnation of lands for State park purposes; and correcting the titles of officers and agencies mentioned in said act in accordance with the Administrative Code.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ARON from the Committee on State Government re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1537 (House Bill No. 1703), entitled:

An Act relating to motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions, together with orchestral or other instrumental musical, or mechanical musical accompaniment, prelude, playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto on Sunday; prohibiting motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions, and orchestral or other instrumental musical, or mechanical musical accompaniment, prelude playing or selection incidental thereto on Sunday, during certain hours; and also during other hours; unless the electors of a municipality approve thereof; regulating the employment of persons in conducting such exhibitions on Sunday, providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors, and providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from the committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EALY from the Committee on County Government re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1181 (House Bill No. 926), entitled:

An Act to amend section five hundred and eighteen of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-three) entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assesments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws" by abolishing the payment of taxes into court on appeals from assessments providing for the payment of taxes under protest, and restricting the expenditure of such tax moneys; regulating the refunding of taxes after the disposition of appeals conferring powers upon courts of common pleas; and providing for the disposition of funds heretofore paid into court.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. REED from the Committee on Municipal Government reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1616 (House Bill No. 2394), entitled:

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CAVALCANTE, read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1625, entitled:

An Act requiring the compensation of all deputy sheriffs to be paid by the counties in which they are employed, prohibiting all contracts and agreements for the payment thereof by any person, copartnership association or corporation except by reimbursing the county and fixing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McCLURE, read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1626, entitled:

An Act providing for the escheat of certain dividends profits debts and interest on debts of associations and corporations doing business within this Commonwealth not engaged in the business of receiving deposits of money, securities or other property for safe-keeping, except building and loan associations and fiduciaris, with interest actually accrued thereon to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same as well as the interest thereon accrued between the fixing of the amount of such property by the award of any court and the actual distribution thereof and providing for the payment of fees and the procedure in the discovery and collection thereof, and in connection therewith.

Which was committed to the Committee on Finance.

HOUSE NON-CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2270

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced informed the Senate that the House of Representatives has non-concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 2270, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand five hundred thirty) entitled "An act relating to the erection of a dam at the outlet of Pymatuning Swamp and the establishment of a reservoir for the flood control of the Shenango and Beaver Rivers conferring and continuing certain powers and duties on the Department of Forests and Waters in relation to the establishment and maintenance of such reservoir providing for the acquisition of necessary lands therefor and the necessary agreements and releases relating thereto and the disposition of surplus land and materials" conferring additional powers and duties on the Water and Power Resources Board

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, in view of the fact that the Forsests and Waters fund has already been created by an act that was signed last week by the Governor and the amendment that the Senate made to this bill was to make this a general fund, because at the time that the bill originally passed we had no Forests and Waters fund. The objection has been removed now and I move that the Senate recede from the amendments to House Bill No. 2270.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 793 (HOUSE BILL No. 1088)

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move to reconder the vote by which Senate Bill No. 793 (House Bill No. 1088), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 704) entitled "An act relating to limited power permits and limited water supply permits from the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania and the conditions thereof to the flooding and use by holders of limited power permits of islands owned by the Commonwealth to the unlawful use for water or steam power development of dams and changes in streams hereafter constructed or made otherwise than under limited power permits and to the proceedings for the enforcement of this act" by adding section three and one-tenths thereto providing that all moneys received from the annual charges on limited power permits and limited water supply permits shall be paid into the State Forests and Waters Fund.

was defeated on final passage.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I voted "No."

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I voted "No."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, in connection with this fund there was an error made here on the part of a great many of us yesterday. We were under the impression that House Bill No. 1088, when it came over, was the bill creating a Forest and Waters fund, whereas the Forest and Waters fund was already created and this was just a matter of transferring a certain part of the fund which had already been created.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for thirty-five Senators voted in the affirmative and two in the negative; whereupon the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of Senate Bill No. 793 (House Bill No. 1088), be postponed for the present.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McCLURE from the Committee on Finance reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1626, entitled:

An Act providing for the escheat of certain dividends, profits, debts and interest on debts of associations and corporations doing business within this Commonwealth not engaged in the business of receiving deposits of money, securities or other property for safe-keeping, except building and loan associations and fiduciaries, with interest actually accrued thereon to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same as well as the interest thereon accrued between the fixing of the amount of such property by the award of any court and the actual distribution thereof, and providing for the payment of fees and the procedure in the discovery and collection thereof, and in connection therewith.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1290, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section five hundred eighteen of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-three entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to an exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws" regulating the refunding of taxes where appeals are finally disposed of

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill, Senate Bill

No. 1290, deals with a situation in the field of taxes, having to do with assessors of properties in all counties in the State. The amendment proposes that if the appellant objecting to the assessment wins his appeal, the money he has put up, or the difference between the assessment and the agreed lower assessment, should not be paid back to him but should be credited against any other real estate he might own; or, depending on the opinion of the Court, the Court might order as much of it as it seems to the Court should be paid in one year, the balance of it to be paid later.

I suggest, in the absence of the sponsor, that inasmuch as the owner, or appellant, rather, may not own the property at the time the appeal is decided, or may not have any other real estate against which this may be credited, this would be given an unfair deal; and, in the absence of the sponsor of the bill, I suggest that it go over in its order or be referred back to committee.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, this bill came out of the Committee on County Government, in connection with another bill that also came out of Committee on County Government; and the differences of the various factions involved were ironed out today.

Mr. PRESIDENT. I ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1428, (House Bill No. 1418) on second reading postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four and ten of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-nine) entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporated surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" imposing an additional tax on liquid fuels for a limited period of time providing for the distribution thereof and making an appropriation

Mr. FRY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I move to amend page 3, line 12, by striking out after the word "Of," the words "one cent" and insert in lieu thereof the words "two cents"; amend page 6, line 2, by striking out after the word "of," the words "one cent" and insert in lien thereof the words "two cents."

Mr. FRY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I desire to state this tax is for one year.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, whether this is a tax of two cents on gasoline for the coming year—an additional two cents, and a tax of one cent for the following year. Is that correct?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, do I undersand the purpose of this amendment is to replace the mercantile tax for the sum that we would have realized from the mercantile tax, which was defeated yesterday, and the check tax, which is on the postponed Calendar?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, that is right. I stand corrected: the two cents is for two years.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I desire to withdraw the amendment ,and ask that the bill be returned to the postponed Calendar.

The PRESIDENT. The amendments are withdrawn. Does the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, desire to make a motion to have the bill placed on the postponed Calendar?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1428 (House Bill No. 1418), go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The chair hears none.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1480 (House Bill No. 2742), entitled:

An Act to regulate the sale of certain hypnotic analgesic and body-weight reduction drugs in the interest of public health

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agree to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now recess for fifteen minutes.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call. I object.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, withdraw his seconding of the motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I withdraw my seconding of the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion to recess is withdrawn.

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the remaining bills on second reading, and that immediately thereafter the Senate do recess for fifteen minutes.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair suggests that the motion to recess be withdrawn until consideration of the remaining bills on second reading is completed.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I withdrawn my seconding of the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion to recess is withdrawn.

An Act making appropriations to carry into effect the provisions of an act approved the tenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred ninety-three) entitled "An act providing for assistance to certain mothers providing for the appointment of boards of trustees for the several counties of the Commonwealth and for the appointment of a State Supervisor and assistants and fixing the salaries of such State Supervisor and assistants defining the powers and duties of boards of trustees including the power of appointing assistants and investigators and the distribution of funds at their disposal providing for the apportionment of the State appropriation among the several counties and requiring counties coming under the provisions of this act to appropriate certain moneys and providing penalties" as amended

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Welfare for the two fiscal years beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the act approved the tenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred ninety-three) entitled "An act providing for assistance to certain mothers providing for the appointment of boards of trustees for the several counties of the Commonwealth and for the appointment of a State supervisor and assistants and fixing the salaries of such State Supervisor and assistants defining the powers and duties of boards of trustees including the power of appointing assistants and investigators and the distribution of funds at their disposal providing for the apportionment of the State appropriation among the several counties and requiring counties coming under the provisions of this act to appropriate certain moneys and providing penalties" as amended

Section 2 Upon the approval of this act the State Treasurer after setting aside a portion for the counties not organized under the Mothers' Assistance System as provided by Section five of this Act shall divide the balance into two equal parts

The one part hereinafter referred to as the second part shall be held intact for distribution on and after the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six in the manner hereinafter provided

The other part shall upon the approval of this act be distributed among the several counties organized under the Mothers' Assistance System according to a budget for each county prepared by the Secretary of Welfare after taking into consideration the following basis of distribution

(1) The number of families receiving assistance on the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (2) in addition provisions for other eligible families which could not be aided from the fund available for the past biennium

The apportionment to each county shall be based upon the average grant per family prevailing in such county during the year ending the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four

Section 3 On the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six the State Treasurer shall set aside out of the second part to each county organized at the beginning of the biennium under the Mothers' Assistance System a sum equal to that apportioned to it under the preceding section by the Secretary of Welfare provided the amount so set aside to any county together with the unexpended balance of the amount apportioned to the county during the first year shall constitute the State's assistance during the second year to such county

Section 4 No county shall receive its allotment of the State appropriation available for any year under the method of distribution provided by this act unless such county has accepted the provisions of the act approved the tenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred ninety-three) as amended and has placed at the disposal of the board of trustees a sum equal to the amount availabe from the State appropriation for such year No county shall receive any sum from the State under sections two and three of this act unless such county shall appropriate a like sum for the same purpose

Section 5 Out of the amount hereinbefore appropriated there shall be set apart for the counties not organized under the Mothers' Assistance System on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four a sum equal to the amount that would be their allocation if the amount available for Mothers' Assistance were allocated to counties on the basis of population The amount thus allocated to any unorganized county shall be divided by the State Treasurer into two equal parts and one such part shall be available for each fiscal year of the biennium Any unorganized county organizing during the first or second fiscal year of the biennium shall be required to match only such portion as would have been available for the months of the year or fiscal period remaining after such acceptance had such county been organized at the beginning of the fiscal period

Section 6 In addition to the appropriation made by Section one of this act the sum of five hundred fifty-five thousand nine hundred four dollars and ninety-two cents ($555,904.92) is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Welfare for the two fiscal years beginning June one one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the payment of obligations incurred for the purposes specified in the preceding sections of this act during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which were not paid out of the appropriation made for such purposes by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-three because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund

Any law to the contrary notwithstanding amounts payable out of this appropriation shall be paid as promptly after the effective date of this act as the revenues of the General Fund will permit and for this purpose payments from this appropriation shall take precedence over the appropriations made by Section one of this act

Section 7 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE SENATE TO HOUSE BILL NO. 666.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives, being introduced, presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 666, entitled:

An Act appropriating the moneys in the State Forests and Waters Fund.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1972, AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

He also informed the Senate that the House insists upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1972, entitled: and has appointed Messrs. Achterman, Allen, Wall, a Committee of Conference to confer with a similiar committee of the Senate (if the Senate shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

An Act fixing the salary of the district attorney in counties of the seventh class.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I move that a Committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a committee of the House of Representatives (already appointed) to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That Messrs Ealy, Staudenmeier and Law be said committtee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

BILLS SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both Houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 219, entitled:

An Act providing that the statute of limitations shall not be a defense against claims of poor districts for the maintenance and support of persons who are public charges, including mental patients.

House Bill No. 292, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Cresson Volunteer Fire Company for the protection of State property.

House Bill No. 1279, entitled:

An Act governing the payment of witness fees to Commonwealth witnesses in criminal proceedings; and prohibiting duplicate payments.

House Bill No. 1879, entitled:

An Act appropriating to the State Emergency Relief Board gifts or donations heretofore or hereafter made to the Commonwealth for unemployment relief.

House Bill No. 2067, entitled:

An Act to further amend paragraph (a) of section three hundred eleven of the act approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 998), entitled "Mental Health Act of 1923."

House Bill No. 666, entitled:

An Act appropriating the moneys in the State Forests and Waters Fund.

House Bill No. 817, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 662), entitled "An act relating to retirement from the Pennsylvania National Guard," by including service in United States Navy or Marine Corps in preferred classifications.

House Bill No. 862, entitled:

An Act to provide revenues by imposing a State tax upon sales of tobacco by dealers, as herein defined; requiring persons engaged in the sale of tobacco at wholesale and retail to secure permits; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and Persons, as herein defined, engaged in the sale of tobacco at retail, or wholesale; and providing penalties.

House Bill No. 434, entitled:

An Act validating adoptions in courts of record of the Commonwealth.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Monday, June 17th, at 3 o'clock P. M.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I made a motion to adjourn some time ago, and that motion has not been acted upon.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair did not recognize the former motion, on account of pending business.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I renew my motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion before the House is that which was made by the Senator from Chester, Mr. Clark.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, in voting upon this motion let us do so with the realization that when we adjourn this week every bill in committee dies, and there are some bills that ought to be considered by committees here tomorrow. I ask for a vote against this motion.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I think it is a mistake to adjourn now until next Monday night. This is the last week—or, the week before the last—and there are a lot of bills that should be considered; the tax program is by no means finished; and I think it would be doing wrong to walk out and leave this session tonight with all this business unfinished. Therefore, I ask the Senate not to adjourn tonight.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, a concurrent resolution was agreed to this week, which provided that when ws adjourn this week it will be to meet next Monday at 9 o'clock P. M.; so there is no need to make a motion to adjourn until Monday at 3 o'clock P. M.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I offer an amendment to the motion of the Senator from Chester, Mr. Clark, that instead of adjourning tonight for the week, we adjourn until tomorrow at 12 o'clock noon.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I second the amendment.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to make a suggestion to the gentleman who just made that amendment. I think there are no announced committee meetings. I think it would be better to meet at 10 o'clock, and then, if there are committee meetings announced, we can recess until 12 o'clock noon.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I accept the suggestion of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, on the motion.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, are we now about to vote on the amendment?

The PRESIDENT. On the amendment.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, those voting affirmatively on the amendment agree to adjourn until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion as amended?

It was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. There being no further business before the session, the Senate will stand adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Senate adjourned at 11:07 P. M. until Thursday, June 13, 1935, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1935.

The House met at 11:00 A. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Frank W. Ruth, a member of the House, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee that Thou hast given us a new day for service. We pray that Thy spirit will help us to use this day for Thy glory and for the good of our fellowmen.

We pray that Thou will bless all the members of this House, the officers and all the employes and especially the newspaper correspondents, for they too are human and are Thy children.

Forgive us our sins. In the Master's name, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. KINNEY the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By MESSRS. HOLSTROM AND HETRICK,

HOUSE BILL No. 2990.

An Act regulating the display of the coat-of-arms of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on motor vehicles; and providing penalties.

Referred to the Committe on Judiciary Special.

BILLS SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 31.

An Act to amend section six as amended and section eight of the act approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 719), entitled "An act regulating certain political parties; providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices, the election of delegates and alternate delegates to national party conventions, and of certain party officers, including State committeemen; a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States; and the payment by the several counties, and their reimbursement by the State, of the expenses of the same; authorizing the State committee of a political party to make, and to alter, amend, and revoke rules; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein; and repealing inconsistent legislation," prohibiting candidates for certain offices from being candidates for more than one party nomination, and requiring candidates' affidavits from candidates for additional offices

SENATE BILL No. 900.

An Act to amend section nine of the act approved the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 91), entitled "An act relating to municipal indebtedness; imposing certain powers and duties upon the Department of Internal Affairs and the officers of counties, cities of the third class, boroughs, towns, townships, school districts of the second, third, and fourth classes and poor districts, in connection with proceedings to incur and increase indebtedness; and the establishing and maintaining of sinking funds; fixing the maximum maturity of refunding bonds; and providing penalties;" limiting existing indebtedness as covered by the section to bonded indebtedness

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same

The board may with the approval of the Governor temporarily close all licensed places within any municipality during any period of emergency proclaimed to be such by the Governor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that is now before you, House Bill No. 919, Printer's No. 1424 is a bill correcting the mistakes in the existing liquor laws of this Commonwealth. The first thing that the bill does is to permit clubs, carefully defined in the bill, to sell liquor and obtain licenses, and prevents the continuance of one man clubs.

The next feature is reducing the number of chairs from forty to thirty in a hotel. The next is reducing the floor space of a restaurant from five hundred feet to four hundred feet, and providing for thirty chairs instead of fifty chairs. The next is permitting the licensee to sell up to six bottles of beer or seventy-two ounces, for consumption off of the premises. The next is to permit the licensee to sell liquor in original containers, not exceeding one quart, at ten per cent greater price than what is established in the State stores

Then the final change is permitting the clubs to sell to members at all times. The features of requiring licensees to close during election days and on Sundays are continued.

The only controversial point is the proposition of selling liquor in quart bottles unless by licensees. That is covered by the provision that the licensee must charge ten percent more than what the established State liquor stores charge, so that the tap room would not necessarily be in competition with the state stores, and it would only be a convenience to those that want to pay the additional price. I therefore ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is just one feature of this bill which I wish to discuss and that is the feature permitting a liquor licensee to sell goods in the original package for consumption off the premises. I think that this feature is a necessary supplement to the two bills that have already passed the House, inasmuch as one of those bills sets up a separate beer license. If there is any chiseling in the sale of liquor, it will be on the part of the beer licensee, who, because he does not have a liquor license, and if he does any chiseling by selling liquor, can buy that liquor only from the bootlegger. The provision allowing the liquor licensee to sell by the quart will make liquor available to every one. I think it will materially cut the traffic in bootlegging and I ask the members to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the gentleman from Philadelphia stated that the licensee would be compelled, under the provisions of this bill, to sell liquor at a profit of ten percent higher that that sold in the State Liquor Stores.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, that is correct.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, is there any provision in this bill as to the price the licensee shall pay for his liquor when he buys it from the liquor stores?

Mr. SOWERS. No. Mr. Speaker, that is absolutely under the control of the liquor Control Board.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, he gets a discount from the liquor stores, as I understand, that other dealers would get in dispensing liquor.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, that is correct. In other words the profit of the licensee would only be this discount plus the ten percent.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, under the provisions of this bill, the State would lose that difference in revenue?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, no, the state is losing it now. The state today sells to the licensee at a discount.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, yesterday this House passed two bills, the beer bill and the liquor bill. Feeling that these bills were a great improvement over our present liquor laws, I voted for these bills, but I feel that we have now before us and have passed in this House legislation that is amply adequate to take care of the liquor situation in this Commonwealth, and I feel that to pass this act would be the wrong thing for us to do now, allowing packages to be sold by the licensee in quantities up to a quart.

I therefore ask the members of the House to vote against this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 3 (a) On and after the effective date of this act it shall be unlawful for any person to continue to engage in or thereafter to begin to engage in the sale of cigarettes at wholesale or at retail within this Commonwealth unless a cigarette permit or permits shall have been issued to him as hereinafter prescribed

(b) Every person desiring to continue to engage in or hereafter to begin to engage in the sale of cigarettes at wholesale or retail within this Commonwealth shall file an application for a cigarette permit or permits with the department Every application for a cigarette permit shall be made upon a form prescribed prepared and furnished by the department and shall set forth the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business the location of his place of business within this Commonwealth whether or not the applicant is the holder of a mercantile license in effect when the application is made and if so the number of such license and the county for which such license was issued and such other information as the department may require If the applicant has or intends to have more than one place of business within the Commonwealth the application shall state the location of each place of business If the applicant is an association the application shall set forth the names and addresses of the persons constituting the association and if a corporation the names and addresses of the principal officers thereof and any other information prescribed by the department for purposes of identification The application shall be signed and verified by oath or affirmation by the owner if a natural person and in the case of an association by a member or partner thereof and in the case of a corporation by an executive officer thereof or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application to which shall be attached the written evidence of his authority

At the time of making such application the applicant shall pay to the department a permit fee of one dollar ($1.00) for each permit

Upon approval of the application and the payment of the permit fee or fees herein required the department shall grant and issue to each applicant a cigarette permit for each place of business within the Commonwealth set forth in his application Cigarette permits shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the persons in whose names issued and for the transaction of business at the places designated therein and shall at all times be conspicuously displayed at the places for which issued

All permits shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next succeeding the date upon which they are issued unless sooner suspended surrendered or revoked for cause by the department

(c) Permits issued under the provisions of this act may be renewed annually before the first day of January upon application made to the department and the payment of a renewal fee of one dollar ($1.00)

Whenever any permit issued under the provisions of this act is defaced destroyed or lost the department may issue a duplicate permit to the holder of the defaced destroyed or lost permit upon the payment of a fee of fifty cents (.50)

(d) The department may suspend or after hearing revoke a cigarette permit whenever it finds that the holder thereof has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this act or any rules or regulations of the department prescribed adopted and promulgated under this act Upon suspending or revoking any cigarette permit the department shall request the holder thereof to surrender to it immediately all permits or duplicates thereof issued to him and the holder shall surrender promptly all such permits to the department as requested Whenever the department suspends a cigarette permit it shall notify the holder immediately and afford him a hearing if desired and if a hearing has not already been afforded After such hearing the department shall either rescind its order of suspension or good cause appearing therefor shall continue the suspension or revoke the permit

Section 4 A State excise tax is hereby imposed and assessed upon sales of cigarettes by dealers at the rate of one cent per ten cigarettes or fraction thereof except such sales of cigarettes as are not within the taxing power of this Commonwealth under the commerce clause of the Constitution of the United States Provided That only one sale of the same package of cigarettes shall be used in computing the amount of tax due hereunder

Except as hereinafter provided dealers shall be liable to the Commonwealth as taxpayers for the payment of the tax imposed by this act and shall pay the tax into the State Treasury through the department by purchasing from the department adhesive stamps of such design and denominations as may be prescribed by the department

Manufacturers of cigarettes located either within or outside of this Commonwealth and wholesale dealers in cigarettes located outside of this Commonwealth may purchase stamps from the department and affix such stamps in the manner hereinafter prescribed to packages of cigarettes to be sold within this Commonwealth in which case the dealer within this Commonwealth receiving such stamped packages of cigarettes will not be required to purchase and affix stamps on such packages of cigarettes

Section 5 Each dealer shall affix within the time hereinafter prescribed to each package of cigarettes stamps furnished by and purchased from the department evidencing the payment of the tax imposed by this act and shall cancel such stamps before such cigarettes are offered for sale or before they are otherwise disposed of unless stamps have been affixed to such packages of cigarettes before such dealer received them Each wholesale dealer in this Commonwealth shall affix such stamps to each package of cigarettes unless such stamps shall have been previously affixed thereto and shall cancel the same in the manner prescribed by the department prior to the delivery of such packages to any retail dealer in this Commonwealth

Each retail dealer in this Commonwealth shall immediately upon the receipt of any cigarettes at his place of business so affix such stamps to each package of cigarettes unless such stamps shall have been previously affixed thereto and shall cancel the same in the manner prescribed by the department or shall immediately mark in ink on each unopened box carton or other container of such cigarettes the word "received" and the month day and year of such receipt and shall affix his signature thereto The retail dealer shall in any event open such box carton or other container and immediately affix such stamps to each package therein and cancel the same in the manner prescribed by the department within twenty-four hours after such receipt and prior to the sale of such cigarettes

Whenever any cigarettes are found in the place of business of such retail dealer without the stamps affixed and canceled or not marked as having been received within the preceding twenty-four hours as required by this section the prima facie presumption shall arise that such cigarettes are kept therein in violation of the provisions of this act

Stamps shall be affixed to each package of cigarettes of an aggregate denomination not less than the amount of the tax upon the contents therein and shall be affixed in such manner that they will be visible to the purchaser. Upon affixing stamps to a package of cigarettes the person affixing them shall cancel them by such method or in such manner as may be prescribed by the department

Section 6 The department shall prescribe prepare and furnish adhesive stamps of such denominations and quantities as may be necessary for the payment of the tax imposed and assessed by this act The department shall make provisions for the sale of such stamps in such places and at such times as it may deem necessary

The department shall appoint wholesale dealers in cigarettes within this Commonwealth and may appoint any other persons within or without the Commonwealth as agents to affix the stamps to be used in paying the tax herein imposed upon sales of cigarettes but a wholesale dealer shall at all times have the right to appoint the person who is to affix the stamps to any cigarettes under his control and whenever the department shall sell consign or deliver to any such agent any such stamps such agent shall be entitled to receive as compensation for his services and expenses as such agent in affixing such stamps and to retain out of the moneys to be paid by him for such stamps a commission of seven and one-half per centum on the par value thereof if and when such agent has purchased the stamps affixed by him directly from the department The department is hereby authorized and required to allow such commission or compensation in the settlement of the accounts of such agent upon payment by him into the State Treasury through the department of any moneys which may be or become due to the Commonwealth by reason of the sale delivery or consignment to such agent of such stamps

Section 7 Every person engaged in the sale of cigarettes at wholesale or at retail within this Commonwealth shall maintain and keep for a period of two years such record or records of cigarettes received sold and delivered within this Commonwealth by him together with invoices bills of lading and other pertinent papers as may be required by the department

The department or any agent appointed in writing by it is hereby authorized to examine the books papers invoices and other records the stock of cigarettes in and upon any premises where the same are placed stored and sold and equipment of any such wholesale or retail dealer pertaining to the sale and delivery of cigarettes taxable under this act to verify the accuracy of the payment of the tax imposed and assessed by this act Every such person is hereby directed and required to give to the Secretary of Revenue or his duly authorized representative the means facilities and opportunity for such examinations as are hereby provided and required

Section 8 The department is hereby charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe adopt promulgate and enforce rules and regulations relating to

(a) The method and the means to be used in the cancellation of stamps

(b) The denominations and sale of stamps

(c) Any other matter or thing pertaining to the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act

Section 9 The tax imposed by this act shall be in lieu of the mercantile license tax heretofore imposed upon the business of selling cigarettes

Section 10 Whenever any cigarettes upon which stamps have been placed by a dealer have been sold and shipped by him into another state for sale or use therein or have become unfit for use and consumption or unsaleable or have been destroyed such dealer shall be entitled to a refund of the actual amount of tax paid by him with respect to such cigarettes If the department is satisfied that any dealer is entitled to a refund it shall certify the proposed amount of such refund to the Board of Finance and Revenue for approval and thereafter shall issue to such dealer stamps of sufficient value to cover the refund as approved by the board The department is hereby authorized to adopt prescribe and promulgate such rules and regulations with regard to the presentation and proof of claim for refunds as it may deem advisable

The Department may promulgate rules and regulations to relieve manufacturers and dealers from affixing the stamps on such cigarettes as are sold and shipped to points outside the Commonwealth for use outside the Commonwealth

Section 11 Every person other than a common carrier or the employes thereof who shall possess or transport any cigarettes upon the public highways roads or streets of this Commonwealth for the purpose of delivery sale or disposition shall be required to have in his actual possession invoices or delivery tickets for such cigarettes The absence of such invoices or delivery tickets shall be prima facie evidence that such person is a dealer in cigarettes in this Commonwealth and subject to the provisions of this act

Section 12 (a) Any person who shall sell cigarettes without being the holder of a cigarette permit or permits as required by this act or without purchasing and affixing stamps to each package thereof as required by this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced for the first offense to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or to suffer imprisonment for a term not exceeding six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court and in the case of a conviction of a second or subsequent offense hereunder shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) and to suffer imprisonment for a term of not less than six (6) months or more than three (3) years

Section 13 All taxes and penalties received collected or recovered under the provisions of this act before June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six shall be paid into the State Treasury by and through the department and shall be used only for unemployment relief purposes and for such purposes are hereby appropriated and all such taxes and penalties paid into the State Treasury on and after June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six shall be credited to the General Fund

Section 14 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein

Section 15 This act shall become effective thirty days after its final enactment and shall continue in effect until and including the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I appear as one of the Conferees on this Conference report. I merely want it noted of record, and frankly speaking for the record that although I signed the conference report in order that the amendments that the Senate and the House disagreed upon could be agreed upon, nevertheless I was opposed to the cigarette tax at its inception and still am opposed to a cigarette tax at this time. The signing of the conference report I do not want to be interpreted as meaning that I have been converted to this special tax, the cigarette tax.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

Mr. FLANAGAN. I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FLANAGAN. In today's issue of the Philadelphia Inquirer it is stated that I refused to attend the Democratic caucus yesterday and that last night at the session I voted "no" on this magistrate's bill. This is an error. I attended the Democratic caucus and last night at the session I voted "aye" on the magistrate bill.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be pread upon the Journal.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO SIT DURING SESSION

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained permission of the House for the Committee on Public Utilities to meet during the session of the House.

BILL TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. SHEPARD. The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 1 of title, by inserting after the word "race" the following: "creed."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

on page 29 of today's calendar, bills on third reading be made a special order of business on third reading and final passage at 1:00 o'clock today.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, ninety-two members having voted in the affirmative and eighteen members having voted in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION NO. 160

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 160, Printer's No. 1316.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 27, 1935.

Whereas, The employes who are required to replace electric light bulbs on the ceiling fixtures of the Hall of the House of Representatives are exposed to extreme dangers because of improper facilities which are not available for this work: and

Whereas, The inherent right of a citizen to life and health is so valuable that the immortal Woodrow Wilson, in reply to criticisms during the war period over the expenditure of money said, "I would invest a million dollars to save one American boy;" and

Whereas, The members of this House, many of whom are fathers, do not wish any employe to unnecessarily endanger his life in order to provide brilliant lighting effects; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of this House appoint a Committee of three members of this House to investigate the cost of safe equipment for the use of employes in replacing electric light bulbs in the ceiling fixtures of the Hall of the House of Representatives and to report to the House as early as possible.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I might say that at Harrisburg we have one of the finest capitols in the United States. It has been erected at a cost of, I believe, about thirteen million dollars, but since the construction of this building we have never put in any safe equipment for the employes of this House in order to reach the ceiling. I understand that the ceiling height of this room is forty-five feet. The present method of replacing the lamps is by means of a rather shaky ladder. A man holds the bottom of the ladder, but they have no way to hold the top.

Any man that has ever worked on a ladder knows it is extremely dangerous. I think we believe in safety first, we believe in that doctrine and I agree with Woodrow Wilson that the American boy is cheap at one million dollars. If we have appropriated for this House forty thousand dollars for a ventilating system, and we have this loud speaker system, which costs twelve thousand dollars, I think we could very well afford to protect the employes of this House by securing an adjusted platform or some such method for reaching the ceiling.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, ninety-nine members having voted in the affirmative and six members having voted in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolution was adopted.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS EXTENDED HON. ANTHONY J. GERARD

Mr. COOLAHAN offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1935.

Whereas, On thursday of this week, the Hon. Anthony J. Gerard will have more or less successfully completed fifty-two years of his allotted span of life; and

Whereas, That in itself is a mater of congratulation for one born in Pittsburgh; and

Whereas. In addition thereto, our esteemed fellow-member has crowded into those years, service to his community and to his State, and thereby won the affection and esteem of all those who are fortunate enough to know him; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, extend to its respected member, the Hon. Anthony J. Gerard, its heartiest congratulations and best wishes; and be it further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of this body present to Mr. Gerard a copy of this resolution.

Mr. YOURISHIN in the chair.

Section 4 Report and Payment of Tax For the purpose of ascertaining the amount of tax payable under this act it shall be the duty of every corporation liable to pay tax under this act on or before the fifteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and on or before the fifteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven to transmit to the department upon a form prescribed prepared and furnished by the department a report under oath or affirmation of its president vice-president or other principal officer and of its treasurer or assistant treasurer of net income taxable under the provisions of this act Such report shall set forth

(a) A true copy of its return to the Federal Government of the annual net income arising or accruing in the calendar or fiscal year next preceding or such part or portions of said return as the department may designate

(b) If no return was filed with the Federal government the report made to the department shall show such information as would have been contained in a return to the Federal Government had one been made and

(c) Such other information as the department may require

The failure of any corporation liable to pay tax under this act to procure or receive any report form shall not excuse it from making a report

Every corporation at the time of making the report required herein shall pay to the department not less than one-half of the tax due to the Commonwealth by it for the preceding year and the remaining one-half of such tax shall be paid on or before the fifteenth day of [may] the succeeding month The amount of all taxes imposed under the provisions of this act not paid on or before the time as above provided shall bear interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the date they are due and payable until paid except that any taxes found due as the result of an appeal to the court of common pleas or any appellate court shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date such taxes are due and payable until paid Provided however That any corporation may pay the full amount of such tax or any part thereof together with interest due to the date of payment without prejudice to its right to present and prosecute a petition for resettlement a petition for review or an appeal to court if such payment is accompanied by a protest that the whole or any part of such payment is not justly or legally due If it be thereafter determined that such taxes were overpaid the department shall enter a credit to the account of such corporation which may be used by it or assigned to any other person or corporation for use in the payment of any obligation to the Commonwealth

If the officers of any corporation shall neglect or refuse to make any report as herein required or shall knowingly make any false report an additional ten per centum of the amount of the tax shall be added by the department to the tax determined to be due

If any corporation shall certify to the department that its fiscal year does not close upon the thirty-first day of December but upon some other date and that it reports to the Federal Government as of such other date or that it would so report were it to make a return to the Federal Government then such corporation shall be permitted to make the report herein required within sixty (60) days after the return to the Federal Government is due or would be due were it to be required of such corporation subject in all other respects to the provisions of this act

If the corporation shall claim in its report that the return made to the Federal Government was inaccurate the amount claimed by it to be the net income taxable under this act and the basis of such claim of inaccuracy shall be fully specified

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

CREATION OF LEASES STATUTE OF FRAUDS MORTGAGING OF LEASEHOLDS

Section 201 POWER TO LEASE REAL PROPERTY Real property may be leased by a landlord or his agent to a tenant or his agent by oral or written contract or agreement Any such leasing may include any personalty upon the premises leased

Section 202 LEASES FOR MORE THAN THREE YEARS TO BE IN WRITING OTHERWISE TO BE CONSTRUED AS LEASES AT WILL Any lease of real property for a term of more than three years from the making thereof must be in writing and signed by the parties making or creating the same otherwise it shall have the force and effect of a lease at will only and shall not be given any greater force or effect either in law or equity notwithstanding any consideration therefor unless the tenancy has continued for more than one year and the landlord and tenant have recognized its rightful existence by claiming and admitting liability for the rent in which case the tenancy shall become one from year to year

Section 203 ASSIGNMENT GRANT AND SURRENDER OF LEASES TO BE IN WRITING EXCEPTION No lease of any real property made or created for a term of more than three years shall be assigned granted or surrendered except in writing signed by the party assigning granting or surrendering the same or his agent unless such assigning granting or surrendering shall result from operation of law

Section 204 MORTGAGING OF LEASEHOLDS Every tenant of real property may mortgage his lease or term in the demised premises together with all building fixtures and machinery thereon and appurtenant thereto belonging to the tenant

Any such mortgaging of the tenant's interest and title shall have the same effect with respect to lien notice evidence and priority of payment as is provided by law in the case of the mortgaging of a freehold interest and title

Any such mortgage shall be acknowledged and placed on record in the proper county together with the lease as in the case of mortgages on freehold interests If the lease is recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county at or before the time of the recording of the mortgage such recording shall be deemed sufficient compliance with this section if full and distinct reference is made in said mortgage to the book and page where the lease is recorded

Any such mortgage of a tenant's interest and title may be enforced in the same manner as mortgages on freehold interests

No such mortgage shall in any wise interfere with the landlord's rights priority or remedies for rent

ARTICLE III

RECOVERY OF RENT BY ASSUMPSIT AND DISTRESS

Section 301 RECOVERY OF RENT BY ASSUMPSIT Any landlord may recover from a tenant rent in arrear in an action of assumpsit as debts of similar amount are by law recoverable In any such action interest at the legal rate on the amount of rent due may be allowed if deemed equitable under the circumstances of the particular case

Section 302 POWER TO DISTRAIN FOR RENT NOTICE Personal property located upon premises occupied by a tenant shall unless exempted by article four of this act be subject to distress for any rent reserved and due Such distress may be made by the landlord or by his agent duly authorized thereto in writing Such distress may be made on any day except Sunday between the hours of seven ante meridian and seven post meridian and not at any other time except where the tenant through his act prevents the execution of the warrant during such hours

Notice in writing of such distress stating the cause of such taking specifying the date of levy and the personal property distrained sufficiently to inform the tenant or owner what personal property is distrained and the amount of rent in arrear shall be given within five days after making the distress to the tenant and any other owner personally or by leaving the same at the principal building upon the premises or by posting the same conspicuously on the premises charged with the rent

A landlord or such agent may also in the manner above provided distrain personal property located on the premises but only that belonging to the tenant for arrears of rent due on any lease which has ended and terminated if such distress is made during the continuance of the landlord's title or interest in the property

Section 303 COLLECTION OF RENT IN SPECIAL CASES The owner of a ground rent may in the manner above provided collect rent reserved and due by assumpit or by distraint on personal property located on the real property subject to such ground rent

Every personal representative of a deceased landlord including every personal representative of a deceased tenant for life who has demised the real property subject to his life estate shall have the right to collect and to distrain for rent accrued at the time of the death of the decedent as provided by law and every personal representative of a deceased owner of real property shall have the right to collect and distrain for such rent accruing subsequent to the death of the decedent as he may be authorized by decree of the orphans' court to collect for the payment of the debts of the decedent as provided by law and every personal representative of a deceased landlord whose real property has escheated to the Commonwealth shall also have the right to collect and to distrain for such rent as may accrue subsequently to the death of the person whose property has escheated

The spouse of a deceased landlord to whom real property has been confirmed and set apart as his or her allowance as provided by law and the widow or children of any deceased landlord to whom real property has been confirmed and set apart for the widow's or children's exemption as provided by law shall have the right to collect and to distrain for rent due from the date of the death of the decedent

A widow may in the manner above provided distrain personal property located on real property for any instalment of dower due where such dower has been made a charge on such real property by deed agreement or decree of court Any person given the right by this section to collect and distrain for rent shall be deemed for the purpose of this article to be a landlord notwithstanding that such person is not included in the word "landlord" as defined in this act

Section 304 COLLECTION OF RENT BY PURCHASERS AT SHERIFFS' AND JUDICIAL SALES In the case of a tenant whose right of possession is not paramount to that of the purchaser at a sheriff's or other judicial sale the latter shall have the right as a landlord to collect by assumpsit or to distrain for rent from the date of recording of his deed except for such fractional part of a quarter as the tenant if a farmer or engaged in raising crops or produce or such fractional part of a month in other cases as the tenant may in accordance with the terms of his letting have paid as an advance payment prior to the date of delivery of said deed In the case of a tenant whose right of possession is paramount to that of such purchaser advance rent paid prior to the date of delivery of the purchaser's deed shall be deemed properly paid though paid prior to its due date unless it is so paid with the actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings resulting in the sale or with intent to defeat the rights of a purchaser thereat

The right of possession of a tenant shall be deemed paramount to that of a purchaser at a judicial sale if and only if the letting to him shall precede in point of date the entry of the judgment order or decree on which such sale was had and also shall precede the recording or registering of the mortgage deed or will if any through which by legal proceedings the purchaser derives title and shall not be paramount if the letting is made with actual notice to such tenant of the contemplated entry of such judgment order or decree or of the fact of the execution of such mortgage deed or other instrument of writing and with intent to avoid the effect thereof

Section 305 DISTRESS OF PROPERTY FRAUDULENTLY REMOVED In case any tenant of any real property shall fraudulently or cladestinely remove from the demised premises his personal property with intent to prevent the landlord from distraining the same for arrears of rent it shall be lawful for the landlord or his agent within the space of thirty days next after knowledge of such removal to take and seize such personal property wherever the same may be found in distress for said arrears of rent and to proceed to sell the same as hereinafter provided as if the personal property had actually been distrained upon on the demised premises

Section 306 REPLEVIN BY TENANT OR OWNER The tenant or owner of any personal property distrained on may within five days next after notice of such distress replevy the same All proceedings in replevin shall be conducted in accordance with general law governing actions of replevin except that the defendant in such action shall not be permitted to give a claim property or counter bond or to retain custody of the personal property levied upon

The several courts of common pleas shall adopt and enforce rules providing for the filing of affidavits of defense in the nature or counter claims and for the filing of relies thereto and for the entry of judgment against the plaintiff for want of reply or for an insufficient reply

Section 307 PROCEEDING BY TENANT TO DETERMINE SET-OFF Any court of record or court not of record having jurisdiction in civil actions at law may entertain an action to defalcate by a tenant against a landlord where the landlord has distrained for arrears of rent to compel the landlord to set-off any account which the tenant may have against the landlord No such court shall entertain any such action where the rent or set-off claimed is in excess of its civil jurisdiction Proceedings in such actions shall be the same as in actions of assumpsit

The court shall determine the amount of rent in arrears and the amount of the set-off if any and enter judgment in favor of the proper party for the balance due

If such judgment is in favor of the landlord he may in lieu of issuing execution thereon proceed with his distress for the amount of such judgment If the landlord shall sell more personal property than necessary to satisfy such judgment and costs and fail to pay the overplus to the tenant he shall be liable in tresspass to double the amount of the sum so detained together with the costs of suit If the landlord shall proceed to sell any personal property after notice of any such proceeding to defalcate and before judgment in his favor thereon he shall be liable in trespass to double the amount by which the sum realized from such sale exceeds the sum to which he shall be found to be entitled by the final judgment in the defalcation proceeding together with the costs of suit in the defalcation proceeding if such judgment be in his favor

If the landlord proceeds with the distress he shall satisfy the judgment to the extent of the amount realized on the sale less the costs of the distress or on his failure to do so the tenant may proceed by rule to have such satisfaction entered

Section 308 APPRAISEMENT OF PROPERTY LEVIED UPON If the tenant or owner of the personal property levied upon fails to replevy the same within said five days after distress and notice thereof the person distraining may with the sheriff or his deputy or any constable or his deputy which officer upon demand of the landlord shall aid and assist cause the personal property so distrained to be appraised by two disinterested and competent persons appointed by said officer

The appraisers shall each take the following oath or affirmation to be administered by the assisting officer

"I.....do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will well and truly according to my understanding appraise the personal property of ..... distrained for rent by....."

Each appraiser shall receive one dollar per diem for his services in making the appraisement to be paid out of the proceeds of the sale

Section 309 SALE AND NOTICE THEREOF DISTRIBUTION OF PROCEEDS After the appraisement has been completed the sheriff deputy sheriff constable or deputy constable shall fix a day time and place of sale of which at least six days' public notice in writing shall be given by handbills The notice of sale shall specify the personal property to be sold sufficiently to inform the tenant or owner and to be inductive to bidders to attend the sale On the day and at the time fixed for the sale or on any day and time to which said sale may be adjourned the sheriff deputy sheriff constable or deputy constable shall publicly sell the personal property so distrained for the best price that can be obtained for the same

The proceeds of the sale shall be paid out in the following order First for the payment of any wages due by the tenant which by law are given preference and notice of the claim for which has been given as provided by law to the officer executing the landlords warrant second for the payment of the charges and costs for making the distress appraisement and sale third for the satisfaction of the rent for which the personal property was distrained fourth any overplus for the use of the owner

Section 310 RIGHTS OF PURCHASERS OF GROWING AGRICULTURAL CROPS The purchaser of any growing agricultural crops at a sale on distress for rent shall at all times have free ingress and egress to and from the premises where the same may be growing and the right to repair fences He shall have the right to dig cut gather lay up and thresh the same in the same manner as the tenant might legally have done and thereafter to carry the same away from the premises

Section 311 DAMAGES FOR REMOVAL OF PROPERTY DISTRAINED ON Any landlord having distrained upon personal property for rent due who is aggrieved by the unlawful removal thereof shall in an action of trespass recover double damages together with the costs of suit against the offender or against the owner if it be afterwards found that the personal property has come into his use or possession

Section 312 REMEDY IN CASES OF IMPROPER DISTRESS The landlord and his agent shall be liable to the tenant or the owner of the personal property distrained on in an action of trespass (1) If the distress is for more rent than is due (2) or if the amount of personal property distrained is unreasonably great (3) or if made after a proper tender of the rent due was rejected (4) or if the distress is conducted irregularly or oppressively (5) or if any personal property taken in distress was to the knowledge of the landlord or his agent not distrainable (6) or if the distress is made at an improper time (7) or if the landlord or his agent receives notice after the distress from the owner or his agent or from the tenant having possession of the property that the personal property distrained on was not subject to distress and nevertheless proceeds with the sale without affording the owner a five day period after such notice to replevy such personal property

Section 313 REMEDY WHERE DISTRESS MADE AND NO RENT DUE In case any distress and sale of personal property shall be made for rent when no rent is due to the person distraining or to the person in whose name the distress has been taken then the owner of the personal property shall by action of trespass brought against the person distraining recover double the value of the personal property so distrained and sold together with the costs of suit

RECOVERY OF POSSESSION

Section 501 NOTICE TO QUIT A landlord desirous of repossessing real property from a tenant may notify in writing the tenant to remove from the same at the expiration of the time specified in the notice under the following circumstances namely (1) Upon the termination of a term of the tenant (2) or upon forfeiture of the lease for breach of its conditions (3) or upon the failure of the tenant upon demand to satisfy any rent reserved and due where there is not personal property on the premises adequate to satisfy the rent in arrears except such property as is by this act exempt from levy and sale on distress for rent

In case of the expiration of a term or of a forfeiture for breach of the conditions of the lease where the lease is for any term of less than one year or for an indeterminate time the notice shall specify that the tenant shall remove within thirty days from the date of service thereof and when the lease is for one year or more then within three months from the date of service thereof In case of failure of the tenant upon demand to satisfy any rent reserved and due the notice if given on or after April first and before September first shall specify that the tenant shall remove within fifteen days from the date of the service thereof and if given on or after September first and before April first then within thirty days from the date of the service thereof

The notice above provided for may be for a lesser time or may be waived by the tenant if the lease so provides

The notice provided for in this section may be served personally on the tenant or by leaving the same at the principal building upon the premises or by posting the same conspicuously on the leased premises

Section 502 COMPLAINT If the tenant shall fail to remove from the real property in compliance with such notice the landlord or his agent may complain in writing under oath or affirmation to any magistrate of the city borough town or county in which the real property is situated

The landlord's complaint shall set forth with particulars dates and amounts (1) that he was quitely and peaceably possessed of the real property from which the tenant was notified to remove (2) that he demised the same for a specified or indeterminate term to the tenant or to some other person under whom the tenant claims (3) that due notice to remove has been given to the tenant or that no notice was required under the terms of the lease (4) that the term for which the same was demised is fully ended or that a forfeiture has resulted by reason of a breach of the conditions of the lease or that any rent reserved and due has upon demand remained unsatisfied as the case may be (5) that the tenant retains the real property and refuses to give up possession of the same and (6) the amount of rent if any which remains due and unpaid and the amount of damages claimed for unjust detention of the real property if any

Section 530 SUMMONS AND SERVICE Upon the filing of the complaint the magistrate shall issue his summons reciting substantially the complaint and directed to any constable or the sheriff of the county commanding him to summon the tenant to appear before such magistrate to answer said complaint on a day not less than five nor more than eight days from the date of the summons and at a time fixed therein

Such summons may be served personally on the tenant or by leaving the same at the principal building upon the premises or by posting the same conspicuously on the leased premises

Section 504 HEARING JUDGMENT WRIT OF POSSESSION PAYMENT OF RENT BY TENANT On the day and at the time appointed or on any day to which the case may be adjourned the magistrate shall proceed to hear the case If it shall appear that the complaint has been sufficiently proven the magistrate shall enter judgment against the tenant that the real property be delivered up to the landlord and for damages if any for the unjust detention of the demised premises as well as for the amount of rent if any which remains due and unsaid and for costs of the proceeding

At the request of the landlord he shall after the fifth day after the rendition of such a judgment issue a writ of possession directed to the constable or sheriff commanding him forthwith to deliver actual possession of the real property to the landlord and also to levy the costs and amount of judgment for damages and rent if any on the tenant in the same manner as judgments and costs are levied and collected on writs of execution

If however it shall appear that the said complaint is vexations and unfounded then the magistrate shall dismiss the case and assess the costs against the landlord

At any time before any writ of possession is actually executed the tenant may in any case for the recovery of possession solely because of failure to pay rent supersede and render the writ of no effect by paying to the constable or sheriff the rent actually in arrear and the costs

Section 505 RETURN OF CONSTABLE OR SHERIFF The constable or sheriff shall make return of said writ of possession to the magistrate within ten days after receiving the same He shall be answerable in default of executing said writ according to its terms and for failure to pay over the amount received by him in satisfaction of the judgment or the rent and costs paid to him by the tenant in the same manner as such officers are now by law answerable on other writs of execution

Section 506 APPEAL CERTIORARI Within five days after the rendition of judgment either party may appeal to the next court of common pleas upon filing in that court a bond with one or more sufficient sureties conditioned for the payment of all costs and rent that have accrued or may accrue up to the time of final judgment and for damages assessed if any in case the judgment shall be affirmed Any such appeal shall be tried in the same manner as other suits are tried Such appeal shall not be a supersedeas to the writ of possession in any case except upon special allowance of the court to which the appeal is taken

If upon the appeal the jury shall find in favor of the tenant they shall also assess any damages which he may have sustained by reason of his removal from the premises and judgment shall be entered for such damages and costs and that the tenant shall retain or recover possession of the demised real estate as the case may be The tenant shall have the necessary writ or writs of execution to enforce said judgment

A writ of certiorari to remove the proceedings before the magistrate may be had as in other cases

Section 507 PROCEEDING WHERE TITLE TO REAL PROPERTY IS IN DISPUTE If in any such proceeding by a landlord to repossess real property the tenant shall declare in writing on oath of affirmation that the title to the real property is disputed and claimed by some other person named by the tenant by virtue of a right or title accruing since the commencement of the lease by descent from or deed or will of the landlord and if the person so named and claiming does not forthwith appear voluntarily then the magistrate shall immediately issue a summons returnable in six days commanding such person to appear before him

If the person so summoned shall declare in writing on oath or affirmation that he verily believes that he is entitled to the real property in dispute and shall give bond as hereinafter provided then the magistrate upon notice of the filing of such bond shall not enter judgment

Any such bond shall be filed in the court of common pleas of the county shall be in such sum as the court shall fix shall have thereon one or more sufficient sureties and shall be conditioned that the person claiming title to such real property shall prosecute his claim by ejectment at the next term of the court of common pleas If said claim is not so prosecuted the bond shall be forfeited to the landlord and the magistrate shall proceed to give judgment and cause the judgment to be executed as hereinbefore provided

Section 508 PROCEEDINGS WHERE TENANT CLAIMS TITLE AS JOINT TENANT OR TENANT IN COMMON If in any such proceeding by a landlord to repossess real property the tenant or person in possession shall declare in writing on oath or affirmation that the real property in dispute is held and claimed by him as joint tenant or tenant in common with the landlord and that he verily believes that the real property so held does not exceed in quantity or value the just proportion of the tenant's share as joint tenant or tenant in common and shall file a bond in the court of common pleas with one or more sufficient sureties in such sum as the court shall fix conditioned to prosecute his claim by ejectment at the next term of court of common pleas then the magistrate upon notice of the filing of such bond shall be forfeited to the landlord and the magistrate shall proceed to give judgment and cause the judgment to be executed as hereinbefore provided

Section 509 RETURN WHERE TENANT RETAINS FORCIBLE POSSESSION NOTICE TO TENANT THAT ALIAS WRIT WILL BE ISSUED REQUIRING USE OF FORCE AND SERVICE THEREOF In any case brought by a landlord before a magistrate for the recovery of the possession of real property if there is no supersedeas to the writ of possession and the tenant forcibly detains the real property against the officer serving the writ of possession the constable or sheriff shall make return of the writ as follows "Unserved because the tenant forcibly detains possession of the real property"

Whereupon after the expiration of ten days from the rendition of judgment by the magistrate as in this article provided and the issuing of the writ of possession to the officer such officer shall notify in writing the tenant that an alias writ of possession will be issued setting forth his duty to use such force as may be necessary by the breaking in of any door or otherwise to enter upon the real property for the purpose of executing a writ of possession in accordance with the judgment obtained

Any such notice may be served personally on the tenant or by leaving the same at the principal building upon the premises or by posting the same conspicuously on the leased premises

Section 510 ALIAS WRIT OF POSSESSION FORCIBLE EJECTION OF TENANT If the tenant fails to deliver up possession of the real property within ten days after the service of the notice as provided in the last preceding section the magistrate shall issue an alias writ of possession and the officer shall thereupon use such force as may be necessary by the breaking in of any door or otherwise to enter upon the real property and to eject the tenant and shall deliver possession of the real property to the landlord or his agent

Section 511 REMEDY TO RECOVER POSSESSION BY EJECTMENT PRESERVED Nothing contained in this article shall be construed as abolishing the right of any landlord to recover possession of any real property from a tenant by action of ejectment or from instituting any amicable action of ejectment to recover possession of any real property by confessing judgment in accordance with the terms of any written contract or agreement

SPECIAL ORDER ON HOUSE BILL NO. 237

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of business fixed for this time, House Bill No. 237; bill on third reading and final passage.

Agrreably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 237, entitled:

An Act to provide unemployment relief in the present emergency provide for funds for old age assistance providing for and legalizing lotteries to raise approximately one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) for such purpose creating a committee to conduct such lotteries conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers departments and agencies making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the old age assistance and prescribing the powers and duties of the board with reference thereto

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that is now before you is House Bill 237, Printer's No. 1082. It has been generally broadcast that the bill is a repeal of the gambling and lottery law of the Commonwealth. That is absolutely untrue. The bill which you have before you is a dispensation, temporary in character, from the existing laws on gambling and lotteries. The bill you have before you can be compared to the efforts made by some churches to have festivals and different kinds of games to raise money to pay the Pastor's salary or to repair the roof. The bill before you is a bill to relieve the over-burdened taxpayer in like manner as the churches relieve the over-burdened members of their congregations from paying very large and heavy dues.

Now, the bill has one thought back of it and that is to raise money to establish, not only establish, but to raise money to carry on the system that we have established relating to old age assistance.

I think you received the other day a copy of a report that indicated that some were receiving old age assistance, and others, equally qualified were not receiving it. The reason why discrimination exists is the lack of funds in the Commonwealth's Treasury. This bill is a dispensation from the gambling laws, to enable the Commonwealth to raise money to give every one entitled to old age assistance the same care that the lucky ones are getting.

Members of the House you have heard much of the numbers game. You have heard much of the Irish Sweepstakes, you have heard of numerous other lotteries. With reference to the numbers game let me say to you that as fast as number writers go to jail, another crop starts to sprout, and the taxpayers have the terrific expense of trying to enforce a non-enforceable law. They are feeding in jail many thousands of prisoners, whose only sin is a violation of man's law and not a law of nature. As long as people want to gamble they will do so in spite of all the laws. The demand to gamble exists and as long as that demand exists some one will come forth to supply it. Most of the laws against gambling originated because gamblers were cheats and failed to pay the prizes that were won. Today gambling is carried on clandestinely and many gamblers never intend to make good their losses. Their failure to be honest causes disturbances, bombing and murders. Shall the State have the profit of gambling for beneficial and humane purposes, or shall others take it for themselves? How many thousands and thousands of dollars go to Ireland and other countries? Ireland has built up the finest hospital system in the world on American money. Thousands of fraudulent and forged tickets have been sold in America. It is estimated that over $150,000,000 went to Ireland in the last two years and only a quarter of a million dollars ever came back to America. As long as the people get a thrill out of gambling they will gamble. It is hard to say in the business world where gambling begins and where gambling ends. How many transactions on the stock exchange are pure gambling? To suppress the phoney, dishonest and cheating practice of gambling would take thousands of police officers and hundreds of detectives to watch the police officers. Who shall pay the expense of this? In the end will the morals of the people be better? The more oppressive the government, the lower its moral standard always. The months and months of attempted enforcement has caused untold misery and suffering. Little penny gamblers are in jail while wives and children suffer, and while the taxpayers feed them and keep them in idleness. Their punishment is nothing because many of them have a better home in jail than they would have outside. Where the prizes are small and where they are spread over a great number no one is made unduly rich and no one is made poor. The argument of many that oppose the regulation of gambling and insist upon prohibition is only a quarrel with God and God's creation. If God had created man without the thrill or desire to gamble there would be no gambling. The opponents of gambling want to put themselves in the position of God and make man over again. No man was ever so great in intellect or power as to be able to improve on God's creation. Man as God made him must be regulated and guided. All efforts by man to say to man "thou shalt not" have met with failure.

The bill before you is purely temporary in character.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask you to vote for this bill with all sincerity. It breaks down none of the laws of this Commonwealth. It is merely a temporary expedient to raise money to pay old age assistance, so that the promise made by this Legislature to the aged shall not go unfulfilled.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, inform the House as to whether or not this bill contains a provision for a referendum by the people of the State as to whether or not they want this lottery?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the bill does not contain a referendum. The people of Pennsylvania have elected us to represent them, and if we have not the courage to do so then we should quit our jobs. Those people who do not desire to participate in this effort to aid old age assistance may remain out.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose this bill because I am opposed to any bill to put the State in the gambling business. This bill is designed, of course, to meet some very worthy ends, but it seems to me it is merely an attempt to escape what must be done finally and that is to devise an intelligent tax program to take care of these worthy needs. We all realize that the aged, the old people must be taken care of, and all these other worthy ends, but it must not be taken care of by the people who are least able to pay. We all know that in this lottery enterprise the tickets are going to be purchased for the most part by the poor people of the Commonwealth. The rich people perhaps know better than to bother with lotteries, because they know they cannot win. It seems to me that there will be a special burden upon the poor people who can ill afford it. It will be another burden of taxation upon the people who are least able to pay it, and least able to afford it. I feel that we ought to vote down this bill.

If we are going to take care of these old age pensions and so forth, we must do it by devising an intelligent plan for taxation upon the people who are best able to bear it and not put an additional burden upon the poor.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHEPARD. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard, one of the honorable ministers of this body, when he underwent such a change of heart to say now that he is opposed to this bill?

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I have never had an opportunity to express myself on this bill before.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman, whether by expressing himself he means expressing himself on the floor or an expression otherwise to the people?

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I don't know what the gentleman means by "expression otherwise".

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York will state his point of order.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, the question of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, is out of order, as it was a confidential communication transmitted between members on a discussion on the bill.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my interrogation.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to support this bill because we all know today in the larger cities practically everybody is writing numbers. In fact, in the district I represent you cannot go down the street without being stopped by number writers wanting to inform you that they have a hot tip today. This money is going to the racketeer when it should be going to the State. It is estimated that in the city of Pittsburgh alone over one hundred thousand dollars is written in numbers each day. In fact, in the Pittsburgh paper only yesterday it stated that the number writers were hit for sixty thousand dollars caused by everyone playing a hot tip.

When the gentleman from Philadelphia states that the poor man was the one who was going to buy the numbers, I say that that man is buying today, he is going to continue to buy. Why not let the State get this money to pay the poor, the aged, who are waiting for our vote?

I ask the Democratic members of the House to support this bill, as an emergency measure at this time.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, as I understand it, is an effort to legalize gambling. We will admit the evil results of gambling or the evils of the number racket. In order to put this bill across, the profits are supposed to go for old age pension, mothers' assistance, and welfare work. We have plenty of money in Pennsylvania. We have plenty of tax bills lying in committee to raise the revenue. To legalize gambling is an attempt to make gambling respectable.

I have noticed among the working men that when they get to gambling, they don't seem to have any money for their families. At the present time it is true that there is quite a lot of relief money, I believe, going to the numbers racket. But this will not help the matter, to pass this bill. We are doing too much to try and enact this liberal legislation. I ask you to vote against it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose this bill because it is right in line with my voting consistently "no" on all of these measures. I was just wondering how many of the older people who would receive these pensions having gone through seventy years of life in this State,—how they would accept that money, having lived here in this State all those years and lived as they felt any honorable citizen should live. Do you think they will be pleased and very much gratified in receiving money that will be raised by a lottery? I certainly feel that it is the duty of this House not, at this time, to legalize gambling, no matter where the funds shall go, and I ask the members of the House to vote "no" on the bill.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe that Mr. Sowers has brought out one of the finest bills that has been presented in this House this session. He has certainly given us an opportunity to give the people through their own free will an opportunity to pay for the unemployed and old age pensions. I have not heard any of the old people refuse to take money derived from whiskey interests. They accept it. My good friend, Mr. Alexander, was in error when he said they would not take it because it comes from a lottery. I do not think that they will care where it comes from as long as they have money for food and clothing. Many of the churches in Philadelphia for some time have conducted little lotteries among themselves. They have books and chances. They do not do it to pay for the old age pensions, but they do it pay the salary of the pastor. I think it would be very much more in the keeping with the times now to feed these old people through the legalized lottery.

In Philadelphia, the district from which I come, there are about four thousand arrests a year of people playing an illegal lottery. I feel that if we would take it out of the hands of the racketeer and have it supervised, we would not catch these innocent victims.

I noticed in the paper this morning where it said: "Three thousand innocent people sent six thousand dollars by a chain wire." Why not have something to give to these people under the supervision of the state? When they wouldn't be pretending to get something for nothing, when it cannot be done. I believe that it is a fine bill, and as Mr. Sowers said, those who do not wish to participate in it do not need to. We tax the people to death. Then we are forcing our taxes upon the people to pay and no one wants to pay the taxes. I think we should legalize the lottery business and let the state of Pennsylvania which has gone into the whiskey business go into the lottery business also.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that in this Legislature we are going not only from bad to worse, but also from worse to worse. It is greatly to be regretted that we even had to think of such a thing. I wish to express my serious disapproval of such legislation, as that which is pending in this session of the Legislature. For example, I wonder how many realize that we just this morning voted for the passage of a bill that permits the selling of liquor at all times of the day and night, Sundays, week days and election days also. My one satisfaction is that I have just learned that there is no possibility of its passage in the Senate. The same is true of the lottery bill. What kind of an example is this to set before the youth of our country, that it is a proper thing to try to get something for nothing?

As a ruse to pass the state saloon bill, it provided that the earnings therefrom would go to old age, the blind and the orphans of the state. We suppose that this money derived by the state after entering the lottery business will go to take care of the aged. It is not fair to the aged persons, that these monies that go to them shall be obtained in a questionable way. I feel that the money to the aged, and the blind and the orphans of the state should come directly from the state treasury, from whereever derived, so that the aged will not feel that they are dependent upon a lottery scheme or a saloon for their maintenance.

I am making my address short because I am satisfied that this bill will never pass the Senate and will never get past the hands of the Governor.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in reply to the gentleman who said that many of the churches use the lottery system to pay the pastor's salary, I may state that if that is true, it is an additional reason why I am opposed to this bill, because the pastor's salaries have been so far in arrears it shows that if they use this method it is a very bad method because we haven't seen a pay for some time.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I came here without any lottery tickets, but in less than a few minutes more than three tickets have been handed to me. Some of them cost two dollars and fifty cents and others less. Now, this is what is going on. This is what is happening. Shall it continue or shall it be regulated?

Bear in mind the argument of my friend from Western Pennsylvania and the argument of my friend,—pardon me, here is another one,—I believe I will have a chance on every lottery in the world in a moment or so.

Members of the House, in reply to the arguments that have been made to you by the gentleman from Western Pennsylvania and the gentleman from Central Pennsylvania and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard, permit me to say this: the bill before you does not legalize gambling; the bill before you does not repeal the lottery laws of Pennsylvania; the bill before you is merely a dispensation for a certain purpose for a certain length of time, and for the good object back of it. The bill before you will put to work over thirty thousand men in Pennsylvania legally instead of now having them work illegally in selling a lot of this trash, counterfeit and otherwise. I ask you, men, to give this bill a chance, give the aged the benefits of it; it will harm no one; it will do good; it won't make the poor poorer because, God knows, they are poor enough now and cannot be made poorer. It may take some money from the rich that want to take a chance and in doing so the rich will help a holy cause. Taxation neither makes a State richer or poorer. It merely changes the money from one person to another. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania cannot be made richer or poorer by this bill, but it can be made and is being made poorer by this kind of chance that takes the money out of Pennsylvania for foreign countries and never brings it back. This keeps it in the State, stimulates trade and will aid industry.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REASONS FOR VOTE

The following reasons for vote on House Bill No. 237 were filed:

Miss BRANCATO. I voted for this bill because it will provide more money for old age assistance.

Mr. CARSON. I wish to file my reason for voting "no" on Bill No. 237, Printer's No. 1082:

I am in favor of a pension for old age but I do not believe in putting the state of Pennsylvania in the lottery business.

Mr. OMINSKY. Since this bill does not contain a provision for a referendum, which would give the people of this Commonwealth an opportunity to vote upon this question, I am compelled to vote against this measure.

The citizens of this State should say whether or not they wish to make such a radical change in our laws.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laiid upon the table.

RESOLUTION NO. 168

Miss BRANCATO asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up and for its immediate consideration Resolution No. 168, Printer's No. 1457.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives June 10 1935

Resolved That House Resolution Number one hundred thirty-seven Serial Number one hundred eighty-six Printer's Number eight hundred sixty-six which was adopted by the House of Representatives May twenty-two one thousand nine hundred thirty-five be so amended that Resolution Number two read as follows

Resolved That the committee shall make a report to the next House of Representatives [of this] when assembled in regular session [as early as possible] and

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I first want to incorporate into the record that the reason I did not object to the immediate consideration of the resolution was because it was so brief that to do so would merely delay it until this evening when we would have a great deal of work to do. However, with respect to the resolution itself, I am not surprised in the least that this resolution comes before the House at this time. On May 22nd I made a number of remarks indicating that I believe indicated that this resolution or investigation was to be an unfair one, it was to be an inquisition, that every attempt was made by the Democratic majority of this House to so regulate the membership of this committee that it would be merely a House investigating committee and not a joint committee as it should be, even though the Board of City Trusts was the creature of the Legislature and not of the House alone. The thing that surprises me in this, that what I said concerning it, to wit, that this investigation was to be an inquisition is borne out by the House History concerning this resolution.

The lady from Philadelphia introduced this resolution on the 22nd of April, 1935. It was reported out of Committee on April 29th. It remained dormant until the 22nd of May, when after opposition it was adopted by this House. Now, it seems to me, in all fairness to this resolution that is now being offered that something should have been done by this committee from the 22nd of May down until today, June 12th. I am reliably informed that this committee has not even met, that there has been no organization meeting at all. I can readily understand why, because if they had met, if they had conducted their business they would not have had to come in here with a request to continue this investigation. The inactivity of this committee in the past, almost three weeks, seems to me to be an indictment against it, that what was said concerning the investigation was true, to wit, it was a political investigation for the purpose of endeavoring to stir up improper political propaganda. It happens that they now ask to continue it. I say from today on that there is insufficient time. The purpose of asking for a continuance is that they will be able during the next few months when a political battle is being waged to endeavor to rake up something that they won't find and I know they won't find, but endeavor to sling mud in an inquisition of the Democratic controlled committee. It is for that reason that I believe that this resolution ought not to be passed.

I want to say one thing in addition, that the membership of the Board of City Trusts is composed of members of both parties, Republican and Democratic. In my opinion the members of the Board of City Trusts are high type citizens. I do not believe that the investigation is going to show anything improper. If I was a member of the Board of City Trusts, I am frank to say that I would not submit to this investigation, but whether it is continued or not, because a one-house investigating committee has no power, and as far as I am concerned if I had anything to do with the Board of City Trusts I would tell this committee that has been created by this House, where to get off.

I am going to ask the membership of this House to vote down this resolution, because it is inquituous, because it is founded upon bad faith, because the original resolution for an investigation was made in bad faith, and because the manner in which it has been conducted down to the present time is also in bad faith, and I might say, members of the House, it is an insult to the intelligence of this House.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to add a few remarks to what the gentleman said. In one sense I wish to concur with him. I think that the members of the Committee and I think the Democrats of Philadelphia will concur with Mr. Witkin in the fact that the members of the Board of City Trusts are composed of high grade and high type men, most of them leaders of civic life of Philadelphia. But the idea of slinging mud, and the fact that this investigation was initiated for political purposes I do not concur in. But I do think that the taxpayers of Philadelphia should be given an opportunity of having the books of the Board of City Trusts audited, even though the members of the Board of City Trusts are high type men. I think we owe this to the taxpayers. Our position is that we are making no charges; we are simply trying to satisfy the taxpayers. If there is anything wrong we will bring it out; if there is nothing wrong we will not try to use it for political purposes. I ask the members of the House to vote "aye" on this Resolution.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WITKIN and Mr. BLUMBERG.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

YEAS—85

BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2217, Printer's No. 1419, on page 10 of today's calendar, bills on second reading. It was not on file was passed over earlier today.

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2217, entitled:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the twelfth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws six hundred three) entitled "An act concerning conditional sales and to make uniform the law relating thereto" by providing that all such contracts heretofore or hereafter filed shall be judicial records and subject to the control of the court

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That section six of the act approved the twelfth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws six hundred three) entitled

"An act concerning conditional sales and to make uniform the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 6 PLACE OF FILING The conditional sale contract or copy shall be filed in the office of the prothonotary in the county in which the goods are first kept for use by the buyer after the sale and shall be a judicial record and shall be subject to the control of the court of common pleas of said county It shall not be necessary to the validity of such conditional sale contract or in order to entitle it to be filed that it must be acknowledged or attested This section shall not apply to the contracts described in section eight

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 6, Page 2, Line 5, by striking out the word "may" at the end of the line, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "must"

Amend Section 6, Page 2, Line 6, by striking out after the word "This" and before the word "shall" the word "secion" and insert in lieu thereof the following: "section"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section and the title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall be retroactive and shall apply to all contracts or copies heretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of the act to which this is an amendment

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the twelfth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws six hundred three) entitled "An act concerning conditional sales and to make uniform the law relating thereto" by providing that all such contracts heretofore or hereafter filed shall be judicial records and subject to the control of the court

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1555

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg,
June 11, 1935.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1555, Printer's No. 751, entitled, "An act to amend section five hundred and three of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws three hundred forty-three) entitled 'An act relating to the finances of the State government providing for the settlement assessment collection and lien of taxes bonus and all other accounts due the Commonwealth the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties affecting every department board commission and officers of the State government every political subdivision of the State and certain officers of such subdivisions every person association and corporation required to pay assess or collect taxes or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth' as amended providing for appeals from refusals of the Board of Finance and Revenue to allow refunds."

The purpose of this bill is to permit an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County from the refusal of the Board of Finance and Revenue, after hearing, to refund moneys paid to the Commonwealth, or to remit penalties imposed for failure to file a tax report within the time specified by law.

Under existing law the action of the board in refusing to allow refunds or to remit penalties is final.

The right to make refunds of moneys paid to the Commonwealth was originally exercised by a board composed of the Auditor General, State Treasurer, and Attorney General under the provisions of the Act of April 8, 1869, Pamphlet Laws, 19. Since then disallowances of refunds by that board and its successor, the Board of Finance and Revenue, have not been subject to appeal to the courts. This practice has operated satisfactorily and there is no compelling reason why it should now be changed.

Under the present law any taxpayer or other debtor to the Commonwealth may appeal to the courts prior to payment of his obligation. This bill would provide an additional and superfluous remedy in permitting another appeal after payment. It would tend to encourage litigation and would uselessly burden the courts of the Commonwealth.

There is no valid reason why an appeal should be necessary from the discretionary action of the board in refusing to remit penalties imposed for failure to file tax reports within the time provided for by law. It is because of the tax payers failure to comply with the express provisions of the law that these penalties are imposed. He should therefore have no remedy beyond that which he now enjoys.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

By Mr. EBERHARTER. (Concurrent)

RESOLUTION No. 172.

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1935.

Whereas, In the Fifteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania there has been for many years an imperative need for additional recreational facilities by reason of its being a congested residential district peopled almost exclusively by a wage-earning class and

Whereas, The people of this section realizing this need and appreciating the fact that proper supervision of the activities of children and healthful recreation will tend to improve the children's morals as well as their health and thus give the promise of a cleaner and more wholesome citizenship in the years to come have repeatedly petitioned the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania to construct a swimming pool in their neighborhood and

Whereas, It now appears that a majority of the Council of said City are convinced that this section should have a swimming pool and

Whereas, The reason that such a swimming pool has not been constructed is because of the lack of funds and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States by a recent Act gave to the President of the United States the power and administration of expending Four Billions Eight Hundred Million Dollars for public improvements as a means of alleviating unemployment and

Whereas, It is believed that the construction of a swimming pool in the Fifteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania would come within the purposes and intent of the Act of Congress providing for this huge expenditure of public funds therefore be it

Resolved, That the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania are hereby requested to petition the President of the United States to allocate out of the Four Billions Eight Hundred Million Dollars a sum sufficient for the construction of a swimming pool in the Fifteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this Resolution to the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania.

Referred to the Committee on Cities.

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 344.

An Act to amend the title and sections one and two of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one thousand nineteen) entitled "An act relating to seated lands purchased by county commissioners at county treasurer's sale of seated lands for collection of taxes authorizing the county commissioners to sell the same at private sale under the circumstances" by extending the provisions thereof to unseated lands.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE ADOPTS CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL NO. 862

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has adopted the report of the Committee of Conference on the subject of the difference existing between the two Houses on House Bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE ADOPTS CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL NO. 817

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has adopted the report of the Committee of Conference on the subject of the difference existing between the two Houses on House Bill numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 817.

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws six hundred sixty-two) entitled "An act relating to retirement from the Pennsylvania National Guard" by including service in United States Navy or Marine Corps in preferred classifications and providing further for retirements and the rights of retired persons.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. COHEN asked and obtained permission of the House for the Committee on Appropriations to meet during the session of the House.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 666.

An Act appropriating the moneys in the State Forests and Waters Fund.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 1, line 10, by striking out after the word "of" the words "such proportion of direct profits derived from the sale of land or its products resulting from Emergency Conservation Work projects and for the payment of net profits accruing from the administration of lands acquired from the Federal Government and its agencies as may be required by Federal law or order or as may be agreed upon from time to time by the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "so much of its share and direct profits derived from the sale of land or its products resulting from Emergency Conservation Work Projects as may be required by Federal Law or order."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendment made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I call up at this time Senate Resolution (Serial No. 127).

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 18, 1935.

Whereas, There is now pending before the Congress of the United States certain proposed legislation vitally affecting the banking system in this country, and

Whereas, Among other provisions of this legislation is a provision authorizing the creation of branch banks which experience has proven is not a wise policy in this country,

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to reject any proposed legislation creating a branch banking system.

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States by the Chief Clerk of this Senate.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1083

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1083, Printer's No. 1087, entitled:

An Act to provide for the better protection of life and property by the examination and licensure by the Department of Public Instruction of operators having charge of stationary steam or mercury boilers steam engines and turbines designating the requirements necessary to secure the licensure providing for the collection of fees making it a misdemeanor to operate or cause to be operated such apparatus without licensure and providing penalties was defeated on final passage on June 3, 1935, be reconsidered.

Mr. CHERVENAK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Patterson, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. In the negative, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Chervenak, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. CHERVENAK. In the negative, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, as I read the House History, this bill was defeated on final passage on June 3. It appears to me that more than five Legislative days have elapsed and that a motion to reconsider is not in order.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia the Chair will state that the five days means legislative days. The day on which the bill was acted upon is not counted. So, June 4, was the first legislative day, June 5, the second. On June 6 the House was not in session. June 10, was the third day, June 11 was the fourth and June 12 is the fifth day.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my point of order I had forgotten that there was no session on Thursday.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, ninety members having voted in the affirmative and forty in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill 1083, Printer's No. 1087 was up for final passage on Monday, June 10, 1935, and approximately 65 votes were cast in the affirmative.

The bill provides for the licensing of engineers. The bill on its face—that is on the face of the title is written as if it were for the protection of the public, but the bill is not for the protection of the public, because it only licenses engineers that take charge of boilers with equipment attached. It is just as dangerous to have boilers without equipment as it is to have them with it. It is possible to run equipment with low pressure boilers and large cylinders.

The bill eliminates protection to the public in places of amusement and in places where large numbers of people congregate. In those places like large apartment houses, hotels, and institutions of that kind, that heat their places with high pressure boilers, the bill provides for no license at all.

In Philadelphia County and in two or three other counties of the state there is a licensing system for engineers and in all of the counties the engineers are licensed to take care of high pressure boilers. In Philadlphia county if this bill passes, over eleven hundred rejected applicants for engineers licenses, who are unqualified and incompetent to have charge of boilers would immediately be given a license. But there is a more serious objection to this bill because the Legislature of Pennsylvania in 1891 passed an act which authorized boiler insurance companies to issue insurance against damwould most likely repeal that act of the assembly beages resulting from boilers or boiler explosions. This bill cause it would be inconsistent. It may relieve those insurance companies from liability on their policies where the act of 1891 provides that the insurance companies appoint boiler inspectors. Those inspectors are qualified and receive the approval of the Department of Labor. If this bill was passed, then the act providing for qualified inspectors representing insurance companies and the policies of insurance companies insuring against damage by boiler explosions would be repealed. This bill may seem simple on its face but it is not a protective measure to the public.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there appears to be an unusual degree of misunderstanding upon this very sound bill. This bill has received a great deal of consideration and study in the House Committee on Education, and it was overwhelmingly reported out after it had been subjected to a public hearing, where engineers, boiler inspectors, insurance companies and other people concerned were consulted, and where their opinions were learned and where their suggested amendments were given due consideration.

This bill is primarily a measure for safety.

I would like to clear up just a few of the misunderstandings which are so apparent concerning this bill. In the first place, this bill has no connection with the act of 1891, which relates to the insurance of boilers and to their inspection by inspectors of insurance companies. This will in no way repeal that act and in no way intends to do so.

The principle of licensure of stationary engineers is not new in the state of Pennsylvania. It has been passed upon favorably by three Legislatures. The first bill, which related to first class cities, was passed in 1899. There were subsequent bills passed relating to second and third class cities.

Mr. Speaker, I would yield at this time to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Patterson.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1083 MADE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be made a special order of business on final passage Monday, June 17, 1935, at 9:30 P. M.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY

Mr. MELCHIORRE asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read by the Clerk for the information of the House as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 11, 1935.

Whereas, There has been much criticism directed against the State Board of Pharmacy to the effect that the board is no longer complying with the provisions of the law under which the board was created; and

Whereas, It is alleged that the board has repeatedly shown favortism to certain persons and to the graduates of certain pharmaceutical schools; and

Whereas, It has been charged that the board permits certain privileged persons to meet a lower standard of qualifications than it does other persons; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint five members of this House whose duty it shall be to fully, fairly and impartially inquire into and investigate the practices of the State Board of Pharmacy, particularly as to the educational requirements; whether there exists any evidence of favoritism and whether the members of the board are properly qualified and are carrying out the duties imposed by law on said board.

Resolved, That the said committee shall make a report on its findings to the House of Representatives at its next session.

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoena sunder the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to tetsify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk.

COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE SICK

Mr. TRONZO asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read by the Clerk for the information of the House as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1935.

Resolved, That the Governor is hereby authorized to appoint a commission of nine persons whose duty it shall be to study and investigate the extent of illness and the conditions of the sick in this Commonwealth, the adequacy of the present methods of medical care, the present methods of meeting losses caused by illness, and to procure such other information as it may deem necessary for the purpose of recommending ways and means for better provision of medical care and the protection of wage-earners from sickness. The commission shall study the possibility of health insurance legislation and report upon the advisability of such a plan for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including a proposed method of financing such plan. Every department and agency of the State Gvoernment shall furnish to the commission such information and assistance as the commission may request.

Resolved, That said commission shall organize by the selection of a chairman, vice-chairman and secretary. The members of the commission shall serve without compensation. The commission shall have all the powers of a legislative commission, and shall formulate such plans for its organization and work as may be deemed necessary.

Resolved, That said commission shall make a report of its findings and recommendations to the House of Representatives on or before the fifteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1593, Printer's No. 1271, on page 17 of today's calendar, bills on second reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar, by Mr. KOBELAK and

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House resumed the consideration on second reading of House Bill No. 1593, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for Old Age Assistance

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of nineteen million eight hundred eighty thousand dollars ($19,880,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated out of the General Fund to the Department of Welfare for expediture during the biennium ending the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven for Old Age Assistance in the manner provided by law

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 1, lines 4 and 5, by striking out the words "nineteen million eight hundred eight thousand dollars ($19,880,000)" and insert in lieu thereof "forty million dollars ($40,000,000)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not want to take a great deal of your time, but I want to call attention to a few of the facts which we have obtained on this question of old age assistance.

You will remember that when this bill was called up last week I asked to have it postponed in order that we might obtain figures from the Department of Welfare. This is a most important measure. Upon resolution of the House, we obtained information from the Department of Welfare upon which to intelligently figure the amount which would be necessary for this appropriation. You will recall that at the time it was before us last week, we were told that they had no definite figures, but since that time, upon our request, they have telegraphed the various county Boards of Mothers Assistance who have charge, as well of old age assistance and have obtained figures of the number of persons who have applied for old age assistance, the number who have been investigated, the number who have been approved and who are actually being paid, those who have been approved but who are not yet being paid because of want of funds, and the number of those who have not been investigated at all. Those figures have been submitted to the members of the House by counties in mimeograph form, which was handed around yesterday. For those of you who are interested and seem to have lost your sheets, there are a few extra ones upon my desk and to which you are welcome.

The figures show that one hundred and thirteen thousand two hundred and twenty-seven persons have applied for assistance and that thirty-two thousand seven hundred and thirty-one persons are receiving it at the present time. Five thousand one hundred and seven have been investigated and approved, but there are no funds with which to pay them. Fourteen thousand two hundred and sixteen have been rejected and the total number that has been investigated is fifty-two thousand and fifty-four, and there were sixty-one thousand one hundred and seventy three who have not been investigated at all. Those figures are taken from the mimeograph report which all of you have upon your desks.

I shall now give you a few more figures which I would suggest those of you who are really interested in this matter of old age assistance take down for reference.

The present monthly appropriation for old age assistance is six hundred and ninety four thousand dollars. The average grant per case, as shown by the Department of Welfare is twenty dollars and ninety eight cents. On the basis that the present appropriation, making no allowance for funerals, and I may say that a certain number of funerals are paid by the department, but if all the money which is appropriated to them under the present appropriation is allowed for old age assistance, only thirty-three thousand and seventy-nine can be taken care of. Under the bill which is before you, House Bill 1593, an appropriation of nineteen million eight hundred and eighty dollars is appropriated for the biennium. If you divide that figure by twenty-four, you will get the monthly allowance of eight hundred and twenty-eight thousand three hundred and thirty-three dollars and thirty-three cents. If you divide that figure by the average grant of twenty dollars and ninety-eight cents, you will find that thirty-nine thousand four hundred and eighty is the number that can possibly be cared for under this proposed appropriation, with absolutely no allowance for funerals.

And now, of the fifty-two thousand and fifty-four cases that have been investigated up to the present time, thirty-seven thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight or seventy-two and seven tenths percent have been approved. If you take that percentage of the total number of applications, and we have every reason to believe that this represents a fair sample of those that have been investigated, it would be almost half of the total. Taking that percentage of the total number of applications, which is one hundred and thirteen thousand two hundred and twenty-seven, we obtain the figure of thirty-two thousand two hundred ninety-four as the probable number of aged persons who will qualify under the present old age assistance act.

If we compute the amount that is necessary to take care of those persons upon the average grant as given us by the Department for those who are now receiving twenty-dollars and ninety-eight cents, we obtain a figure of one million seven hundred twenty-six thousand four hundred and seventy-eight dollars and twelve cents as the amount necessary for each month, and for the biennium the necessary appropriation will be forty-one million four hundred thirty five thousand four hundred and seventy-four dollars and eighty-eight cents.

Now, the proposed amendment only calls for forty million dollars and does not cover the next million and a half which will be necessary under the figures nor does it cover anything whatever for funerals, and under the act they claim they pay one hundred dollars each for funerals of those persons who are indigent and have no other other means for their funerals to be paid. So much for the figures that are before us.

I think that it is fair to say that from those figures the proposed amendment is a conservative one, as it does not cover the amount that appears to be necessary.

There comes now the question of whether or not we want the amendment. I submit to the members of the House that it is not fair to pay old age assistance to some people who qualify under the act, and not to all who qualify under the act, and yet that is exactly what we will do if we do not substantially increase this proposed appropriation. We will pay to those who made their applications first, and others who made it later who may be in greater need will be denied it, not because they did not qualify but merely because the money is not forthcoming.

At this point I would like to call the attention of the members of the House to the fact that both the Republican and Democratic parties have pledged themselves not to old age pauper assistance that is provided under this act, which we have before us, but to old age pensions, which would provide at least $30 a month to each person who was in need of it.

The age limit under our present act is 70 years, which is not enough even to qualify for sharing Federal funds. We would have to reduce our age limit from 70 to 65 to share in Federal funds, and those who are familiar with this problem will tell you that if you reduce your age limit from 70 to 65, you will exactly double the number of persons who will qualify. In other words, the death rate is so great above the age of 70 that there are twice as many people above 65 as there are above 70. I am not suggesting at this time that this age limit should be reduced, but I am calling your attention to the fact that if Pennsylvania adopts old-age pensions the necessary appropriation should be made.

I do not know how it is with other members of the House, but I know that every week-end when I am at home, these aged people who have made their applications six or eight months ago, but because of lack of funds to make the investigation and lack of funds to pay the old age assistance are not receiving it, come into my office by the score. A member here has just shown me a half a dozen letters on that subject which he has received recently. I believe that all of you are interested in this problem. I believe that every one of you have these people coming to your offices, to your homes, begging you to take care of them.

We have pledged old age pensions, but we have not even appropriated the money for this pauper old age act, which we have upon the statute books.

Those of you that have paid attention know that only last week Director of Unemployment Relief Johnson announced that they were going to take off the unemployment relief rolls in Pennsylvania all persons who were unemployable, that they were going to be put upon the poor boards, and that applies to the persons who are over seventy years of age and who are not able to work. They are going to be taken off unemployment relief if they are on it and they are going to go back to your poor boards. Do you realize what that means?

I believe that many members of the House are pledged to reduce real estate taxes and the poor board funds come from real estate taxes at home. If you pass an appropriation that is insufficient to take care of these aged, you will reduce the burden upon the poor boards. If you refuse to increase this appropriation and allow it to remain inadequate as it is in this measure then you will have your poor boards carrying the burden on to your local taxpayers who will continue to pay and that is the thing you have been complaining about. Therefore, you will not be helping the people back home unless you increase this appropriation. Many of these aged persons are threatened with loss of homes. Only last week I had a case of a man who had been approved by the local board, who was not being paid because of lack of funds. He showed me a letter from the owner of his home threatening him with eviction. He was threatened with that eviction several months ago. They told him that when he got his pension he would be able to pay his rent. He told the landlord that and he held off, but now he is getting in deeper; he is not getting his rent, and he came to me and said he hoped we would increase the appropriation and he would then be able to keep his home. Many of the aged are compelled to rely upon public assistance today not because they did not save when they were able to make money, but because the savings that they had stored up in their active years or deposited in banks or invested in mortgages were lost through the depression. Those persons are up against the need of assistance. We have pledged ourselves to help them. Therefore, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I plead with you to protect the aged of Pennsylvania. Give them that to which they are obviously entitled. Give them that which both the major political parties have promised by increasing the appropriation. Merely to pass an old age assistance bill and not appropriate enough money to carry it is to mislead the aged of Pennsylvania, is to insult them, is to deceive them, and I am sure that you do not want to do that. I am sure that you want to take care of these people and the only way that you can take care of them is by increasing this appropriation as proposed in these amendments.

I urge the members to vote for these amendments and I ask for a roll call, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, if I understood him correctly when he said the only way to take care of the aged would be to increase this appropriation?

Mr. HOOPES. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Berks how the aged would be more adequtely taken care of by increasing this appropriation than they would be by the present appropriation in this present bill?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, I will repeat what I though I had pointed out quite clearly in my statement, namely, that the appropriation under the present bill will take care of less than half of those who appear from the figures submitted by the Department of Welfare will qualify. The purpose of increasing the appropriation is to take care of the larger number who will not be reached by the appropriation as submitted in this bill.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman in what manner will an increased appropriation more adequately take care of the needs of the aged if the money that is supposed to be carried by the appropriation is not available?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, it is certainly obvious that just as empty a gesture as it is to pass no appropriation, so it would equally be an empty gesture to pass an appropriation if you didn't have the necessary funds. It is obvious that we will have to raise the necessary funds in order to appropriate them.

MR. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, has presented to this House the exact argument that I had intended to present to you.

I don't believe that there is a member of this House who has been more sincere in his efforts to aid the aged than the gentleman from Berks.

In my experience with old age assistance law in the past session I was only too glad and too willing to join forces with the gentleman from Berks in an effort not only to discharge the House Committee that had the Constitutional Amendment bill pickled but also to aid the passage of the present old age assistance act. However, those actions both of the gentleman from Berks and of myself in the matter were actions that had some concrete possibility. However, the suggestion of raising this appropriation from twenty to forty million dollars is nothing more than a futile gesture on our part. We all understand that the present finances of the state of Pennsylvania are so encroached upon that the mere fact that we increase these appropriations from twenty to forty million dollars is not going to increase the available funds with which to pay that appropriation. A number of tax studies have been made of the situation involving the Commonwealth's finances. You gentleman of the House have heard that innumerable times. You doubtless also understand the full force and effect of the Supreme Court's decision on the Talbot act. Care of the aged is not a preferential governmental obligation. Old age assistance is one that does not have a preferential claim upon the revenues of the Commonwealth and until we take care of the governmental expenses, in addition to the aged, mothers' assistance fund, aid to the hospitals and all other subsidies that are indulged in by this Commonwealth must be abated. At the last session we saw at least ten million dollars appropriated for State aid, which was not met. Our present appropriation bill carries with it a re-appropriation for that abated amount, but, nevertheless, it does not appropriate money with which to pay it.

I have noticed during the tax program presented in this House that in a number of individuals who undoubtedly will vote for this increased appropriation have voted against this increased taxation. I have noticed that even the gentleman from Berks has not presented to this House an adequate tax-raising measure, one that has the possibility of passing both the House and the Senate across the Hall. If we indulge in increasing this appropriation, the only thing we are doing is presenting to the aged a futile hope. We are according to them a possibility, we are according to them the desire that they are going to be taken care of when we know at the bottom of our hearts that the forty million dollars will not be forthcoming with which to pay it. I believe that this House must face that fact and I assure the members of this House that if there were available funds, I would only be too glad to be the first to make the appropriation of those funds available for the care of the aged, but the money is not there, the proverbial cupboard is bare, and until the Senate and this House provide adequate funds with which to pay those moneys, the action on our part in increasing the appropriation from twenty to forty million dollars would be but a futile gesture.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, after listening to the very able explanation given by the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, I almost hesitate to rise in support of these amendments but nevertheless I do so, because I feel that although it is not a preferential expenditure of the State, it is for the benefit of the citizens of the State.

We have in Westmoreland County three thousand six hundred forty-one applicants for old age assistance. I would not say that three thousand six hundred forty-one have come to my door, but I reckon that about six hundred of them have. We have three hundred sixty-three who had their old age assistance applications approved as far back as last November. One of these men asked me to try and do something toward getting his old age pay to him. I did my best. Last week I received a little letter and it said, Irwin, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Dent.

"This is to let you know that my father has died and will not need the old age assistance.

Respectfully yours,"

I will omit the name as I feel that it would be improper to subject that family to that particular bit of publicity.

That letter hit me as it should strike every member of this House, inasmuch as these men who are asking for assistance are not men who have failed to do their bit toward creating the wealth of the Commonwealth, they are men who have had ordinary incomes all their lives, have built homes and raised families. The members of some of those families are sitting here in the House. Those men and women, I should say, are the backbone of the Commonwealth, they are the common worker of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I feel that anything that we can do to hold out a promise to these people and try to fulfill that promise is proper and that we should do it.

You say that we will not have twenty million dollars to give them. Unlike some members of the House, I voted for every tax measure. I also introduced in this House a measure by which this old age assistance pay could be raised and paid, namely, through the contribution of the workers themselves.

We have in Pennsylvania two types of pensions. We have the pauper pension, known as the old age assistance. We have the privileged pension and commonly known as the State Teachers and the State Employees pensions. We have also a very peculiar thing in that we pay judges who receive as high as twenty thousand dollars a year, we pay them as high as seven hundred dollars a month pensions due to the fact of course that they contributed. I take the attitude that the common laborer will contribute if given the chance and the opportunity to contribute. It is only fair that we do something. I heartily approve raising the appropriation at this time, because if you don't do something to raise that money then you say to the three hundred sixty-three persons who have passed the very stringent rules and have become eligible for this pension or this assistance, you say to them, "You are in just as bad straits as the six hundred and seventy-three people who are receiving this assistance, but due to the fact that we can only raise so much money, we pay the six hundred and seventy-three people and you three hundred and sixty-three citizens do without." It is unfair. If you are only going to give some, then legislate for some. If you are only going to give to a few, then legislate for a few. I will vote for any tax measure regardless of who it hits or how it hits to help the aged.

I honestly believe that the age limit should be cut down. It is reasonable and just that it should be. It is assinine to think that any man seventy years of age can get a job. He might get a job, but if he is the type of man who can get a job, he doesn't need old age assistance. There is no use in kidding ourselves. Let us face the facts. It is one of the most serious questions we have before us today. You might know that an old man of seventy or seventy-one or seventy-two once he becomes a transient or a hobo receives as his limit a dollar and a half from the relief to provide for his livlihood. He becomes a transient—I call them hoboes. If he becomes one of those, then he receives five dollars a week, but if he stays at home and trys to mind his own business, tries to keep his self respect, he receives a dollar and one-half from the relief rolls and that is inadequate.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I don't care whether you have the twenty million dollars or not, but if we don't have the twenty million dollars, it is our duty to get them.

We have been here quite a long time this session. We have raised a lot of money for a lot of purposes. We have raised a lot of money to build roads all over the mountains and all through the valleys and in the fields and in the townships and the boroughs and the cities. We are going to do all that work, but how about the one hundred and fifty thousand people, citizens of this Commonwealth, who have worked thirty or thirty-five years, contributed to the wealth, contributed to the security of all of us, and yet we say to them, "We can't raise this money for you." It is foolish. It is ridiculous. It is un-American. This is the first time in my career that I have used the word "un-American", but I say that that is what it is, "You cannot be taken care of." I ask you to vote in all sincerity for these amendments.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hope this amendment passes. We have pledged ourselves to old age assistance. We should make good our pledges. We have an income tax bill that has been passed. If necessary, the brackets could be lowered, but the aged should not be forgotten.

I too, like many others, have on week ends, caller after caller with reference to old age assistance. We have taught the people to depend on us and now we should make good our promise.

I introduced the lottery bill in order to make good this promise. I introduced income tax bills in order to make good that promise. If the money is appropriated, let it be forty million dollars so that the pensions for the old age assistance will be paid.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is not a member of this House who is more interested and anxious than I am to have the aged given at least a living in their declining years, but with the present situation I do not see where we can raise the money to increase the appropriation at this time, and I ask the members to defeat this amendment.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have legislated, we have regulated and passed about everything that can be passed upon, but we have done practically nothing that has benefited anybody. We have created jobs, we have taken care of those who are irresponsible. We may be able to come out of the depression, I hope we will, but there will be a lot of people that will never come out of the depression, because there is one thing we cannot do, and that is to turn back the hands of time. Whether or not we have to stay here all summer to vote on these tax measures, we had better stay here and as one of those who is not only going to vote for tax measures, but is going to help to pay, I implore, as one of the Republican members, every Republican member of the House, as well as the Democrats, to show their constituents that they are voting to help this one class of people who cannot help themselves.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I realize that the speeches in favor of this particular amendment undoubtedly are being made for the record. There is not a man in this house who honestly believes that by increasing this appropriation from twenty to forty million dollars we are going to aid — — —

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point or order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Westmoreland will state his point of order.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I object strenuously to any insinuation on the part of the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, that these speeches were made for the record. You may expunge my speech from the record at this time.

Mr. SPEAKER. There is no motion to expunge before the House at this time.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, there is not a member of this House who does not realize that this jesture to raise the appropriation from twenty to forty million dollars does not mean one cent more to the aged of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. What will it do? It will create in Westmoreland County a false hope to the 363 aged who will not be taken care of. It will create throughout the rest of the state a hope in the aged that they are going to be taken care of. It will create in them a feeling in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that we have done our part when we have not. We cannot do our part to the aged of Pennsylvania by increasing this appropriation. The only way we can do our honest part to the aged of Pennsylvania is by approving the tax revenue raisers necessary to take care of them, and I defy any man in this House to show me one honest method by increasing this appropriation from twenty to forty million dollars that we are helping one solitary aged person in the Commonwealth to gain any benefit.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I had not intended to inject myself into this discussion, but I would say in answer to the gentleman from York that I believe that it would be possible to find the twenty million dollars and not impose a penny of new taxes. We have had tax programs but we have not had a program of governmental economy, and we could get half of the twenty million needed by re-adjusting the salaries of the employees of the state and we could make substantial savings to the taxpayers, making local funds available to the old by re-adjusting salaries in the counties, and it would not be necessary. There is money without new taxation.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KANE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, there was a bill before the House this morning that was calculated to produce one hundred million dollars for old age assistance. I would ask how did the gentleman vote on that.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. The question is not pertinent to this issue and is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would esteem it a privilege to be allowed to answer that interrogation. I voted against the lottery bill this morning. I am very proud of my vote on that bill, because like the gentleman from Philadelphia I went to law school and I know the history of lottery laws in this state and in this nation. He knows as well as I do that they have been a source of grief to a great many people.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not discussing the question before the House.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman will confine himself to the question before the House, which is on the amendments now under consideration.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I don't know whether we are beyond the latitude of discussion, or the answering of the challenge of the gentleman from York, who challenged anybody to make a suggestion as to how this money could be raised, but if I may be permitted to make an answer I should like to make a suggestion at this time.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. KANE. We have passed through this House, and I voted for it, the Sunday movie bill. If you want to raise some money for this purpose, may I suggest that you add a tax provision to that Sunday movie bill and to the Sunday polo bill and to the Sunday tennis bill and a dozen other Sunday sports bills. I, for one, who go occasionally to the Sunday movies would not object a particle to paying ten cents extra or fifteen cents extra, if I knew that that money went specifically to the aged of this Commonwealth. There is one answer and if you want another answers to your challenge I will be glad to give you privately half a dozen answers that you can put into law with the same majority that voted to put through the bill to which I referred.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from McKean, able to guarantee that the Senate will go along with his suggestions?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, it is a ridiculous question.

The SPEAKER. The question is out of order. The Chair does not rule that it is a ridiculous question, but that the question is out of order.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HOOPES and Mr. KANE.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HOUSE BILL No. 1896.

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare to pay for the care treatment removal and maintenance of the indigent insane in county and poor district hospitals

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title page 1, line 1, by striking out after the word "making" the words "an appropriation" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "appropriations."

Amend bill page 3, by inserting after the word "committed" in line 10 the following new sections:

"Section 3 In addition to the appropriation made by section one of this act the sum of eight hundred fourteen thousand seven hundred seventy-nine dollars and seventeen cents ($814,779.17) is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Welfare for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the payment of obligations incurred for the purposes specified in section one of this act during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which were not paid out of the appropriation made to the department for these purposes by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-three because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund

Any law to the contrary notwithstanding amounts payable out of this appropriation shall be paid as promptly after the effective date of this act as the revenues of the General Fund will permit and for this purpose payment from this appropriation shall take precedence over payments from the appropriation made by section one of this act

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five."

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HOUSE BILL No. 1595.

An Act lapsing all unexpended or unencumbered balances of appropriations from the General Fund made by the General Assembly at its session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven and prior sessions and at its sessions of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine and one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one and providing certain exceptions

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 2, page 2, line 17, by inserting after the word "eight" the following:

"Provided further however that nothing contained herein shall be construed to lapse any appropriation made under the provisions of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred fifty-two) entitled "An act providing for joint action by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey in the administration operation and maintenance of bridges over the Delaware River and for the construction of additional bridge facilities across said River authorizing the Governor for these purposes to enter into an agreement with the State of New Jersey creating a Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission and specifying the powers and duties thereof including the power to finance the construction of additional bridges by the issuance of revenue bonds to be redeemed from revenues derived from tolls collected at such bridges transferring to said commission all powers now exercised by existing commission created to acquire toll bridges over the Delaware River and making an appropriation and the amendment thereto of May eighteenth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred twenty-seven)

And provided further that the remaining balance May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five of the appropriation approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Appropriation Acts page seventy-seven) "for the acquisition of land the erection and construction of new buildings and for additions and alterations to improvement or replacement of existing buildings for State Normal Schools State Teachers Colleges Cheyney Training School for Teachers" shall not lapse but shall be available for the construction of a filter and for the insurance of a safe and adequate water supply for the State Teachers College at Mansfield"

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. MELCHIORRE. RESOLUTION No. 173.

In the House of Representatives, June 11, 1935.

Whereas, There has been much criticism directed against the State Board of Pharmacy to the effect that the board is no longer complying with the provisions of the law under which the board was created; and

Whereas, It is alleged that the board has repeatedly shown favoritism to certain persons and to the graduates of certain pharmaceutical schools; and

Whereas, It has been charged that the board permits certain privileged persons to meet a lower standard of qualifications than it does other persons; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint five members of this House whose duty it shall be to fully, fairly and impartially inquire into and investigate the practice of the State Board of Pharmacy, particularly as to the educational requirements; whether there exists any evidence of favoritism and whether the members of the board are properly qualified and are carrying out the duties imposed by law on said board.

Resolved, That the said committee shall make a report on its findings to the House of Representatives at its next session.

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witness appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Referred to the Committee on Education.

RESOLUTION No. 174.

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1935.

Resolved, That the Governor is hereby authorized to appoint a commission of nine persons whose duty it shall be to study and investigate the extent of illness and the conditions of the sick in this Commonwealth, the adequacy of the present methods of medical care, the present methods of meeting losses caused by illness, and to procure such other information as it may deem necessary for the purpose of recommending ways and means for better provision of medical care and the protection of wage-earners from sickness. The commission shall study the possibility of health insurance legislation and report upon the advisability of such a plan for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including a proposed method of financing such plan. Every department and agency of the State Government shall furnish to the commission such information and assistance as the commission may request.

Resolved, That said commission shall organize by the selection of a chairman, vice-chairman and secretary. The members of the commission shall serve without compensation. The commission shall have all the powers of a legislative commission, and shall formulate such plans for its organization and work as may be deemed necessary.

Resolved, That said commission shall make a report of its findings and recommendations to the House of Representatives on or before the fifteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven.

Referred to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2959, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation for the payment of unpaid expenses and bills incurred by the House Committee created to investigate the various poor districts of Philadelphia

Whereas By a resolution adopted the second day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania constituted a committee to investigate the various poor districts of Philadelphia and

Whereas At the special session convened in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three the sum of thirteen thousand seven hundred thirty-nine dollars and twenty cents ($13,739.20) was appropriated by the act approved the nineteenth day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws two hundred eighty-eight) to the Secretary of the Senate for the payment of the bills incurred by said committee in its investigations which appropriation was approved by the Governor only in the sum of seven thousand dollars ($7,000) which proved insufficient to pay all of the outstanding bills incurred by said investigating committee therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of five thousand nine hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents ($5,999.60) is hereby specifically appropriated to the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives for the payment of unpaid expenses and bills incurred by the House Committee for certified public accounting service during the investigation of the poor districts of Philadelphia pursuant to the authority granted by House Resolution Serial Number fifty-eight adopted the second day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two Payment from said appropriation shall be made on requisition of the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives in the manner provided by law

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

Section 13 Notice of Report Upon the filing of such report by the Special Master the Court without delay shall fix a date for the hearing of any objections filed thereto Notice that such report has been filed that all objections thereto must be filed with the Court within ten days after the date of the mailing of such notice and that the Court has fixed a certain date (which shall be stated therein) for the hearing of such objections shall be given by sending a copy of such notice by registered mail to all persons who have appeared in the proceeding or their attorneys of record at their last known addresses Upon the expiration of ten days after the mailing of such notice all objections to the report shall be deemed waived by all persons who have not filed written objections with the Court

Section 14 Hearing of Objections by the Court If no objections are filed to the Special Master's report the Court (but only on motion of the petitioners unless title to the property has vested in the petitioner) shall enter a final judgment fixing the compensation to be paid for the property and the persons entitled to such compensation If any objections are filed to the Special Master's report the Court on the date specified in the aforesaid order shall hear and determine such questions of law and fact as are raised by such exceptions and may approve disapprove or modify the Special Master's findings or may reject the Special Master's report in toto In the event the Special Master's report is rejected in toto the Court shall at once appoint another Special Master in the same manner that the first Special Master was appointed and such Special Master shall have the same powers and duties as the Special Master first appointed except that notice of the time for filing claims and of the hearing of the Special Master may be given by registered mail to all persons who have appeared in the proceedings or their attorneys of record at their last known addresses and no other notice shall be necessary If the Court shall approve the Special Master's report with or without modifications the Court (but only on motion of the petitioner unless title to the property has previously vested in the petitioner) shall enter a final judgment fixing the compensation to be paid for such property and the persons entitled to such compensation

If title to such property has not previously been vested in the petitioner the title and right to possession of such property shall vest in the petitioner immediately upon the entry of such final judgment and upon the deposit in Court by the petitioner of the amount of the judgment fixed by the Court as the compensation for such property Upon the entry of such judgment and the vesting of title aforesaid the Court shall designate the day (not exceeding thirty days thereafter except upon good cause shown) on which the parties in possession of such property shall be required to surrender possession to the petitioner

Section 15 Certified Copy of Judgment Upon the rendition of the final judgment vesting title in the petitioner the clerk of the Court shall make and certify under the seal of the Court a copy or copies of such judgment which shall be filed or recorded in the proper county office or offices for the recording of documents pertaining to the real property described therein and such filing or recording shall constitute notice to all persons of the contents thereof A copy of the judgment certified by the clerk of the Court as aforesaid shall be competent and admissible evidence in any proceedings at law or in equity

Section 16 Appeals from Reports of Special Masters for Jury Trial (a) Within thirty days after the report of a Special Master is filed in court any party whose property is taken injured or destroyed or who is assessed benefits may appeal to the court of common pleas and demand a trial by jury Where an appeal is so taken as to a portion of the report the portion not appealed from shall be confirmed absolutely at the expiration of thirty days after the report is filed in Court

(b) Every such appeal shall state the grounds upon which it is taken and shall be signed by the appellant or by his agent or attorney and shall be accompanied by an affidavit that it is not taken for the purpose of delay but because the appellant believes that injustice has been done

(c) Upon the trial of any such appeal in case the party appellant does not obtain a verdict more favorable than was the report of the Special Master as finally confirmed the appellant shall not recover any costs

(d) The court of common pleas shall order what notices shall be given in connection with such proceedings and may by rule or otherwise prescribe the form of pleadings After verdict and final judgment either party may within three months appeal to the Superior or Supreme Court

Section 17 Declaration of Taking At any time at or after the filing of the petition referred to in Section five hereof and before the entry of final judgment the petitioner may file with the clerk of the Court a declaration of taking signed by the duly authorized officer or agent of the petitioner declaring that all or any part of the property described in said petition is to be taken for the use of the petitioner

Such declaration of taking shall be sufficient if it sets forth (1) a description of the property sufficient for the identification thereof to which there may be attached a plat or map thereof (2) a statement of the estate or interest in the property being taken and (3) a statement of the sum of money estimated by the petitioner to be just compensation for the property taken

Upon the filing of such declaration of taking and the deposit in Court to the use of the persons entitled thereto of the amount of the estimated compensation stated in the declaration title to the property specified in the declaration shall vest in the petitioner and such property shall be deemed to be condemned and taken for the use of the petitioner and the right to just compensation for the same shall vest in the persons entitled thereto Upon the filing of the declaration of taking the Court shall designate a day (not exceeding thirty days after such filing except upon good cause shown) on which the parties in possession shall be required to surrender possession to the petitioner In the event that the petitioner is an authorized corporation the Court prior to directing surrender of possession to the petitioner shall require such security to be given in addition to the amount deposited in Court as will reasonably assure the payment of any amount ultimately determined as the compensation to be paid

The ultimate amount of compensation shall be fixed in the manner heretofore specified If the amount so fixed shall exceed the amount so deposited in Court by the petitioner the Court shall enter judgment against the petitioner in the amount of such deficiency together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum on such deficiency from the date of the vesting of title to the date of the entry of the final judgment (subject however to abatement for use income rents or profits derived from such property by the owner thereof subsequent to the vesting of title in the petitioner) and the Court shall order the petitioner to deposit the amount of such deficiency in Court

Section 18 Right to Dismiss At any time prior to the vesting of title to the property in the petitioner the petitioner may withdraw or dismiss its petition with respect to any or all of the property therein described

Section 19 Divesting Title of Owner Upon vesting of title to any property in the petitioner all the right title and interest of all persons having any interest therein or lien thereupon shall be divested immediately and such persons thereafter shall be entitled only to receive compensation for such property

Section 20. Payment of Award into Court and Disbursement Thereof The payment into Court by the petitioner of the amount of any award or the deposit in Court of the amount estimated by the petitioner to be the just compensation for the property taken or condemned shall be deemed to be a payment or deposit of money for the use of the persons entitled thereto Such payment or deposit shall constitute a payment to the persons entitled thereto to the extent of the moneys so paid or deposited into Court

Any such payment shall be as valid and effectual in all respects as if it were made by the petitioner directly to the person entitled thereto or in the case of a person under legal disability to his guardian whether or not (a) such person or his whereabouts is known or unknown (b) such person is under a legal disability or (c) there are adverse or conflicting claims to such awards

The money paid into Court shall be secured in such manner as may be directed by the Court and shall be paid out by the Special Master to the persons found to be entitled thereto by the final judgment of the Court

Section 21 Recovery of Award If an award shall be paid to a person not entitled thereto the sole recourse of the person to whom it should have been paid shall be against the person to whom it shall have been paid In such event the person entitled to the award may sue for and recover the same with lawful interest and costs of suit as such money had and received to his use by the person to whom the same shall have been paid

Section 22 Appeal Any time within three months from the filing of any interlocutory or final order or judgment by the Court any person or persons of record in the proceedings who shall have filed exceptions at any stage of the proceedings within the time and in the manner specified may appeal therefrom to the Superior or the Supreme Court as the case may be but only with respect to those questions or issues which were raised by such exceptions

The taking of an appeal shall not operate to stay the proceedings under this act except when the person or persons appealing shall have obtained a stay of the execution of the judgment or order appealed from in which event the proceedings shall be stayed only with respect to the person or persons appealing and their respective interests in the proceedings Upon the taking of an appeal the proceedings shall be deemed severed as to the person or persons appealing and their respective interests in the proceeding

Any interlocutory or final order or judgment shall be final and conclusive upon all persons affected thereby who have not appealed within the time herein prescribed

Any petitioner other than an authorized corporation may appeal without giving bond but any other person or persons appealing shall give bond with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the Court conditioned to pay all costs taxed against appellant on such appeal

Section 23 Costs If the petitioner prior to the making of the award shall have tendered to an interested person for his property or deposited in Court for such property an amount which such interested person refused to accept or agree to as just compensation all costs shall be assessed against such person in the event that the aforesaid amount tendered or deposited is equal to or in excess of the award fixed or confirmed by the Court with respect to such parcel

Section 24 Powers Supplemental The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to and not in substitution for the power conferred by any other law The power of eminent domain may be exercised hereunder notwithstanding that any other law may provide for the exercise of said power for like purposes and without regard to the requirements restrictions or procedural provisions contained in any other law

Procedure hereunder which is not prescribed herein shall be that which is otherwise prescribed by the laws of the Commonwealth

Section 25 Separability If any provision of this act or the application of such provision to any person or circumstances shall be held invalid the remainder of the act and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid shall not be affected thereby

Section 26 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1867, as follows:

An Act relating to bowling on Sunday prohibiting bowling on Sunday during certain hours and also during certain other hours unless the electors of a municipality are in favor of the same and in certain cases a license has first been secured from the municipal authorities providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors and for the enactment and repeal of licensing ordinances and resolutions in accordance therewith providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Municipality Defined The word "municipality" as used in this act shall be construed to mean and include any city borough town and township of this Commonwealth

Section 2 Penalty for Unlawful Bowling on Sunday It shall be unlawful for any person copartnership association or corporation to conduct permit stage or engage in bowling or bowling matches regardless whether a charge or admission thereto is made or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct manage stage or operate the same on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday before the hour of two o'clock post meridian

It shall be unlawful for any person copartnership association or corporation to conduct permit stage or engage in bowling or bowling matches regardless whether a charge or an admission thereto or incidental thereto is made or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct manage stage or operate the same on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday after the hour of two o'clock post meridian unless the voters in the municipality have first voted in favor of bowling on Sunday as hereinafter provided and unless the person copartnership association or corporation proposing to permit conduct or stage any such bowling or bowling matches to which an admission charge is made or is incidental shall have first have secured from the proper municipal authority of the municipality a license authorizing him her or it to conduct or stage such bowling or bowling match after said hour on Sunday

Any person copartnership association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars ($10) and in default of the payment of such fine and costs of prosecution such person or any member or agent of any copartnership or association or any officer or agent of any corporation responsible for such violation shall be imprisoned for a period of not more than five days

Section 3 Ordinances and Resolutions License Fees If at the election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five as hereinafter provided a majority of the electors in any municipality voting at said election vote in favor of bowling or bowling matches on Sunday after the hour of two o'clock post meridian then each municipality other than a township of the second class shall by ordinance and each township of the second class shall by resolution of the township supervisors provide for the licensing of bowling or bowling matches to which an admission fee is charged or is incidental on Sunday after the hour of two o'clock post meridian If the vote of the electors in the municipality was not in favor of bowling or bowling matches then no ordinance or resolution providing for the licensing of bowling or bowling matches shall be enacted or adopted

The license fees to be charged under any such ordinance or resolution for any bowling or bowling match to which an admission is charged or is incidental shall not exceed two dollars

All license fees collected under the provisions of any such ordinance or resolution shall be paid into the treasury of the municipality

Section 4 Referendum Statement of Question on Ballots At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five there shall be submitted in the manner provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth a question to determine the will of the electors of each municipality in this Commonwealth with respect to bowling or bowling matches on Sunday Such question shall be in the following form

Do you favor the conduct staging and conducting of bowling or bowling matches regardless of whether an admission charge is made or incidental thereto or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct stage or operate the same after the hour of two post meridian on Sunday	Yes	✓
	No

The said question shall be printed on separate official ballots in bound form by the county commissioners of each county and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers in each election district of the county so that one ballot may be supplied to each voter at such election In districts where voting machines are used such question shall appear on the face of the machine where the machine is properly equipped for such purposes

Section 5 Returns and Computation of Votes The votes cast on such question shall be counted by the election officers and returns thereof made by them and by election officers where voting machines are used to the prothonotary of the county who shall lay the same before the return board for computation at the same time and in the same manner as other returns The return board shall compute the said returns by municipalities and certify the results of the vote cast on the question to the legislative body of each municipality within the county

Such election shall be governed by the election laws of the Commonwealth and all penalties provided by said laws shall apply to such elections

Section 6 Future Referendums In any municipality the will of the electors with respect to bowling or bowling matches on Sunday may after the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five but not oftener than once in three years be ascertained and the question as provided in this act shall be submitted to the electors of any municipality upon demand in writing of petitioners equal to at least five per centum of the highest vote cast for any office in the municipality at the last preceding general or municipal election Such petition shall be filed with the corporate authorities at least sixty days before the day of any general or municipal election at which the question is to be submitted and if the petition is sufficiently signed shall thereupon be certified to the county commissioners who shall cause such question to be submitted in the same manner as is provided in this act for the election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

If a majority of the electors voting in any municipality which licenses bowling or bowling matches to which an admission charge is made or is incidental are not in favor of such licensing then the ordinance or resolution licensing such bowling or bowling matches shall be repealed but if a majority of the electors in any such municipality which does not license bowling or bowling matches are in favor of such licensing then an ordinance or resolution shall be enacted or adopted licensing bowling or bowling matches to which an admission charge is made or is incidental as provided in this act

Section 7 Intent of Act It is the intent of this act to provide a method whereby the will of the electors of each municipaliy with respect to bowling or bowling matches on Sunday after the hour of two o'clock post meridian may be ascertained and it shall be the duty of the legislative body of each municipality to enact adopt or repeal any ordinance or resolution in accordance with the will of the electors as ascertained at said elections In case of a failure so to do the duty herein imposed upon the legislative body of any municipality may be enforced by mandamus

Section 8 Repeal Section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four (Three Smith Laws one hundred seventy-seven) entitled "An act for the prevention of vice and immorality and of unlawful gaming and to restrain disorderly sports and dissipation" be and the same is hereby repealed in so far as it prohibits bowling and bowling matches on Sunday

Section 9 Constitutionality The provisions of this act are severable and if any of the provisions hereof are held to be unconstitutional the decision shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included herein

Section 10 Effective Date This act shall be effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 2709, Printer's No. 1053, entitled:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 237

Mr. LINDERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 237, Printer's No. 1082, entitled:

An Act to provide unemployment relief in the present emergency provide for funds for old age assistance providing for and legalizing lotteries to raise approximately one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) for such purpose creating a committee to conduct such lotteries conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers departments and agencies making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the old age assistance and prescribing the powers and duties of the board with reference thereto.

on page 29 of today's calendar, was defeated on third reading and final passage be reconsidered.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Linderman, vote on the final passage of the bill.

Mr. LINDERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Phillips, vote on the final passage of the bill?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the negative.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the object of reconsideration is to amend the bill to meet the objections of quite a number of members.

On the question, recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for and eighty-nine members having voted in the affirmative and thirty-seven members in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 5 of title, by inserting after the word "lotteries" the following: "in case the electors of this Commonwealth at a referendum vote in favor of such lotteries."

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 3, by inserting after the word "assistance" the following: "No such lottery shall, however, be conducted unless the electors of this Commonwealth vote in favor thereof in order to raise funds for old age assistance, as provided in this act."

Amend bill, page 9, by inserting after line 5 the following: "Section 21. No old age assistance committee shall be appointed under this act, and no lottery shall be conducted under the provisions of this act, unless, at the municipal election in the year, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, the electors of this Commonwealth shall vote in favor of conducting such lotteries for the purposes of providing funds for old age assistance. At said municipal election in the year, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, there shall be submitted to the electors of this Commonwealth the following question."

Do you favor the conducting of lotteries in this State for the purpose of providing funds for old age assistance?	Yes
	No

The said question shall be printed on separate official ballots in bound form by the county commissioners of each county, and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers in each election district of each county, so that one ballot may be supplied to each voter at such election. In districts where voting machines are used, such question shall appear on the face of the machine where the machine is properly equipped for such purpose.

Section 22. The votes cast on such question shall be counted by the election officers and returns thereof made by them and by election officers where voting machines are used to the prothonotary of the county, who shall lay the same before the return board for computation at the same time and in the same manner as other returns. The return board shall compute the said returns and certify the result of the vote cast on the question to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, who shall compute the returns for the entire Commonwealth.

If by the returns it appears that the votes cast on such question in the entire Commonwealth shall be in favor of conducting lotteries for the purpose of providing funds for old age assistance, then the old age assistance relief committee provided for in sections one, two and three of this act shall be constituted as therein provided. But if it appears by the returns of said election that the voters of this Commonwealth voting at said election have voted against the conducting of lotteries to provide funds for old age assistance, then no such old age assistance relief committee shall be created.

Amend Sec. 21, page 9, line 7, by inserting after the word "legal" the following: "if the electors of the Commonwealth have voted in favor of lotteries as in this act provided"

Amend Sec. 23, page 9, line 18, by striking out the figure "23" and inserting in lieu thereof: "25"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

HOUSE BILL NO. 237 MADE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be made a special order of business on final passage on Monday, June 17, 1935, at 10:00 p. m.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2413, Printer's No. 1155, on page 23, of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. AUKERMAN.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2413, entitled:

An Act creating the Pennsylvania Rural Electrification Authority for the purpose of promoting and encouraging the fullest possible use of electric energy in the Commonwealth by making electric energy available to certain inhabitants of the Commonwealth at the lowest cost consistent with sound economy and prudent management authorizing the authority to sell and distribute electric energy and to construct or otherwise acquire a system or systems for the generation transmission and distribution of electric energy to carry out the purposes of this act providing for the rights powers and duties of the authority authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by the authority and providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as one of those who lives in a country district, who might be greatly benefited along with my neighbors and friends by a governmental effort to extend a transmission and distribution system of electric lines of this Commonwealth, I want to call the attention of this House to the fact that this bill called a rural electrification bill might as well bear the title "Rural Deception Bill," for the reason that while the title contains the word "rural" there is nothing in the bill that restricts the area or the nature of the electric business to which this corporation might devote its funds.

Let us first analyze the bill before us. As I have said there is nothing to restrict it to the rural sections. It purports to be a bill to help out the farmers. If it were a bill to help the farmers of Pennsylvania to gain the benefits of electricity, I would be friendly to the bill. However, this bill is nothing but the establishment of a gigantic governmentally owned and governmentally controlled power business in the state of Pennsylvania.

I would like to call attention to some of the features of the bill, which I consider very bad, whether contained in this bill or any other bill. There is a board of three men set up to run this corporation. Those three men are selected by the Governor; they are not selected by anyone else, either the investors or the consumers. No one has any right or authority to dismiss those persons.

On page six, line one, of the bill, I would like to have any members of the House who are interested in the matter turn to the bill for confirmation of my statements. On page six, line one, the opinion of the board is the only test of where electric service is available at reasonable rates. Reasonable rates are only supposed to yield a six per cent return at the present time on this property and yet this authority is to be financed entirely by the issuance of bonds, which bonds, you will find in the bill itself, may bear an interest rate of as high as six per cent.

I call your attention to the fact that on page three, lines sixteen and seventeen, establishing this corporation to exist perpetually at a time when general sentiment and most laws are in favor of limiting franchises of all kinds to a term of years. This bill will give that corporation perpetual rights not only in one place but throughout Pennsylvania. Other corporations must incorporate in all townships in which they do business. That has been the greatest handicap to the extension of the electric business. It is the reason why the little town in which I live at the present time does not have electric service, and yet we restrict, on the one hand, all companies financing themselves, but here we would enter into a proposal to put the Commonwealth in competition with them in a very unfair manner.

I call your attention to the fact that the generation of power is in the title of the bill and nowhere else, but do not be fooled that this is merely an extension of rural electric service, because this bill gives this authority the right to build generating plants as well as transmission lines anywhere in the Commonwealth.

These bonds, members of the House, I am sorry to say are a swindle, beside which the bonds issued by Public Utility Companies, which have not panned out very well, would be what might be called a mild deception. Neither the Commonwealth nor the Federal Government will in any way guarantee them. The bill specifically states that they shall not do so.

Let me call your attention to another defect. These bondholders who have financed this company have absolutely nothing to say as to how this company is to be run, what rates are to be charged, what becomes of the company's property.

Page ten, section fifteen, of the law says that no appropriations are to be required from the Commonwealth. Again the bills says that no revenue is to be earned for the Commonwealth. That is surely a hairline legislation.

Supposing this authority loses money then who must pay? Obviously the bondholders who are financing it and yet they are given no say about the control of the corporation, which is being run with their money.

Again, on page 9 line 3, these six per cent bonds may be issued for either money or property at public or private sale and the value as determined by this board of three appointed men is conclusive. If this does not open wide the gate for graft then no gate for graft ever was opened. Can you imagine setting up a corporation of this size under the control of three unpaid directors, the investors in which have nothing to say about its operation, the Commonwealth has covenanted to keep its hands off; they can bond this corporation and they can pay whatever they please for property at either public or private sale and the conclusions of that board are final?

On page 6, lines 25 to 28 this matter is repeated, thereby proving conclusively that it is no oversight and the bill was drafted in that fashion.

On page 9, lines 22 to 25, the validity of these bonds can not be challenged because of irregularities of any proceedings in acquiring or improving a system. This is certainly a matter that should be looked into by the sponsors of the bill and by this House of Representatives, as to whether or not we are going to foster a corporation of this kind which can issue bonds of this character and which cannot be looked into for irregularities. And, mark you, the bill is full of opportunities for such irregularities.

Section five, page three, the Governor appoints three directors who manage this power corporation, and yet, members of the House, they get no salary. We say to them, "Thine be the kingdom, the power and the glory, but absolutely no salary." It is a matter of general acceptance among private business operators when you want talent, when you want integrity, when you want men of ability, you should pay them what they are worth.

In the first flush of enthusiasm over a thing of this sort, no doubt the Governor might appoint three men of ability, who might be willing to serve for nothing, and yet what happens in the long run with this sort of thing? In the first flush of enthusiasm, you get men who are zealous but may have very little judgment, and then in the second stage you get men who will say, "Yes, we get no salary, and yet we buy ten million dollars worth of copper a year and that proposition of our getting no compensation is not going to be worked on us." It is inconceivable that we should set up a corporation of this size for any good purpose and put the entire authority in the hands of three men, and yet state specifically that those three men shall receive nothing whatever.

Let me call your attention to another thing, on page ten, line sixteen, a consumer of this electricity has nothing to say about what this electricity will cost him, and he can have, no matter how much money this corporation spends or how foolishly they do it, no matter how much property they acquire at private sales or what price they pay for it, the rate they charge must be sufficient at all times to pay six per cent and expenses. The bill specifically states that the rate shall be sufficient even to pay for any lawsuits they get into, whether they are justified or not.

Let me call your attention to the fact that the Legislature surrender its powers. Read page eleven, section seventeen, lines one to fifteen. I would like to read to you those lines from the bill itself, in order that there be no mistake, or the possibility of my misreading a typewritten copy. Section seventeen reads as follows:

"Agreement of the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth does pledge to and agree with the holders of bonds issued by the authority that the state will not limit or alter the rights and powers hereby vested in the authority to fix and collect such rates fees and charges as may be necessary or advisable in order to produce sufficient revenue to meet all expenses of maintenance and operation of its system or systems and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders of such bonds until such bonds together with interest thereon and interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any suits actions or proceedings."

Now, fellow members of the Legislature, we have been devoting a great deal of the time that we have spent here since January in regulating and preventing private utilities from making excessive charges to the citizens of this Commonwealth, are you going to sit here and vote for a bill, which surrenders permanently your right to in any way regulate the charges of this government-owned public utility corporation? That is certainly a restriction which should be stricken out of any bill, which sensible men devoted to the public welfare should never pass.

Then, on page six, section eleven, lines three to six it reads as follows: "authority is hereby vested with all powers necessary or requisite for the accomplishment of its corporate purpose and capable of being delegated by the Legislature." This is certainly a very broad provision for us to be voting into law at a time when the Supreme Court has just held the NRA unconstitutional on the very ground that Congrees had delegated entirely too much power to the executive branch. I wish you would mark down page six, section eleven, lines three to six, and say whether or not you are willing this evening to permanently vest in that authority all the powers capable of being delegated by the Legislature. It is a very broad authority, members of the House.

I will turn to another page of this bill. It is certainly unfair competition. It uses the income of Pennsylvania electric companies acquired by the Federal government through the income tax to place this State in direct competition with that industry which is helping to pay the bill. We have restricted private industry further at the same time that we are extending to this public corporation great, unusual and I believe illegal powers.

At the present time I honestly believe that the depression is over. There are millions of dollars crowding our banks, awaiting private investment. This money waits alone the return of confidence, the protection of the government.

I am not going to bore this audience this evening with reading a lot of statistics. However, I will ask the permission of the Speaker to incorporate in the record the statistics contained in the United States News with regard to the replacement of private industry by government funds in fields which have primarily been occupied by private money.

I am not ging on with further criticism of the bill, because any of the defects that I have pointed out to you are sufficient to justify the defeat of this bill.

I do wish to call your attention, however, to one particular fact and that is this, that just because many of us believe the Wall Street financiers have deprived the ordinary investor in utility securities of perhaps fifty cents out of every dollar that they thought they had invested, let us not overlook the fact that millions and millions of our people by direct investment or through life insurance companies or through other funds they have saved up to provide for their old age, millions of those dollars have been invested in private utilities. Just because they have already lost fifty cents out of every dollar they had does not justify us or any other government in ruining the remaining fifty.

I request the members of this House to vote down this bill because it does not perform the purpose for which it is intended and in many other respects which I have pointed out, is a very bad measure.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to offer these statistics for the Legislative Journal. I do not want to take up the time of the members in reading them.

The SPEAKER. The statistics will be noted in the Journal and printed in the appendix to the Legislative Journal.

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, at the offset of my brief remarks I just want to state that any movement for further rural electrification is always met with a similar onslaught such as we have just heard.

Briefly, the reason for the introduction of this bill has been due to the fact that the Federal Government recently made an appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars for the primary purpose of rural electrification. In order that Pennsylvania may take advantage of this appropriation we have introduced this bill.

Under the federal grant, the grant provides that rural electrification, can be extended under any of four auspices:

1. Through private companies with or without financial aid from the government. These companies already have given assurances of interest and active and willing cooperation.

2. By State rural electrification authorities or political sub-divisions of the state, such as power districts and municipalities.

3. Through farm cooperatives or non-profit organizations; or

4. Under strictly Federal auspices.

Now, we already know that the private companies have been negligent in assisting in the expansion of rural electrification. In most cases costs are so great that the farmer cannot afford to avail himself of this wonderful advantage.

Mr. Kane in his remarks stated that there was no restriction to rural districts. I would state that the primary purpose of this bill is to extend electrification to those districts which are now not adequately supplied or in which districts the cost is so great as to make it almost out of the question for the farmers or for the people in that district to avail themselves of this opportunity.

There is no question in our minds as to the fact that the urban communities are very well supplied with electricity, and therefore automatically I think this will be confined to the rural districts.

Mr. Kane mentioned the fact that the state was entering into unfair competition with private companies. I wish to state that the intention of the bill is that the authority will buy power from private companies wherever possible or wherever it can be obtained at reasonable rates. Where it cannot, of course, other means may be resorted to supply this power.

As I stated before, private companies have already had the opportunity but have failed to take advantage of it.

One more thing in my remarks, I want to call to the attention of Mr. Kane and the members of the House to the right of the bondholder as stated on page 12, section 19, which states: "Rights and Remedies of Bondholders. In addition to all other rights and all other remedies, any holders of bonds of the authority including a trustee for bondholders, shall have the right by mandamus or other suit action or proceeding at law or in equity to enforce his rights against the authority, and the board of the authority including the right to require the authority and such board to fix and collect rates and charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to or pledge of the revenues produced by such rates or charges and to require the authority and such board to carry out any other covenants and agreements with such bondholder and to perform its and their duties under this act."

I think that provision adequately takes care of the bondholders.

In conclusion I would like to read a short communication from the Rural Electrification Administration in Washington, addressed to:

Mr. Alexander Fleisher (Consultant-Director, State Planning Board)
928 North Third Street
Harrisburg, Penna.

Dear Mr. Fleisher:

Mr. Morris L. Cooke has asked me to make reply to your letter of June 5, 1935, in which you enclosed copy of a statement of the Pennsylvania Joint Committee on Rural Electrification in opposition to certain bills presented to the Pennsylvania State Legislature

The Bills Nos. 2411, 2413, 2415 and 2682 incorporate enabling provisions in state law which tend to facilitate the program in which the federal government is interested. None of these bills are open to the rather sweeping generalizations of the statement issued by the Pennsylvania Joint Committee. Considering these in detail the following statements are pertinent:

(1) There is obviously no abrogation of the sovereign rights of the State of Pennsylvania. Each act is an appropriate exercise of the power of the State Legislature under the state constitution. The corporations authorized derive their authority from the state and have as their sole purpose the furnishing of service to the citizens of Pennsylvania.

(2) None of these bills contravene the constitutional provisions relative to the creation of public debt. The municipal bodies authorized have no power of taxation and the retirement of indebtedness is limited to revenue produced by the lines.

(3) The power of eminent domain and the right to use highways are rights which are common and essential to all public service enterprises and now enjoyed on a large scale by many private corporations for profit.

(4) The intimation that these bills are blackmailing measures and designed to embarrass the operations of existing private utilities does not seem to merit any extended answer. The sole purpose of this type of legislation is to serve territory which the existing utilities have not been interested in serving. Not only is there an absence of competition with such companies, but this program ultimately will tend to improve and increase their load by reason of contemplated purchase of power from existing high lines.

(5) The statement that these bills instead of increasing employment will result in "the ultimate discharge of thousands of employees of the existing companies" is such extreme distortion of the situation as to contain its own answer. Existing companies still have the right to employ their capital and their construction force upon all the lines which they are willing to build.

(6) The intimation that this whole program of rural electrification in which the federal government is now interested is one of antagonism to existing companies is simply a complete misstatement of the fact. The Rural Electrification Administration is interested only in the widest possible extension of electric service in rural areas by any means available that are consistent with reasonable assurances of self liquidation. Continued extensions by private companies will of course be greatly desired. The present program in which the federal government is interested has as its sole purpose that of facilitating such extensions in areas which probably would not otherwise be served. I do not feel that it is necessary to take seriously the statement of the Pennsylvania Joint Committee that "the destruction of the existing privately owned electric utility companies is the ultimate purpose of the program." I do not believe that this Committee would make such a statement at this time in the light of a more intelligent understanding which I think they have of the purposes which we have in view.

Very truly yours,

THE RURAL ELECTRIFICATION ADMINISTRATION
(S) Vincent D. Nicholson
General Counsel

Summing up my remarks I just wish to impress upon you that by availing ourselves of the federal grant, which will undoubtedly be given to Pennsylvania under the Federal Appropriation for that purpose, that by creating such a Rural Electrification Authority has the best and most adequate assurance of extension of Rural Electrification in this State, and on these grounds I ask you to support this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to state that it is very important that the appropriation bills on the calendar be passed tonight. For that reason the Chair will take up the third reading calendar, and lay before the first eight bills thereon, which are appropriation bills and then, if it is agreeable to the House, adjourn.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1913, entitled:

An Act to promote the general welfare by establishing a State Employment Authority to investigate causes of unemployment and provide productive work in factories and mines for the unemployed the products of which shall be distributed under the supervision of the Authority to the unemployed and needy persons to cooperate with existing Federal and State agencies to relieve unemployment in the distribution of products and necessities to persons in need and in distress imposing a penalty and making an appropriation.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 2 In addition to the appropriation made by section one of this act the sum of two million eighty thousand five hundred fifty-one dollars and sixty-seven cents ($2,080,551.67) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Department of Welfare for the two fiscal years beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five to be by it paid to the hospitals designated in section one of this act for the purpose of the maintenance of such hospitals in the manner prescribed by law (except as hereinafter otherwise provided) at the rate of three dollars ($3.00) per diem for the medical and surgical services rendered to and maintenance of persons treated in such hospitals during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five who were entitled to free service and for each day of part pay service such proportion of the three dollars ($3.00) per diem rate as the part of the regular charge which the person treated was not able to pay bears to the regular ward charge for free service except that no hospital shall receive compensation at a rate exceeding the actual cost of service per capita in its public ward

Of the sum herein appropriated so much thereof shall be payable to each respective hospital as represents the obligated balance of the maintenance appropriation made to such hospital by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-three for the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which remained unexpended on May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund The amount payable to any hospital from this appropriation shall be determined by the Department of Welfare with the approval of the Governor

Any law to the contrary notwithstanding amounts payable to hospitals out of this appropriation shall be paid as promptly after the effective date of this act as the revenues of the General Fund will permit and for this purpose payments from this appropriation shall take precedence over payments from the appropriation made by section one of this act

Section 3 Notwithstanding the provisions of section one of this act no part of the appropriation made to the Deparment of Welfare thereunder shall be paid to any hospital therein named if such hospital is a denominational or sectarian institution or corporation or association

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill represents the study of the Committee on Appropriations for appropriations to state-aided hospitals.

Sometime ago there was laid upon the members' desks a study of the Appropriation Committee which I think drew important and informative facts to the attention of the membership of this House.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that a copy of that study be printed in the appendix of the Legislative Journal.

The SPEAKER. The "Summary of a study of State aid to private hospitals" will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Appendix to the Legislative Journal.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TROUT. I would like to ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, whether the appropriation bill now before the House is that for State Teachers Colleges?

Mr. COHEN. No, Mr. Speaker, it is not. It is for State-aided hospitals.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

(d) Buildings may be erected or constructed or alterations or additions made wholly or partially by the labor of employes or inmates or patients of State institutions, if, in the judgment of the agency responsible for the management of such institutions and of the Department of Property and Supplies the work can be properly and safely done by such employes inmates or patients In such cases the Department of Property and Supplies [or such agency of the State Government] or outside supervising engineer or engineering concern as it may approve shall have full of the work and [in all cases the Department of Property and Supplies shall have the right to inspect and generally supervise the work] the department board or commission using or intending to use the building shall have complete charge of such employes inmates or patients."

Amend section 1, page 9 by inserting between lines 16 and 17 the following sections:

"Section 1304. Professional Educational and Licensure.—The Department of Public Instruction shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To determine, value, standardize, and regulate the preliminary education, both secondary and collegiate, of those to be hereafter admitted to the practice of medicine, dentistry, and pharmacy in this Commonwealth;

(b) To prepare and distribute circulars of information;

(c) To prepare uniform blank forms;

(d) To hold examinations, at suitable times and places to be designated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, for the determination of the fitness of applicants unable to present satisfactory certificates, and to issue certificates to those found proficient;

(e) To establish reciprocity with other States as regards preliminary education and professional licenses;

(f) To determine and publish a standard high school course, to compile, cause to be published, from time to time, a list of elementary and secondary schools in this state, which conform to the official standards promulgated by the department, and take such steps as may be appropriate to raise the standard of elementary and secondary education: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to conflict with the provisions of the statutes of this Commonwealth regulating the practice of medicine, dentistry, or pharmacy respectively;

(g) To keep the records of all of the professional examining boards established in the department;

(h) To issue all certificates and other official documents of the various professional examining boards in the department: Provided, however, That the officers and members, or any of them, of any such examining board, may also sign such certificates and other documents, if such board shall have taken action authorizing such signatures;

(i) To assist any professional examining board within the department, if, as and when, requested by such board;

(j) To cooperate with the several professions whose examining bodies are within the department, in the determination and establishment of standards of professional education;

(k) Whenever under any act of Assembly, enacted at the session of the General Assembly at which this act was passed, or at any subsequent session of the General Assembly, the right to practice any profession, or work at any trade or occupation, shall be conditioned upon examination, licensure, or registration, to hold such examinations, make such investigations, require such information, and do and perform all other acts which may be necessary to determine whether applicants for licensure or registration are qualified to practice the profession or work at the trade or occupation within this Commonwealth, and, in proper cases, to issue licenses and certificates of registration. In performing its duties under this clause, the department shall appoint an advisory committee of not more than five members, of each profession, trade ,or occupation, applicants to practice or work at which are examined and licensed hereunder. Each such committee shall assist the department in holding examinations, and passing upon information submitted. In cases in which there is a State association of the profession, trade, or occupation for which an advisory committee is to be selected hereunder, such State association may submit to the department, from time to time, a list of ten names of persons qualified for appointment on such committee and the department's selection of a committee, or of persons to fill vacancies thereon, shall be made from the names submitted. Members of every advisory committee, appointed by the department under the authority hereby conferred, shall serve at the pleasure of the department, and shall be compensated at the rate of fifteen dollars per diem for each day of services rendered to the department, and shall receive the expenses actually incurred by them while engaged in assisting the department, as herein provided, the payment of such expenses, however, to be subject to the rules and regulations of the Executive Board;

(l) To enforce the provisions of the several acts relating to the occupations and professions administered by the department and the professional examining boards within the department.

Section 1311. Boards of Trustees of State Institutions Within the Department.—The boards of trustees of the several State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges, the Board of Trustees of the Cheyney Training School for Teachers, the Board of Trustees of Pennsylvania State Oral School for the Deaf, [the Board of Trustees of Home for Training in Speech of Deaf Children,] the Board of Trustees of Pennsylvania Soldiers' Orphan School, and the Board of Trustees of Thaddeus Stevens Industrial School, shall have general direction and control of the property and management of their respective institutions. Each of the said boards of trustees shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) Subject to the approval of the Governor, to elect a president, principal, or superintendent, of the institution, who shall, subject to the authority of the board, administer the institution, and, if deemed advisable, a business manager;

(b) On nomination by the president, principal, or superintendent, from time to time, to appoint such officers and employes as may be necessary;

(c) To fix the salaries of its employes in conformity with the standards established by the Executive Board;

(d) Subject to the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, to make such by-laws, rules, and regulationslations for the management of the institution as it may deem advisable."

Amend Section 1, page 23 by inserting between lines 2 and 3 the following section:

"Section 2402. Grounds, Building and Monuments in General.—The Department of Property and Supplies shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) Subject to the powers by this act vested in the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings, to control and supervise the State Capitol Building, and the public grounds and buildings connected with the State Capitol, including the State Arsenal and the Executive Mansion, and to make, or supervise the making, of all repairs, alterations, and improvements, in and about such grounds and buildings, including the furnishing and refurnishing of the same, and also to have general supervision over repairs, alterations, and improvements to all other buildings, lands, and property of the State, except as in this act otherwise provided;

(b) To employ such captains, sergeants of police, and police officers, as may be necessary to preserve good order in the Capitol grounds and buildings, and fix their compensation: Provided, however, That the number and compensation of such captains, sergeants and officers shall be subject to the approval of the Governor. Such captains, sergeants and officers shall be known as the Capitol Police.

(c) To employ such help as may be reasonably necessary for the cleaning, care, and preservation of the Capitol grounds and buildings, and the furnishings therein, for operating the mechanical plants in the Capitol buildings and the Executive Mansion, and for service at the Executive Mansion;

(d) To contract in writing for and rent proper and adequate offices, rooms, or other accommodations, outside of the Capitol buildings, for any department, board, or commission, which cannot be properly and adequately accommodated with offices, rooms, and accommodations in the Capitol buildings; and, in all cases in which the head of a department, for such department or for a departmental administrative board or commission within such department, or an independent administrative board or commission, with the approval of the Executive Board, has established or is about to establish a branch office in any city or place outside of the capital city, with the approval of the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings, to contract in writing for and rent such offices, rooms, and other accommodations, as shall be proper and adequate for such department, board, or commission. The department shall rent such garages or contract for such garage space as may be necessary for the accommodation of State-owned automobiles, either in or outside of the capital city, at such rentals or rates as it shall deem reasonable. The department may also, if the General Assembly shall have appropriated funds therefore, lease any lands which may be necessary for use by any department, board, or commission in the exercise of its powers or the performance of its duties. It shall be unlawful for any other department, board, commission, or agency of the State Government to enter into any leases, but the Department of Property and Supplies shall act only as agent in executing leases for departments, boards, and commissions, the expenses of which are paid wholly or mainly out of special funds, and, in such cases, the rentals shall be paid out of such special funds.

(e) To employ and, with the approval of the Governor, fix the compensation of such capable superintendents of construction, engineers, or inspectors as may be necessary properly to supervise building, repairing, altering, adding to, or improving State buildings, in cases in which the work is not being done directly by or under contract with the Department of Property and Supplies. Such superintendents, engineers, or inspectors shall see that the plans and specifications prepared and adopted for such new buildings or for repairs, alterations, additions, or improvements to existing buildings, shall be faithfully carried out, and shall, subject to appeal to and final decision by the head of the department, define, determine, and decide all questions of the proper interpretation of the plans and specifications which may be raised during the progress of the work.

(f) Out of funds appropriated to the department therefor, to purchase or condemn land, with or without buildings thereon, for the purpose of adding the same to any of the public lands or parks, or for use as sites for or in connection with arsenals, armories, military reservations, intermediate landing fields, hospitals, normal schools, teachers' colleges, penal or correctional institutions, or other institutions of the Commonwealth, whenever, in the judgment of the Governor, the purchase or condemnation of such land is necessary, or whenever such purchase or condemnation shall have been authorized by law, and an appropriation shall have been made therefor. The condemnation of land hereunder shall be in the manner provided by the act approved the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred seventy-six), entitled "An act to authorize the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings to acquire property for the Commonwealth by proceedings in eminent domain, where the purchase of such property has either been authorized by law, or determined by the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings under existing laws, and an appropriation made therefor," its amendments and supplements. Except as otherwise in this act expressly provided, no other department, board, or commission of the State Government shall hereafter exercise the right of eminent domain for any of the purposes aforesaid, any other act of assembly heretofore enacted to the contrary notwithstanding.

(g) To erect or supervise the erection of all monuments which may now or hereafter be authorized by law, and to maintain and care for all monuments belonging to the Commonwealth which may now or hereafter be erected: Provided, That with regard to any monument which comes within the jurisdiction of an advisory board in the Department of Property and Supplies, the exercise of the powers hereby vested in the department shall be subject to approval or disapproval by such advisory board;

(h) Whenever loss or damage by fire or other casualty shall occur to any structure, building, equipment, or other property owned by the Commonwealth, and be reported to the department, to make an examination thereof, and, in its discretion, subject only to the approval of the Governor, to rebuild, restore, or replace the property damaged or destroyed, and, for that purpose, to have plans and specifications prepared and contracts executed, and to supervise the erection, construction, or replacement thereof, such rebuilding, restoration, or replacement to be in substantial accord with the original character, use, and purpose of the property damaged or destroyed. The cost of the materials furnished, and work and labor performed, under such contracts, shall be certified by the department to the Auditor General, who shall issue his warrant against the Insurance Fund of this Commonwealth, which warrant shall be paid by the State Treasurer, in the manner provided by law: Provided, That whenever the department shall have taken such action as will involve expenditures from said fund, it shall forthwith certify the probable amount of expenditure to the State Treasurer, who shall forthwith take such action as is necessary to provide funds sufficient to meet the obligations so entered into.

(i) To rent to individuals, firms, or corporations, such real estate, owned by the Commonwealth, as is not being used in connection with the work of any department, board, or commission thereof, upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of Property and Supplies may prescribe, with the approval of the Governor in writing: Provided, however, That no lease executed under the authority hereby conferred shall be for a longer term than one year and so on from year to year.

(j) From time to time, to rent to persons, associations, or corporations, upon such terms as shall be approved by the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings, the auditorium in the South Office Building, Number Two, when it shall not be required for the Commonwealth's use.

(k) To establish standards for the operation of all mechanical and electrical equipment used in connection with the operation of any State institution or other State building."

Amend Section 1, page 34, by inserting between lines 25 and 26, the following section:

"Section 2408. Procedure for Erection of Buildings and Alterations or Additions to Existing Buildings.—Whenever the General Assembly shall have appropriated money to the Department of Property and Supplies, or to any administrative board or commission, for the erection of new buildings, or sewage or filtration plants, other service systems, or athletic fields, or other structures, or for alterations or additions, or repairs to existing buildings, or to such plants, systems, fields, or structures, to cost more than [ten thousand dollars ($10,000)] one thousand dollars ($1,000), the following procedure shall apply, unless the work is to be done by State employes, or by inmates or patients of a State institution or State institutions, or unless the department, board, or commission to which the General Assembly has appropriated money for the foregoing purposes is, by this act or by the act making the appropriation, authorized to erect, alter, or enlarge buildings independently of the Department of Property and Supplies, or under a different procedure:

(a) If the appropriation is to a department other than the Department of Property and Supplies, or to a board or commission, such department, board, or commission shall notify the Department of Property and Supplies as soon as it is ready, to have plans and specifications for the work prepared;

(b)Promptly after such notice, in such cases, or promptly after any appropriation made to it becomes available, the Department of Property and Supplies shall select an architect and, if necessary, an engineer, or both, to design the work, and prepare the specifications therefor, but in the case of building to be done for the use of any other department, or any board or commission (unless the building is on the Capitol grounds), the selection of the architect and engineer, if any, shall be subject to approval by such department, board, or commission, and, in case of departmental administrative boards or commissions, by the departments with which such boards or commissions are respectively connected. Any architect or engineer, so selected and approved shall submit promptly the name or names of his associate architect or engineers to the Department of Property and Supplies for its approval;

(c) The Department of Property and Supplies shall enter into a contract with the architect [and] or engineer [if any] which shall provide a date for the completion of the plans and specifications, and that the plans and specifications must meet with the approval of the department, board or commission for which the building is being erected, altered, or enlarged (unless the building is on the Capitol grounds), and, in the case of departmental administrative boards or commissions, of the departments with nected, to the extent of the type and general character of which such boards or commissions are respectively conthe building, the floor layouts, radiation, natural light, artificial illumination, ventilation, medical equipment or other equipment of a nature peculiar to the building for which the plans and specifications are being prepared, that the plans, drawings and specifications must be approved by the Department of Property and Supplies, that the exterior design of the building must be approved by the State Art Commission, and that the plans and specifications must be approved by the Department of Labor and Industry and the Department of Health, to the extent to which those departments, respectively, have jurisdiction to require the submission to them for approval of certain features of the buildings. Such architect [and] or engineer [if any,] in preparing plans and specifications, shall consult with the department, board, or commission for which the building is to be erected, altered or enlarged [(unless the building is on the Capitol grounds)], but the Department of Property and Supplies shall insist upon the prompt completion of the plans and specifications, within the time prescribed in the architect's [and] or engineer's contracts, unless it shall agree to an extension thereof.

Every department, board, or commission, whose approval of plans [or] and specifications is required hereunder, shall, within [sixty] twenty days after submission thereof by the architect, or engineer, approve or disapprove all sketches, drawings, specifications, and other documents, and shall inform the architect or engineer of decisions in such reasonable time as not to delay him in his work.

(d) Upon the completion of the plans and specifications, and their approval by all necessary State agencies, the Department of Property and Supplies shall invite proposals, by advertisements inserted at least three times in not less than six or more than twelve newspapers or large general circulation in different parts of the Commonwealth. The first and last publications of any such advertisement shall be at least ten days apart, and the department shall not advertise hereunder in more than three newspapers in the same county.

(e) The department may invite proposals, either for completely erecting, altering, or adding to any building, or separately for parts of the work, and, if so, for what parts, shall rest within the sole discretion of the department.

(f) All proposals shall be accompanied by certificate or bank checks, in such amounts or percentages of the amounts of the proposals as shall be specified in the advertisement, and shall be publicly opened and tabulated at the time and place specified in the advertisement.

(g) The department shall, as soon as practicable, award the contracts to the lowest responsible qualified bidder, but it shall have the right to reject any or all bids, to waive technical defects and to accept or reject any part of any bid, if in the judgment of the department, the best interests of the Commonwealth shall require it.

(h) No proposal for any contract shall be considered unless accompanied by a certified or bank checks as prescribed by the department at the time of advertising. A bidder who shall have accompanied his proposal with a certified or bank check, as aforesaid, and to whom a contract shall have been awarded, must, within ten days after such award, substitute for said check a surety performance bond for not less than fifty per centum (50%) or more than one hundred per centum (100%) of the bid price of the work, as shall have been prescribed by the department in its invitation for proposals, and additional bond in a sum not less than fifty per centum (50%) and not more than one hundred per centum (100%) of the contract price of the work, as prescribed by the department in its invitation for proposals, conditioned that the contractor will promptly pay for all material furnished and labor supplied or performed in the prosecution of the work, whether or not the material or labor enter into and become component parts of the building. Such additional bond shall be held by the Department of Property and Supplies for the use of every party who, whether as subcontractor or otherwise, has furnished material or supplied or performed labor in the prosecution of the work, as above provided, and who has not been paid therefor; and, among other things, shall provide specifically that any such party may bring a suit thereon, in the name of the Commonwealth, for his their or its own use prosecute the same to final judgment for such sum or sums as may be justly due, and have execution thereon: Provided, however, That the Commonwealth shall not be liable for the payment of any costs or expenses of any such suit. Each surety bond, required hereunder, shall have as surety company authorized to transact business in this Commonwealth, or two individual sureties approved by the Department of Justice.

(i) No contract shall be valid or effective unless a certified copy thereof, detail break-down sheet of the work, and contract price of the work involved, shall have been filed in the offices of the Auditor General, the State Treasurer, and the department, board, or commission for which the work is to be done, promptly after the execution of the contract.

(j) The enforcement of all contracts provided for by this section shall be under the control and supervision of the Department of Property and Supplies. In the event that the Department of Property and Supplies and the contractor cannot agree on any of the general conditions of the contract, and on the specifications, such disagreement shall be subject to decision by the Department of Justice, and its decision shall be final.

(k) The Department of Property and Supplies shall examine all bills on account of the contracts entered into under the provisions of this section, and, if they are correct, the department shall certify that the materials have been furnished, or that the work or labor has been performed in a workmanlike manner and in accordance with the contract, approve the bills, and issue its requisition therefor, or forward its certificate to the proper department, board, or commission, as the case may be.

(l) The Department of Property and Supplies shall have the right to engage the services of any consulting or supervising engineer or engineers, whom it may deem necessary for the proper designing of or inspection or supervision of buildings erected, altered, or enlarged by the department hereunder.

(m) Changes in the plans and specifications, or both, may be made after their approval, only with the consent of all of the departments, boards and commissions whose approval of the original plans or specifications, or both, was necessary hereunder.

(n) If the appropriation is to be a department, other than the Department of Property and Supplies, or to a board or commission, the Department of Property and Supplies shall award and enter into the contract as agent for the department, board, or commission to which the appropriation was made."

RECESS

PRESENTATION TO THE SENATE OF FORMER LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR LOUIS ARTHUR WATRES

The PRESIDENT. At this point during the session the Chair desires to officially declare a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of introducing and presenting to the Senate one of Pennsylvania's outstanding citizens, a man who graced this Senate by election to its body in 1883, a man who was elected Lieutenant-Governor in 1891, and who served under the then Democratic Governor, Robert Emory Pattison.

It is with a great deal of pleasure this morning I present that individual to you, in the person of Colonel Louis Arthur Watres, of Scranton.

RESPONSE OF FORMER LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR LOUIS ARTHUR WATRES

Lieutenant-Governor Kennedy and Senators, this courtesy is certainly a surprise to me. I have had the privilege heretofore of doing just what your distinguished presiding officer has done—of introducing other people to the Senate. I am glad to be here, I am glad to see you, I am glad to say—well, I will not say the things I have in mind, because you might think I was throwing bouquets, and I am not; but I would say some fine things about the Senate. Let me tell you one fine thing which was said by another. He was one of those giants of the Senate of '83, William A. Wallace, of Clearfield, one of the biggest men in the Commonwealth. He was a Democrat, but I know a lot of good Democrats, and he was one of them.

He told me, as we sat in the Committee on Judiciary General—he said, "I have just finished a term of six years in the United States Senate, and I want to tell you," said he to me, "I enjoyed the State Senate of Pennsylvania more than I did the Senate of the United States—and I am proud of the body I am a member of," said he to me.

I thought that was a very proper tribute; and as time progressed—and I think I ought to say I was elected very young, because the calendar shows me one thing—I was elected in 1882; but as time progressed I was impressed with the truth of what Senator Wallace said, "The Senate of Pennsylvania has always—well, in speaking, perhaps, in parlance of the street—stood in a very dignified place before the people, and it stood without being hitched, so to speak."

The Senate of Pennsylvania is a fine body, and I want to congratulate this distinguished gentleman on not only his presiding over it but his presiding over it with ability, which is recognized and appreciated, whether they voted for him or not, by the people of Pennsylvania. I thank you for this courtesy which you have extended to me.

The PRESIDENT. Thank you, Colonel Watres. It is delightful to have you with us this morning.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL NO. 114.

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 114, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of Lincoln University Chester County with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

The PRESIDENT. The bill will be noted on the Calendar.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws six hundred eighty-two) entitled "An Act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" is hereby amended to include a new section to be known as four hundred and ten B (410B) to read as follows

Section 410B Uniform provisions for contracts of annuities and pure endowment contracts On and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six no annuity or pure endowment contract shall be issued or delivered in this Commonwealth by any stock or mutual life insurance company except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener unless and until a copy of the form thereof has been filed with the Insurance Commissioner and formally approved by him Except in the case of a reversionary annuity otherwise called a survivorship annuity or an annuity contracted by an employer in behalf of his employes no annuity or pure endowment contract shall be so issued or delivered in this Commonwealth unless it contains in substance the following provisions

(a) A provision that there shall be a period of grace either of thirty days or of one month within which any stipulated payment to the company falling due after the first year may be made subject at the option of the company to an interest charge thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per centum per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before such payment during which period of grace the contract shall continue in full force but in case a claim arises under the contract on account of death during the said period of grace before the overdue payment to the company or the deferred payments of the current year if any are made the amount of such payments with interest on any overdue payments may be deducted from any amount payable under the contract in settlement

(b) If statements other than those relating to age and identity are required as a condition of issuing the contract a provision that the contract shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the person or each of the persons as to whom such statements are required for a period of two years from its date of issue except where stipulated payments to the company have not been made and except for violation of the conditions of the contract relating to military or naval service in time of war and at the option of the company provisions relative to benefits in the event of total and permanent disability and provisions which grant insurance specifically against death by accident may also be excepted

(c) A provision that such contract shall constitute the entire contract between the parties but if the company desires to make the application a part of the contract it may do so provided a copy of such application shall be indorsed upon or attached to such contract when issued and in such case such contract shall contain a provision that it together with the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties

(d) A provision that if the age of the person or persons upon whose life or lives the contract is based or of any of them has been misstated the amount payable under the contract shall be such as the stipulated payments to the company would have purchased at the correct age or ages Any overpayment or overpayments by the company on account of misstatement of age shall with interest thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per centum per annum to be charged against the current or next succeeding payment or payments to be made by the company under the contract

(e) If the contract is participating a provision that the divisible surplus shall be apportioned annually and dividends shall be payable in cash or shall be applicable to any stipulated payment or payments to the company under the contract

(f) A provision that if the contract after having been in force for three full years shall by its terms lapse or become forfeited because any stipulated payment to the company shall not have been made the reserve on such contract computed according to the standard adopted by said company in accordance with section three hundred and one of this Act shall after deducting one-fifth of the said entire reserve and any indebtedness to the company under the contract be applied as a net single payment according to said standard for the purchase of a paid up annuity or pure endowment contract which may be non-participating and which shall be payable by the company under the same terms and conditions except as to amount of the original contract A company may provide in lieu of said paid up values for a paid up annuity or pure endowment contract in an amount bearing the same proportion to the original annuity or pure endowment contract as the number of stipulated payments which shall have been made to the company shall bear to the total number of stipulated payments required to be made to the company under the contract and if there be any indebtedness to the company under the contract the amount of such paid up annuity or pure endowment shall be reduced by an amount bearing the same proportion to such paid up annuity or pure endowment as such indebtedness bears to the reserve on such paid up annuity or pure endowment computed according to the standard adopted by said company in accordance with section three hundred and one of an Act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 789) as amended

(g) A provision that the contract may be reinstated to the company on the contract shall be made or paid with interest thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per centum per annum payable annually In cases where applicable a company may also include a requirement of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company

No contract for a reversionary annuity shall be so issued or delivered unless it contains in substance the following provision

(1) Provisions (a) (b) (c) and (e) of this section except that under provision (a) the company may at its option provide for an equitable reduction of the amount of the annuity payments in settlement or an overdue or deferred payments in lieu of providing for a deduction of such payments from any amount payable upon a settlement under the contract

(2) A provision that if the age of any of the persons upon whose lives the contract is based has been misstated the amount payable under the contract shall be such as the stipulated payments to the company would have purchased at the correct ages

(3) A provision that the contract may be reinstated at any time within three years from the date of default in making stipulated payments to the company upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company provided that all overdue payments and any indebtedness to the company on the contract shall be made or paid with interest thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per centum per annum payable annually

Any of the foregoing provisions or portions thereof not applicable to non-participating contracts nor to contracts for which a single stipulated payment to the company is made shall to the extent not be incorporated therein and any such contract may be issued or delivered in this Commonwealth which in the opinion of the Insurance Commissioner contains provisions on any one or more of the several foregoing requirements more favorable to the holder of the contract than hereinbefore required

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent a life insurance corporation which issues life insurance on a participating basis from issuing annuities reversionary annuities or pure endowments on a non-participating basis

Any such contract or any application endorsement or rider form used in connection therewith issued in violation of this section shall nevertheless be held valid but shall be construed as provided in this section and when any provision in such contract application endorsement or rider is in conflict with any provision of this section or with any other statutory provision the rights duties and obligations of the company of the holder of the contract and of the beneficiary or annuity thereunder shall be governed by the provisions of this section The provisions of this section shall not apply to contracts of reinsurance nor to contracts for deferred annuities or reversionary annuities included in life insurance policies

For the purposes of this section application forms rider forms and endorsement forms for use in connection with any such contract excepting riders or endorsements relating to the manner of distribution of benefits or to the reservation of rights and benefits under any such contract and used at the request of the individual holders of such contracts shall be deemed to be parts of such contracts and shall require the approval of the Insurance Commissioner No rider and no endorsement except as stated above shall be attached to or printed or stamped upon any such contract issued or delivered in this Commonwealth until the form of such rider or endorsement has been filed with the Insurance Commissioner and formally approved by him

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1492 (House Bill No. 2145), entitled:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws four hundrd three) entitled "An act relating to the form execution revocation and interpretation of will to nuncupative wills to the appointment of testamentary guardians to spendthrift trusts to forfeiture of devise or legacy in case of murder of testator to elections to take under or against wills and to the recording and registering of such elections and of decrees relative thereto and to the fees therefor"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, several of the Senators have inquired of me with respect to this bill. This bill yesterday, I think it was, or a few days ago, was very carefully considered by the Committee on Judiciary General. I presume everyone knows what the present law is with respect to charitable bequests. A charitable bequest is not valid if made within thirty days of death; and unless the signature of the testator is attested by two disinterested witnesses the bequest is likewise invalid.

This bill continues the thirty-day probation period, but strikes out the provision with respect to disinterested witnesses. There have been many appeals set aside, where it has been shown that charitable bequests are made to churches or other charitable organizations, merely because an attesting witness happens to have some slight interest in the corporation.

Personally, I believe that the bill needs no explanation, and I will not insist on explaining it if there is objection thereto.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to read a letter that I received from a judge of our Orphans Court in Philadelphia, to whom I wrote in connection with this bill. It might be of interest to the members of the Senate.

"This requirement does not achieve the purpose which is intended, namely, to prevent undue influence upon testators in favor of religious or charitable gifts. Usually, the witnesses to the will are present only at the act of signing. They have comparatively little contact with the testator and they are not in a position to prevent undue influence if it exists. If we are content to let property pass under wills generally, without attesting witnesses, there is no practical advantage in added formality when the property is going to religion or charity.

"The cases are many in which the laudable wishes of the testator have been frustrated because of the lack of witnesses or because the witness chosen had an interest which was so remote that it was forgotten. I do not believe that this provision in the Statute has ever prevented the executors of undue influence in favor of religious or charitable gifts.

"The above in answer to your letter of June 10th, sending me House Bill No. 2145, and asking me for memorandum or suggestion thereon. As requested, I return the Bill herein."

That is from a judge of our Orphans Court in Philadelphia. The judge says, "Of course, the above is only my personal opinion. I have had no opportunity to get an expression of opinion from my colleagues on this Act."

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, yes sir.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I understand, then, that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has no objection.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have no objection to the bill; I think the bill ought to be passed, because from what I gathered from the letter of this judge of the Orphans Court the present Act has prevented the transfer of property because of the thirty-day provision.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has expressed exactly, the letter from the distinguished member of the Orphans Court of Philadelphia precisely, what was in the minds of the members of the Committee on Judiciary Special. There was no question at all but that a testator may on his death bed be subject to certain influences; but that is entirely protected, because we retain the provision that a charitable bequest is void unless the testator survives the making of his will a period of thirty days. But there have been many instances where men who long before their death, and when in perfect health, have made wills in which this question arises, where the bequest is given to a charitable corporation such as a church and because the attesting witness, of high character, happened to be a trustee or other official of that church, or even a member of a church, the will is set aside. We believe that in the interest of public policy this Act as now amended will protect the public, and will carry out, as far as we reasonably should with assurance, the will of the testator.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1528, entitled:

An Act to amend section thirteen of the act approved the nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws forty-six), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to provide for the examining the licensing of osteopaths in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act" as amended; prohibiting osteopaths from using the title "Doctor" or the abbreviation "Dr." before their names without the word "Osteopath" or "Osteopathist" or the words "Osteopathic Physician" immediately following.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ARON Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to inquire of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, whether or not this bill includes optometrists.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, owing to the objections made by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, I say it does not.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to further interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does this bill include the funeral directors?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, can answer that better than I can.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1539, entitled:

An Act to further amend section twelve of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws six hundred thirty-nine) entitled "An act relating to the right to practice medicine and surgery in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and providing a Bureau of Medical Education and Licensure as a bureau of the Department of Public Instruction and means and methods whereby the right to practice medicine and surgery and any of its minor branches may be obtained and exemptions therefrom and providing for an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act and providing for revocation or suspension of licenses given by said bureau and providing penalties for violation thereof and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith" providing for the reinstatement on the record of names of practitioners the revocation or suspension of whose license has been removed.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, explain how many physicians are included to be reinstated under this Bill, and to whom this bill is intended to apply.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, this is intended to be an amendment to the old Act—simply to place their names back on the registration book, if they have at any time had their licenses revoked, and if the Board sees fit to lift that revocation. If it does, their names can be put back on; that is all. It is merely to put their names on record again.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, state whether it is possible for a practitioner whose name was stricken from the list for a criminal offense to have his name put on the list again.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, that is up to the Board. This has nothing to do with the Board; it is simply to put the name on record again. It has nothing to do with revoking the license or restoring that license. It says this: "The revocation or suspension for any other cause of the license of any person licensed to practice medicine and surgery may be removed at such time as it shall appear to the bureau to be just and proper to do so and upon any such removal of the revocation or suspension of license by the bureau the name of any such physician who had been licensed to practice medicine and surgery in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall be restored and replaced upon the record in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction by the bureau."

It is merely for that purpose; it has nothing to do with the Board in any way. This is simply to place their names back so that the Department of Public Instruction collect for every license that was ever restored.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not think a bill of this kind should be taken up at this time. I think this question should be left to the Bureau of Medical Education and Licensure. The members of this Senate should be given the chance to look into this bill more carefully. It just came in to our desks; I have been trying to get a copy of it. I do not think this bill should be passed if that is all it is intended to do. The Medical Licensing Board has that right today. There has already been placed in that Board the right to try someone who has been stricken from the list for the commission of a crime. And under those circumstances I ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, is that the only objection to the bill, that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro has?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I want to read the bill before I vote on it.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1539, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1527

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1527, entitled:

An Act defining the term "fiduciary" prescribing the nature and kind of investments which may be made by such fiduciaries validating certain investments heretofore made by such fiduciaries and repealing acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in connection with that vote, I should like to say this is one of those bills that were hurriedly introduced. It was intended to give to fiduciaries not under the jurisdiction of the Orphans Court the same rights, and to restrict them in investments the same as those that are under the jurisdiction of the Orphans Court. I am informed, however, that this bill not only does that but endorses investments heretofore made. If that is so, I think we ought to reconsider.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1527 go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ARON from the Committee on Finance re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1169 (House Bill No. 1473), entitled:

An Act imposing an income tax for school purposes on residents of Pennsylvania including fiduciaries and on income of non-residents derived from property or business in Pennsylvania defining taxable income and requiring filing of returns thereof providing for the assessment collection and lien of said tax and for the disposition of proceeds thereof providing for administration and enforcement of the act by the Department of Revenue conferring powers and imposing duties on certain persons partnerships associations corporations school districts State officers employes and departments imposing penalties and appropriating the revenues derived from said tax.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SHAPIRO from the Committee on Education reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1624, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," by limiting the amount of tax that may be levied by any school district, except in certain cases; and requiring the Commonwealth to pay the full amount of all minimum salaries and increments of all members of the teaching and supervisory staffs in all school districts.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it is the understanding that after second reading Senate Bill No. 1624, the bill just reported, will be recommitted to Committee to give the parties interested an opportunity to be heard.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McGINNIS from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 778 (House Bill No. 934), entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (P. L. 109), entitled "An act to provide for the submission of civil cases to the decision of the court and to dispense with trial by jury" providing that upon request of counsel the decision of the court in such cases shall state separately the facts found the answers to points submitted and the conclusions of law.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EALY from the Committee on Mines and Mining, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 651 (House Bill No. 1243), entitled:

An Act to amend title of and to add section three to the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifty-two) entitled "An act to protect miners in the bituminous coal regions of this Commonwealth" so as to protect miners from fraudulent deprivation of wages providing standard measurements for coal mined and prohibiting the use of other standards providing methods for the ascertainment of proper measurements and imposing penalties.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. GELDER from the Committee on Highways reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1479 (House Bill No. 2487), entitled:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, on the second reading Calendar today, there are several bills which have not come from the printer. Among them are some important bills, and one bill of particular importance, to wit: the amendments to the Workmen's Compensation law, as contained in the Batchelor bill, and I think it is very important that the Senate act on that bill on second reading. I desire to inquire of the Chair that he inform the Senate as to when these bills, the Workmen's Compensation bill in particular, are likely to come from the printer.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, just as soon as possible. The Senate will take a recess, and during that period an effort will be made to find out all we can about the bills in the hands of the printer.

HOUSE MESSAGES

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE CONSTRUCTION OF A HIGHWAY ON THE SOUTH PENN RAILROAD ROUTE THROUGH THE ALLEGHENY MOUNTAINS BETWEEN HARRISBURG AND PITTSBURGH.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on State Government:

In the House of Representatives, April 23, 1935.

Whereas, The Federal Government, in order to alleviate unemployment, is developing various useful public works; and

Whereas, The newspapers throughout the State have brought to the attention of many thousands of its citizens and to the members of this Legislature a project advanced by the State Planning Board involving the construction of a highway upon the abandoned railway grade of the South Penn Railroad through the Allegheny Mountains between Harrisburgh and Pittsburgh; and

Whereas, At the time construction was abandoned by the South Pennsylvania Railroad in 1885, nine tunnels through the mountains were approximately two-thirds completed and many miles of right of way were graded; and

Whereas, The completion of these tunnels and the construction of the intervening portions of highway, would provide the general public with a highway free from excessive grades, avoiding the dangerous storms upon the mountain tops, and upon which it would appear that at no point the highway grade would be in excess of one hundred feet to the mile; and

Whereas, The completion of these tunnels and the construction of this highway would require approximately 32,000,000 man hours of labor and would furnish immediate employment to many unemployed men now upon the relief rolls of the State; and

Whereas, All the materials entering into the construction project will be produced by the industries of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, It is estimated that the cost of completion and operation of the roadway and these highway tunnels may be defrayed within a reasonable period of time by a system of tolls to be charged for the use of the tunnels; and

Whereas, This South Penn Tunnel Highway would possess invaluable military value in time of war; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a committee of three members of the Senate and three members of the House to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore and Speaker respectively, and in connection with the State Highway Department, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and the State Planning Board, and such other consultants as they choose to engage, make an investigation of this project; and

Resolved, That said committee shall make a report to the Legislature during the present session as promptly as possible, that they shall continue their investigations until a thorough study is completed.

RESOLUTION MEMORIALIZING THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE FEDERAL EMERGENCY RELIEF ADMINISTRATOR RELATIVE TO EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS ON FEDERAL EMERGENCY RELIEF PROJECTS AND THE APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES.

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1935.

Whereas, The policy of the administrators of unemployment relief is to refuse work relief to persons except such as are beneficiaries of direct relief; and

Whereas, Many meritorious citizens refuse to become beneficiaries of direct relief, and even though in want, are thus denied work to which they are entitled; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the President of the United States and the Federal Emergncy Relief Administrator be respectfully memorialized to permit the employment on Federal Emergency Relief Projects of persons who are in need of employment and who are not receiving direct relief and also of persons who are receiving direct relief and who are able to secure part-time employment in industry which if amplified with work relief would provide sufficient income to enable such persons to forego direct relief

Resolved That the Federal Emergency Relief Administrator be requested to constitute in each political subdivision of this Commonwealth a committee of five persons to pass upon applications of persons mentioned in the preceding resolution who are in need of work relief

Resolved, That the committees constituted in accordance with this resolution be urged and requested to sit at least one day or one evening each week, to hear applications of persons desiring work relief and who come within the terms of this resolution, and shall have power to issue to persons who are deemed worthy, certificates, furnished by the State Emergency Relief Board, evidencing the belief that the holder thereof is entitled to employment, full time or part time, on any work relief project. No such certificate shall be denied to any person for the reason that he or she is not presently receiving direct relief, and no such certificate shall be issued to any person who in the opinion of any such committee is not entitled to work relief;

Resolved, That the State Emergency Relief Board and its agencies and those entrusted with the employment of persons on work relief projects be directed to cooperate with the committees constituted by this resolution and provide work to the fullest extent for the holders of certificates issued by such committees, and where work is available no such holder of a certificate shall be denied work for the reason that he is not a beneficiary of direct relief, or that he may be employed part time in industry;

Resolved, That no such committee shall hear applications of persons receiving direct relief unless the applicant is able to secure part time employment in industry, and is in need of additional income in order to forego direct relief;

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States the Federal Emergency Relief Administrator and to the State Emergency Relief Board by the Chief Clerk of this House
